The Greatest Man In The World:

The Greatest Man In Our Time Brian W. Kelly, 2023-03-29 Modern pundits give Donald Trump little credit for anything even though he is clearly The Greatest Man in Our Time I would say it is because the bulk of the news media simply do not like him as he does not want to have anything to do with a Marxist agenda Before Trump set the world on fire from 2017 to 2020 the five highest rated presidents according to a C SPAN survey for example were Abraham Lincoln George Washington Franklin D Roosevelt Theodore Roosevelt and Dwight D Eisenhower I do not contest the fact that they showed greatness in office but when you look at all of Trump s accomplishments and the complexity of our times the 45th president deserves much more consideration That s why I wrote this book You may never choose to invite Donald John Trump over the house for breakfast or even a holiday gathering but looking back at his four years in office whether you like him or not most Americans admit those were some of the most prosperous and warless years we have had in our lifetimes We have the chance again to have the Greatest Man in Our Time as President in a few more years Let s do our best to assure it After you read this book I hope you feel as comfortable as I do to place Donald J Trump on the top of this venerable stack of great presidents With all of the flack Trump received as president there are clearly a number of Americans who would not cast their vote for Best President his way under any circumstance But there are a lot who would I am glad you are reading this book as it will help you know what a great man and a great president we can have again as our leader

The World's Greatest Books — Volume 06 — Fiction Unknown, 2015-12-27 The World's Greatest Books Volume 06 An enterprise such as THE WORLD'S GREATEST BOOKS is to be judged from two different standpoints It may be judged with respect to its specific achievement the material of which it consists or it may be judged with regard to its general utility in the scheme of literature to which it belongs In an age which is sometimes ironically called remarkable for its commercialism nothing has been more truly remarkable than the advancement in learning as well as in material progress and of all the instruments that have contributed to this end none has been more effective perhaps than the practical popularisation of literature In THE WORLD'S GREATEST BOOKS an attempt has been made to effect a compendium of the world's best literature in a form that shall be at once accessible to every one and still faithful to its originals or in other words it has been sought to allow the original author to tell his own story over again in his own language but in the shortest possible space However we are aware that even THE WORLD'S GREATEST BOOKS will not escape the criticism of a small class of people who will profess to object to this as to any kind of interference with an author's original in reply to which it can only be said that such objections are seldom if ever made in the true interests of learning or in a genuine spirit of inquiry and too often only proceed from a knowledge of books or love of them which goes no deeper than their title page The selections in THE WORLD'S GREATEST BOOKS have been collected and are alphabetically arranged in ten different divisions namely Fiction Lives and Letters History Religion Philosophy Economics Science Poetry and Drama Travel and Adventure and Miscellaneous Literature An important additional feature of the work is the brief yet highly critical biographical and bibliographical note which accompanies every author and every selection throughout the twenty volumes To this must be also added the not less important Introductions and other explanations written by experts which often accompany the selections in the text cardinal examples of which will be found in particular in the section of Religion of this work in the articles dealing with such subjects as the Book of the Dead Brahmanism Confucianism the Koran Talmud etc

The 100: A Ranking Of The Most Influential Persons In History Michael H. Hart, 2000-06-01 In 1978 when Michael Hart's controversial book The 100 was first published critics objected that Hart had the nerve not only to select who he thought were the most influential people in history but also to rank them according to their importance Needless to say the critics were wrong and to date more than 60 000 copies of the book have been sold Hart believed that in the intervening years the influence of some of his original selections had grown or lessened and that new names loomed large on the world stage Thus the publications of this revised and updated edition of The 100 As before Hart's yardstick is influence not the greatest people but the most influential the people who swayed the destinies of millions of human beings determined the rise and fall of civilizations changed the course of history With incisive biographies Hart describes their careers and contributions Explaining his ratings he presents a new perspective on history gathering together the vital facts about the world's greatest religious and political leaders inventors writers philosophers explorers artists and innovators from Asoka to Zoroaster Most of the biographies are accompanied by photographs or sketches Hart's selections may be surprising to some Neither Jesus nor Marx but Muhammad is designated as the most influential person in human history The writer's arguments may challenge and perhaps convince readers but whether or not they agree with him his manner of ranking is both informative and entertaining The 100 revised and updated is truly a monumental work It promises to be just as controversial just as thought provoking and just as successful as its predecessor a perfect addition to any history or philosophy reference section
