The Grace Of Difference A Canadian Feminist Theological Ethic:

The Grace of Difference Marilyn J. Legge, 1992 Marion J Legge addresses theological ethics from the context of Canadian women especially the experience of marginalized women in Canada Beginning with a critical reassessment of Canadian Radical Christianity she argues that approaches that center on question of economic justice have nevertheless overlooked the day to day economic realities of Canadian women Legge develops a reformulated critical theory of culture that though it emphasizes difference avoids premature abstraction and misplaced generalizations She seeks a voice to articulate the theological and ethical dimensions of women s experience in the texts of three Canadian novels In Search of April Raintree by Beatrice Cullen The Diviners by Margaret Laurence and Obasan by Joy Kogawa Feminist Theology Watson, 2003-12-08 Rethinking the Christian faith from a woman s perspective has been an important advancement in modern theology This book introduces the methods ideas and contributions of recent feminist theology to readers encountering the subject for the first time Natalie Watson explores the historical background of feminist theology discusses the value of reading Scripture from a feminist perspective and shows how this approach can offer a critical creative and constructive rereading of the Christian tradition She also sets forth some fresh ideas encouraging people to see feminism not as a threat to the church but as a challenging perspective that actually enhances its life in today s world An extensive annotated bibliography invites readers to further study presenting a wealth of books on feminist theology by many well known authors Ideal for classroom instruction discussion groups and personal study this volume is an exceptional user friendly guide to contemporary feminist thought The Theology of The United Church of Canada Don Schweitzer, Robert C. Airhart, Marilyn J. Legge, Gary L. Redcliffe, 2002-05-30 Doing Ethics in a Pluralistic World is an apt title for this collection of essays in honour of Roger C Hutchinson who over many decades has encouraged and participated in shaping a Canadian contextual social ethics His abiding interest in social ethics and in religious engagement with public issues is reflected in his life s work seeking the consensus and self knowledge required to achieve cooperation in the search for a just participatory and sustainable society One of Roger Hutchinson s many notable accomplishments is his development of a method of dialogue for ethical clarification in situations of diversity Some of the essays collected here apply this method to specific issues while others discuss how religious persons and organizations can and do co operate in a pluralistic world to achieve social and ecological well being All essays are of keen interest to those concerned with the role and function of ethics at the matrix of religious conviction and social transformation For nearly three decades Roger Hutchinson has been based at Victoria University in Toronto first in religious studies then at Emmanuel College where he completed his teaching career as professor of church and society while serving as principal from 1996 to 2001 Incarnation and Physics Tapio Luoma, 2002-08-15 Thomas F Torrance is the most prominent theologian to have taken seriously the challenge posed to theology by the natural sciences His model for interaction between the two disciplines is based on the theological heart of the Church the Incarnation Luoma here offers a thorough overview and critique of Torrance s insights into the theology science dialogue Graham Greene's Catholic Imagination Mark Bosco, 2005-02-17 Much has been written about Graham Greene s relationship to his Catholic faith and its privileged place within his texts His early books are usually described as Catholic Novels understood as a genre that not only uses Catholic belief to frame the issues of modernity but also offers Catholicism s vision and doctrine as a remedy to the present crisis in Western civilization Greene s later work by contrast is generally regarded as falling into political and detective genres In this book Mark Bosco argues that this is a false dichotomy created by a narrowly prescriptive understanding of the Catholic genre and obscures the impact of Greene s developing religious imagination on his literary art Religion and Public Life in Canada Marguerite Van Die, 2001-01-01 As this collection of scholarly case studies reveals religion once played a major public role in all aspects of Canadian society including politics education and culture Doing Ethics in a Pluralistic World Helen M. Buss, Roger Hutchinson, Canadian Corporation for Studies in Religion, 2002-05-30 Annotation A collection of essays in honour of the man who encouraged and participated in shaping a Canadian contextual social ethics The Bonds of Freedom Rebekah L. Miles, 2001-08-23 In this constructive study Miles proposes a new feminist theological ethic drawing together the contributions of Reinhold Niebuhr Sharon Welch and Rosemary Ruether

Seeking to critically reappropriate the Christian realism articulated by Niebuhr she reinterprets solutions to problems emergent from his theology Miles presents feminist Christian realism as an alternative that can reclaim a positive interpretation of divine transcendence and human self transcendence while maintaining newer emphases on human boundedness and divine immanence Theologians and ethicists will find her critical reassessment of the three authors distinctive and her challenging proposal for a positive creative transformation a significant contribution to the development of feminist ethics

