Sir Charles God Damn:

Sir Charles God Damn John Coldwell Adams, 1986-12-15 A new era in Canadian poetry began in 1880 with the publication of Charles G D Roberts Orion and Other Poems He was just twenty years old Roberts was soon acknowledged as leader of the so called Confederation Poets Bliss Carman Duncan Campbell Scott and Archibald Lampman During his long lifetime he wrote hundreds of poems as well as novels histories short stories translations and essays he also originated the realistic animal story popularized by Ernest Thompson Seton He awed literary critics with the versatility of his writing and shocked staid Canadians with the escapades of an unconventional private life Married at twenty in his native New Brunswick Roberts soon after began a series of romantic entanglements While his wife May raised the children in Fredericton he swanned around New York Havana and the capitals of Europe He experienced the Bohemian life of Washington Square around the turn of the century and lived in Montparnasse long before it became famous as an expatriate haven In 1907 he sailed off to Europe and stayed for eighteen years When he finally returned aboard the Berengaria in 1925 for a reading tour he was lionized from coast to coast For almost two decades he remained a prominent figure in Canadian literary and social circles He was national president of the Canadian Authors Association from 1927 to 1929 and in 1935 he was knighted At the age of eighty three just three weeks before his death in 1943 he married for a second time Perhaps over praised as a writer in his own lifetime Roberts reputation has since languished His main literary achievement Adams concludes was in being the first Canadian writer to come to terms with the Canadian landscape influencing his contemporaries to see their own surroundings with fresh and discerning eyes The story of his personal life recounted here fully and objectively for the first time adds a vivid portrait to the gallery of Canada's literary pioneers

