The Group Process Family Therapy

James P. Trotzer

The Group Process Family Therapy:

The Group Process and Family Therapy Sheila Thompson, Jack H. Kahn, 1988 Few innovations in the field of psychotherapy have made such a universal impact as that of family therapy. The authors of The Group Process as a Helping Technique have now brought family therapy within the same framework holding that the underlying principles of group and of family treatment can become part of the thinking of members of the caring professions in general and of all whose work brings them into contact with people's problems and relationships. In this work they take the reader through a deceptively simple account of the origins of various forms of group work culminating in the therapy of family groups illustrating each form of group process with succinct examples from group counselling, social case work, child guidance, family psychiatry, terminal care and mental health consultation. The scholarly discussion is illuminated with excerpts from Henry James, George Eliot, Bertrand Russell, Jane Austen and Conan Doyle as well as from Sigmund Freud, Eriq Bion, Foulkes, Caplan, Skynner, Satir and Melanie Klein.

The SAGE Encyclopedia of Marriage, Family, and Couples Counseling Jon Carlson, Shannon B. Dermer, 2016-10-11

The SAGE Encyclopedia of Marriage, Family and Couples Counseling is a new all encompassing landmark work for researchers seeking to broaden their knowledge of this vast and diffuse field. Marriage and family counseling programs are established at institutions worldwide yet there is no current work focused specifically on family therapy. While other works have discussed various methodologies, cases, niche aspects of the field and some broader views of counseling in general, this authoritative Encyclopedia provides readers with a fully comprehensive and accessible reference to aid in understanding the full scope and diversity of theories, approaches and techniques and how they address various life events within the unique dynamics of families, couples and related interpersonal relationships. Key topics include Assessment, Communication, Coping, Diversity, Interventions and Techniques, Life Events, Transitions, Sexuality, Work Life Issues and more. Key features include: More than 500 signed articles written by key figures in the field; span four comprehensive volumes; Front matter includes a Reader's Guide that groups related entries thematically; Back matter includes a history of the development of the field, a Resource Guide to key associations, websites and journals, a selected Bibliography of classic publications and a detailed Index. All entries conclude with Further Readings and Cross References to related entries to aid the reader in their