Gender, Genre and Religion Morny Joy, Eva K. Neumaier-Dargyay, 2006-01-01 Many feminists today are challenging the outmoded aspects of both the conventions and the study of religion in radical ways Canadian feminists are no exception Gender Genre and Religion is the outcome of a research network of leading women scholars organized to survey the contribution of Canadian women working in the field of religious studies and further to plot the path forward This collection of their essays covers most of the major religious traditions and offers exciting suggestions as to how religious traditions will change as women take on more central roles Feminist theories have been used by all contributors as a springboard to show that the assumptions of unified monolithic religions and their respective canons is a fabrication created by a scholarship based on male privilege Using gender and genre as analytical tools the essays reflect a diversity of approaches and open up new ways of reading sacred texts Superb essays by Pamela Dickey Young Winnie Tamm Morny Joy and Marsha Hewitt among others honour the first generation of feminist theologians and situate the current generation showing how they have learned from and gone beyond their predecessors The sensitive and original essays in Gender Genre and Religion will be of interest to feminist scholars and to anyone teaching women and religion courses Hsieh Liang-tso and the Analects of Confucius Thomas W. Selover, 2005-01-20 Hsieh Liang tso c 1050 c 1120 known as master Shang ts ai was one of the leading direct disciples of Ch eng Hao and Ch eng I the two brothers who were the early leaders of the Confucian revival known as Neo Confucianism in Northern Sung China Hsieh was thus among the first to recognize and follow the insights of the Ch eng brothers as definitive of the authentic Confucian tradition a recognition that became the conviction of the majority of later Confucian scholars and practitioners The present book is a focused analysis of the core value of Confucian thought namely jen humanity or co humanity through an investigation of Hsieh Liang tso s analysis of the Analects of Confucius Selover argues that Hsieh s handling of key issues in interpreting and applying the Confucian Analects his experiential reasoning and his deference to scriptural classics and earlier tradition bear important similarities to the practice of theology in Western religious traditions The volume also contains a translation of Hsieh s commentary on the Analects as well as a foreword by the renowned scholar of Confucianism Tu Wei ming

Gender and the Social Gospel Wendy J. Deichmann

Edwards, Carolyn De Swarte Gifford, 2003 This collection of essays examines the central yet often overlooked role played by women in the formation of the social gospel movement in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries A practical theological response to the stark realities of poverty and injustice prevalent in turn of the century America the social gospel movement sought to apply the teachings of Jesus and the message of Christian salvation to society by striving to improve the lives of the impoverished and the disenfranchised The contributors to this volume set out to broaden our understanding of this radical movement by examining the lives of some of its passionate and vibrant female participants and the ways in which their involvement expanded and enriched the scope of its activity In addition to examining the lives of individual women the essays in Gender and the Social Gospel contain broader analyses of the gender and racial issues that have caused the histories of movements such as the social gospel to be viewed almost exclusively in terms of their male European American intellectual participants at the expense of the women African Americans and Canadians whose contributions were just as worthy of attention

Justice in the Making Beverly Wildung Harrison, 2004-01-01 Beverly Harrison has long fought for women and others at the margins challenging the subjugating ways in which women's intellectual contributions their gifts of ministerial leadership and their reproductive capacity and sexual identity have been defined This collection of essays and lectures presented over the course of her career demonstrates the progression of Harrison's contribution to the field of Christian ethics and the evolution of her thought in response to changing social realities

Linking Sexuality and Gender Tracy J. Trothen, 2006-01-01 Why did it take so long for the United Church of Canada to respond to violence against women Tracy J Trothen looks at the United Church as a uniquely Canadian institution and explores how it has approached gender and sexuality issues She argues that how the Church deals with these issues influences its ability to name violence against women In examining the Church's early approaches to gender and sexuality Tracy J Trothen discovered that the United Church had tended to see certain structures or roles as sacred and others as demonic For example while sex outside marriage was bad or improper sexual expression within marriage was largely deemed as proper or good no matter what manifestation it took This assumption allowed much violence within families and marriages to go unchallenged Trothen uncovers significant shifts in this approach through the examination of such issues as redemptive homes marriage pornography abortion the ordination of women and family Then analyzing three recent case studies she demonstrates the value of women's voices in challenging dominant world views Finally she suggests how the Church's approach to human sexuality and gender has facilitated or obstructed the move to address violence against women The findings in Linking Sexuality and Gender can be applied to faiths outside the United Church and will be important to anyone interested in church and society sexuality gender or the causal dynamics behind one Canadian institution's response to violence against women Tracy J Trothen is an assistant professor of systematic theology and ethics and director of field education at Queen's Theological College Queen's University Canada She was ordained in the United Church of Canada Why did it take so long for the United Church of Canada to respond to violence against women
