The Search for Ultimate Reality Dan Liroy, 2005 In analyzing the intertextuality between the Genesis and Johannine Prologues Dr Liroy maintains that both passages utilize polemical theology to refute distorted views of ultimate reality Furthermore he theorizes that the author of the Johannine Prologue deliberately reflected the structure and themes found in the Genesis Prologue to emphasize that the God man Jesus Christ created all things and is a new spiritual beginning for all who believe in Him Ultimate reality is found through faith in the Son Kinship Relations in the Gospel of John Joan C. Campbell, 2023-12-06 This monograph examines the relationships between the two families of Jesus in the Fourth Gospel The first family is that of the mother brothers and sisters of Jesus the second is the fictive family of the disciples Using social scientific criticism Campbell proposes that the Gospel depicts a sharp division between these families that is between the biological family the brothers and sisters of Jesus adelphoi and the discipleship family that includes the mother of Jesus

NEW TESTAMENT CONTEXTUAL COMMENTARY

Dr. Robert R. Seyda, 2024-03-26 The Apostle John tells his readers he has an important message to tell them It is about a person who was already there before the beginning of the world We heard him speak We've seen Him with our own eyes We watched Him and we touched Him He is the Word that gives us life with God This is the message God is completely good and pure He is like light There is nothing dark about Him Amazingly John tells us that one of the things Jesus wanted us to understand is that by loving others we love God Yes we do make mistakes and so do other believers but we are not to hold that against them because just as we were given forgiveness by God's mercy and grace since we are in union with His Son so can they What we are not to do is claim access to this privilege but then live like those in the world Our goal is not just life but eternal life After all we are God's children and no child of God keeps on sinning after they are born again through Jesus the Anointed One

Jesus, Contradicted Michael R. Licona, 2024-05-28 The differences and discrepancies in the Gospels constitute the foremost objections to their reliability and the credibility of their message Some have tried to resolve Gospels contradictions with strained harmonization efforts Many others conclude that the Gospels are hopelessly contradictory and therefore historically unreliable accounts of Jesus In Jesus Contradicted New Testament scholar Michael Licona shows how the genre of ancient biography to which the Gospels belong actually allows biographers to be flexible in how they report events construct a narrative and make an argument Licona demonstrates that the intentional changes to the Jesus tradition by the Evangelists reveal that the differences in how the Gospels report events are not grounds for their rejection Instead they are a result of the Gospel writers employing standard literary conventions common in their time for writing ancient biography Licona introduces readers to the genre of ancient biography through Plutarch who wrote 48 of the 90 extant biographies written within 150 years of Jesus giving numerous examples of compositional devices employed by Plutarch and comparing them with instances in the Gospels where the Evangelists appear to use similar techniques Licona also examines Theon's Progymnasmata a first century textbook that provides six techniques for paraphrasing one's sources when writing a narrative In doing so he helps readers understand why the Gospels report many events differently Finally Licona concludes by addressing the thorny question of whether the editorial moves commonplace in ancient biography are compatible with the doctrines of the divine inspiration and the inerrancy of Scripture Rather than trying to resolve discrepancies by bending the Gospel narrative which risks making them say things they aren't saying Jesus Contradicted situates the Gospels within their proper context and helps readers account for differences in the Gospels in a cohesive and historically cogent way American Book Publishing Record, 2006 Reformed Systematic Theology, Volume 2 Joel Beeke, Paul M. Smalley, 2020-11-16 The aim of systematic theology is to engage not only the head but also the heart and hands Only recently has the church compartmentalized these aspects of life separating the academic discipline of theology from the spiritual disciplines of faith and obedience This multivolume work brings together rigorous historical and theological scholarship with spiritual disciplines and practical insights characterized by a simple accessible comprehensive Reformed and experiential approach In this volume Joel R Beeke and Paul M Smalley shift from the doctrine of God theology proper to the doctrine of humanity anthropology and the doctrine of Christ Christology This extensive reformed theology explores the Bible's teaching about who we are and why we were created as well as who Jesus is and why his divinity is essential to the Christian faith Holy Spirit and Reformed Spirituality Derek W.H. Thomas, Joel R. Beeke, 2013-10-11 How does God bring His Word into our lives The answer is by the Holy Spirit By the Spirit the Word was revealed and written By the Spirit the Word became flesh and dwelt among us By the Spirit the Word roots itself in the hearts of sinners and produces fruit Calvin recognized long ago that the Holy Spirit is the bond of union between believers and Christ Jonathan Edwards said that the Spirit is the sum of all Christ bought for His people with His precious blood How precious then is the Spirit and how important to know Him and His ways In this book a team of pastor theologians uncover the rich biblical teachings about the work of the Holy Spirit How was the Spirit involved in the human life of Jesus Christ What is a spiritual person How does the Spirit open the mind of sinners to trust in Christ What does it mean to serve God in the power of the Spirit How does the Spirit s sovereign work relate to our responsibility in evangelism These questions and more are addressed in this book

Cyclopaedia Bibliographica James Darling, 1859 Narrative Art & Women in the Gospels and Acts David Malick, 2018-06-05 David Malick applies the hermeneutics of narrative analysis to select passages involving women in the Gospels of Mark Luke John and in the Book of Acts At times the scope of this analysis extends beyond heightened understanding of how authors presented women as significant characters and even foils to men in the narratives The use of duality and balance in the narratives of Zacharias and Mary Nicodemus and the Samaritan Woman and Aeneas Tabatha and Cornelius focus on what the author is doing with what he is saying The use of intercalations or sandwich stories brings about heightened meaning when the stories of Jesus mother and the religious leaders or Jairus and the woman with a hemorrhage or Judas and the woman who anoints Jesus for his burial are read together in Mark A first and subsequent reading of the healing of Simon s mother in law in Mark provides the reader with the first picture of true discipleship The literary technique of a sign sermon shows logical unity to what might be considered separate units in Mark and Acts
