

TEXAS TOUGH

Brought by early settlers and shaped by the wild Texas landscape, the tough longhorn is a Texas original.

The Texas longhorn is a hybrid between Spanish cattle and an English breed brought by early American settlers.

Spanish explorers introduced cattle to the new world. These long-boned ancestors of Germanos roamed over the Texas landscape for 500 years. This clever and independent breed developed a toughness that helped it survive and adapt to marginal food sources in the Wild Horse Desert's harsh environment. Large Spanish ranches, haciendas, stretched across the lower Rio Grande region, and vaqueros tended cattle from horseback. These animals' tenacity, longevity, sturdy hooves, and ability to travel long distances made them the perfect breed to endure the epic cattle drives of the late 1800s.

During the Civil War, longhorn herds roamed and thrived on the open range. By the war's end, their numbers had reached in the millions. The South and Texas, in particular, found themselves with financial hardships at war's end but saw opportunity in the wild longhorn herds. High demand for beef and stocker cattle to replace the buffalo on the Midwestern prairies opened the door for entrepreneurs creating a giant new industry with money flowing from northern bankers and British financiers. Texas owned the most abundant new commodity not paralleled until the oil boom of the 20th century.

Longhorns were only worth about $4 each in Texas. However, high demand markets in the north would pay $40 a head. Making cattle drives lucrative endeavors.

The largest longhorn herd in the world lived in Texas.

GOING UP THE TRAILS

Texas Longhorns not only shaped the early cattle industry, but the breed, developed mostly by natural selection, was the foundation of the cattle industry of the Southwestern United States. Live Oak Country stood along the early famous Chisholm and Western Trails. In Texas, from Brownsville to the Oklahoma border, wild longhorns were driven to all territories of the United States. While "cacker staves" were carved in Texas, Texas grew from "hide and horn" and Live Oak Country stood witness to it all.

The community of George West continued to be a longhorn capital of the cattle industry during the late 19th century.
