Readers and Reading Andrew Bennett, 2014-07-15 Much literary criticism focuses on literary producers and their products but an important part of such work considers the end user the reader It asks such questions as how far can the author condition the response of the reader and how much does the reader create the meaning of a text Dr Bennett's collection includes important essays from such writers and critics as Wolfgang Iser Mary Jacobus Roger Chartier Michel de Certeau Shoshana Felman Maurice Blanchot Paul de Man and Yves Bonnefoy It looks in turn at deconstructionist feminist new historicist and psychoanalytical response to the school The book then considers the act of reading itself discussing such issues as the uniqueness of any reading and the difficulties involved in its analysis

The Reading of Theoretical Texts Peter Ekegren, 2002-01-04 Since the structuralist debates of the 1970s the field of textual analysis has largely remained the preserve of literary theorists Social scientists while accepting that observation is theory laden have tended to take the meaning of texts as given and to explain differences of interpretation either in terms of ignorance or bias In this important contribution to methodological debate Peter Ekegren uses developments within literary criticism philosophy and critical theory to reclaim this study for the social sciences and to illuminate the ways in which different readings of a single text are created and defended

Reconnecting Reading and Writing Alice S. Horning,Elizabeth W. Kraemer,2013-09-06 Reconnecting Reading and Writing explores the ways in which reading can and should have a strong role in the teaching of writing in college Reconnecting Reading and Writing draws on broad perspectives from history and international work to show how and why reading should be reunited with writing in college and high school classrooms It presents an overview of relevant research on reading and how it can best be used to support and enhance writing instruction The importance of being a reader: A revision of Oscar Wilde's works Cristina Pascual Aransáez,2014-09-01 This book explores Wilde s works from the hypothesis that they call upon the active participation of the reader in the production of meaning It has a twofold objective first it shows that Wilde s emphasis on the creative role of the audience in his critical writings makes him conceive the reader as a co creator in the construction of meaning Second it analyses the strategies which Wilde employs to impel the reader to collaborate in the creation of meaning of his literary works and casts light upon the social criticism derived from these The examination of Wilde s writings reveals how he gradually combined more sophisticated techniques that encouraged the reader s dynamic role with the progressive exploitation of self advertising strategies for professional purposes These allowed the commercial Oscar to make his works successful among the Victorian public without betraying the literary Wilde s aesthetic principles The present study re evaluates Wilde as a critic and as a writer It demonstrates that while Wilde the myth was ahead of his time in many ways Wilde the ARTIST anticipated in his aesthetic theory various themes which occupy contemporary literary theoreticians Thus it may contribute to give him the status he rightly deserves in the history of literature In Search of Authority, second edition Stephen Bonnycastle,1996-01-31 Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office United States. Patent and Trademark Office,1997 The Palestinian Novel Ibrahim Taha,2013-09-13 Examines the complex relationship between the reality of the Palestinian minority in Israel and their literature through six novels according to a literary communication model which enables Dr Taha to examine how authors who belong to this minority relate to their readers Close Reading with Paired Texts Level 1 Lori Oczkus,Timothy Rasinski,2015-06-01 Teach first grade students close reading strategies that strengthen their fluency and comprehension skills Students will read and analyze various types of texts to get the most out of the rich content Their reading skills will improve as they answer text dependent questions compare and contrast texts and learn to use close reading strategies on

Published in 2002 It is easy to see that we are living in a time of rapid and radical social change It is much less easy to grasp the fact that such change will inevitably affect the nature of those disciplines that both reflect our society and help to shape it Yet this is nowhere more apparent than in the central field of what may in general terms be called literary studies New Accents is intended as a positive response to the initiative offered by such a situation Each volume in the series will seek to encourage rather than resist the process of change To stretch rather than reinforce the boundaries that currently define literature and its academic study Handbook of Research on Reading Comprehension, Second Edition Susan E.

Smith, Susan Marie Turner, 2014-05-27 In Incorporating Texts into Institutional Ethnographies Dorothy E Smith and Susan Marie Turner present a selection of essays highlighting perhaps the single most distinctive feature of the sociological approach known as Institutional Ethnography IE the ethnographic investigation of how texts coordinate and organize people s activities across space and time The chapters written by scholars who are relatively new to IE as well as IE veterans illustrate the wide variety of ways in which IE investigations can be done as well as the breadth of topics IE has been used to study Both a collection of examples that can be used in teaching and research project design and an excellent introduction to IE methods and techniques Incorporating Texts into Institutional Ethnographies is an essential contribution to the subject
