Parliament. House of Commons, 1838      Subject Knowledge and Teacher Education Viv Ellis, 2007-04-05 Teachers knowledge of the subjects they teach has been of enduring interest to governments the profession and the wider society In this book Viv Ellis traces the development of three beginning teachers thinking about their subject knowledge in the context of Standards based teacher education and the practice of auditing student teachers subject knowledge Ellis puts forward a theory of subject knowledge development that moves on from the objectivist and individualistic epistemologies associated with Standards and the practices of auditing to more a contextualist and sociocultural understanding of teachers cognition and learning An important implication of this study is that if teacher education wishes to have greater impact on the development of beginning teachers teacher educators need to pay greater attention to the schools and subject department settings in which these beginning teachers learn      The Economics of Open Access Thomas Eger, Marc Scheufen, 2018-06-29 Addressing the recent debate on how the future of academic publishing might look in a purely digital environment this book analyzes the experiences of researchers with as well as attitudes towards Open Access OA publishing Drawing on a unique in depth survey with more than 10 000 respondents from 25 countries Thomas Eger and Marc Scheufen discuss their findings in the light of recent policy attempts which have been trying to foster OA revealing considerable shortcomings and lack of knowledge on fundamental features of the academic publishing market      Understanding Anne Enright Ana-Karina Schneider,2020-07-28 Addressed to both literary scholars and the general reader Understanding Anne Enright is an introduction to the novels and stories of one of the most original and engaging contemporary Irish writers It analyses developments in Enright s writing comparing the evolution of themes and forms from one book to another contextualising her fiction and interrogating the impact of concepts such as postmodernism post feminism and post nationalism on the writing and reading of her work It particularly follows the evolution of Enright s treatment of the corporeality of women s experiences and its correlation with the embodied language of her fiction Thus this book shows how Enright s writing participates in the latest thematic and formal trends not only of Irish or British but also of Western literature      Landscape Bionomics Biological-Integrated Landscape Ecology Vittorio Ingegnoli,2015-03-03 Landscape Bionomics or Bio integrated Landscape Ecology radically transforms the main principles of traditional Landscape Ecology by recognizing the landscape as a living entity rather than merely the spatial distribution of species and communities on the territory often analysed in separate themes water species pollution etc To be more exact the landscape is identified as the life organization integrating a set of plants animals and human communities and its system of natural semi natural and human cultural ecosystems in a certain spatial configuration This new perspective inevitably leads to significant changes in how to assess and manage the environment This book represents the culmination of an endeavor begun by the author with the support of Richard Forman and Zev Naveh more than a dozen years ago It builds on the author s previous successful publication Landscape Ecology A Widening Foundation by addressing a range of additional topics and discussing the new theoretical and methodological concepts that have emerged during the past decade of research Particular attention is paid to the fact that interventions in the landscape can be made with the best intentions yet cause serious damage Against this background the author explains the need to study landscape units by applying methods comparable to those used in clinical diagnosis hence ecologists can be viewed as the physicians of ecological systems
