African Cinema in a Global Age Kenneth W. Harrow, 2023-09-19 This book traces the developments in African films that were made from the 1990s to the present within the evolving frame of what came to be called World Cinema and eventually Global Cinema Kenneth W Harrow explores how from the time video and then digital technologies were introduced in the 1990s and then again when streaming platforms assumed major roles in producing and distributing film between the 2010s and 2020s African cinema underwent enormous changes He highlights

how the introduction of the continent's first successful commercial cinema Nollywood shifted the focus from engag films with social or political messages to entertainment movies but also auteur cinema Harrow explores how this transformation liberated African filmmakers and resulted in an incredible enduring flow of creative inventive and thoughtful filmmaking This book presents a number of those critical films that mark that trajectory projecting a new sense of African film spaces and temporalities while also highlighting how African films continue to find independent pathways This book will be of interest to students and scholars of African cinema and world cinema as well as researchers specifically examining African cinemas and their relationship to globalization

Postcolonial African cinema David Murphy, Patrick Williams, 2019-01-04 This is the first introduction of its kind to an important cross section of postcolonial African filmmakers from the 1950s to the present Building on previous critical work in the field this volume will bring together ideas from a range of disciplines film studies African cultural studies and in particular postcolonial studies in order to combine the in depth analysis of individual films and bodies of work by individual directors with a sustained interrogation of these films in relation to important theoretical concepts Structurally the book is straightforward though the aim is to incorporate diversity and complexity of approach within the overall simplicity of format Chapters provide both an overview of the director's output to date and the necessary background personal or national cultural or political to enable readers to achieve a better understanding of the director's choice of subject matter aesthetic or formal strategies or ideological stance They also offer a particular reading of one or more films in which the authors aim to situate African cinema in relation to important critical and theoretical debates This book thus constitutes a new departure in African film studies recognising the maturity of the field and the need for complex yet accessible approaches to it which move beyond the purely descriptive while refusing to get bogged down in theoretical jargon Consequently the volume should be of interest not only to specialists but also to the general reader
