self contradiction that permeate thinking about love in the last hundred years He offers detailed studies of Freud Proust Shaw D H Lawrence and Santayana and he maps the ideas about love in Continental existentialism particularly those of Sartre and de Beauvoir Singer finally envisages a future of cooperation between pluralistic humanists and empirical scientists This last volume of Singer s trilogy does not pretend to offer the final word on the subject any more than do most of the philosophers he discusses but his masterful work can take its place beside their earlier investigations into these vast and complex questions