Little Resilience Eli MacLaren, 2020-10-22 The Ryerson Poetry Chap Books were a landmark achievement in Canadian poetry Edited by Lorne Pierce the series lasted for thirty seven years 1925-62 and comprised two hundred titles by writers from Newfoundland to British Columbia over half of whom were women By examining this editorial feat Little Resilience offers a new history of Canadian poetry in the twentieth century Eli MacLaren analyzes the formation of the series in the wake of the First World War at a time when small presses had proliferated across the United States Pierce's emulation of them produced a series that contributed to the historic shift in the meaning of the term chapbook from an antique of folk culture to a brief collection of original poetry By retreating to the smallest of forms Pierce managed to work against the dominant industry pattern of the day agency publishing or the distribution of foreign editions Original case studies of canonical and forgotten writers push through the period's defining polarity modernism versus romanticism to create complex portraits of the author during the Depression the Second World War and the 1950s The stories of five Ryerson poets Nathaniel A Benson Anne Marriott M Eugenie Perry Dorothy Livesay and Al Purdy reveal poetry in Canada to have been a widespread vocation and a poor one as fragile as it was irrepressible The Ryerson Poetry Chap Books were an unprecedented initiative to publish Canadian poetry Little Resilience evaluates the opportunities that the series opened for Canadian poets and the sacrifices that it demanded of them Canadian Literature in English W. J. Keith, 2006 W J Keith has chosen to ignore utterly both the popular at the one extreme Robert Service Lucy Maud Montgomery as well as the avant garde at the other bpnichol Anne Carson in favour of those authors whose style lends itself to the simple pleasure of reading and to that end Keith dedicates his history to all those including those of the general reading public whose endangered status is much lamented who recognize and celebrate the dance of words The Oath Michael Jecks, 2021-05-03 The threat of war looms over England 1326 In an England riven with conflict knight and peasant alike find their lives turned upside down by the warring factions of Edward II with his hated favourite Hugh le Despenser and Edward's estranged queen Isabella and her lover Sir Roger Mortimer Yet even in such times the brutal slaughter of an entire family still has the power to shock Three further murders follow and bailiff Simon Puttock is drawn into a web of intrigue vengeance power and greed as Roger Mortimer charges him to investigate the killings The twenty ninth instalment in the gripping Last Templar Mysteries series perfect for fans of C J Sansom and Susanna Gregory Praise for Michael Jecks Michael Jecks is a national treasure Scotland on Sunday Marvellously portrayed C J Sansom The Feminine Gaze Anne Innis Dagg, 2006-01-01 Many Canadian women fiction writers have become justifiably famous But what about women who have written non fiction When Anne Innis Dagg set out on a personal quest to make such non fiction authors better known she expected to find just a few dozen To her delight she unearthed 473 writers who have produced over 674 books These women describe not only their country and its inhabitants but a remarkable variety of other subjects from the story of transportation to the legacy of Canadian missionary activity around the world While most of the writers lived in what is now Canada other authors were British or American travellers who visited Canada throughout the years and reported on what they found here This compendium has brief biographies of all these women short descriptions of their books and a comprehensive index of their books subject matters The Feminine Gaze A Canadian Compendium of Non Fiction Women Authors and Their Books 1836 1945 will be an invaluable research tool for women's studies and for all who wish to supplement the male gaze on Canada's past Music Papers John Beckwith, 1997 What is music where does it come from and what does it mean If music is in the background and no one listens to it does it still exist Why do composers write music and how do they learn their profession What about Canadian music a regional dialect of this universal language How has it been created inside the country how well is it understood abroad Music papers are reflections from a life of composing and teaching These articles talks and reviews whether intended originally for general or professional audiences communicate a passion for music rooted in a North American culture and place informed by long and loving familiarity with masterpieces from elsewhere Also included are alternative versions of the early life of Glenn Gould proofs of the existence of musical life in Toronto and some questions still unanswered Cobbett's Complete Collection of State Trials and Proceedings for High Treason and Other Crimes and Misdemeanors from the Earliest Period to the Present Time ,1812 John Buchan J. Galbraith,2013-08-10 An accomplished Scottish thriller writer journalist soldier spy and Member of Parliament John Buchan 1st Baron Tweedsmuir was Canada s governor general from 1935 to 1940 and helped draw Canada Britain and the United States closer together during the perilous days before and at the start of World War II Death So Noble Jonathan F. Vance,2011-11-01 This book examines Canada s collective memory of the First World War through the 1920s and 1930s beginning with the Armistice in 1918 This book deals with cultural history more than military history and looks at art music and literature during World War I Comparable to Modris Eskteins Rites of Spring and Paul Fussell s The Great War and Modern Memory the author draws on a broad range of sources published and unpublished making this book an original contribution to the growing literature dealing with World War I Thematically organized into such subjects as the symbolism of the soldier the implications of war memory for Canadian nationalism and the idea of a just war the book draws on military records memoirs war memorials newspaper reports fiction popular songs and films In each case Vance draws a distinction between the objective realities of the war and the way that contemporaries remember it Death so Noble takes an unorthodox look at the Canadian war experience It views the Great War as a cultural and philosophical force rather than as a political and military event It will be of interest to specialists in First World War history and literature as well as a general audience

Fascinating Canada John Robert Colombo,2011-05-27 Few people have read as widely in the field of Canadiana as has John Robert Colombo The curiosity of this Toronto writer editor and anthologist knows few if any bounds when it comes to the lore literature history culture and character of Canada He has an inquiring mind and he seems able to find national and even international twists to subjects of interest or importance Fascinating Canada his latest book is the product of over half a century of research reading writing and thinking Some years ago the author produced a trilogy of question and answer books 1 000 Questions about Canada 999 Questions about Canada 1 000 Questions about Canada The first two were published by Doubleday Canada the third one in 2001 by Dundurn Press The same format is adapted to the material in the present book but this time the majority of the questions are short whereas a good many of the answers are quite long discussions of the subjects at hand concise questions followed by considered answers Here is a book about the Canadian past present and future The information in Fascinating Canada is organized under four headings People Places Things Ideas and there is a detailed Index for ready reference This book may serve as a work of popular reference but it has been written to stimulate inquiry and spark the sense of surprise in the minds of readers who know something about this amazing country but perhaps not as much as the author Open this book and begin to read and match wits with author and researcher John Robert Colombo

The Confederation Group of Canadian Poets, 1880-1897 D.M.R. Fiction Treasures by Maritime Writers Gwendolyn Davies,2015-08-13 Though little known today from 1860 to 1940 Canadian novelists from the Maritime provinces were writing highly successful books which were widely read in Canada the US and Britain Although today only Lucy Maud Montgomery is remembered and read there were several dozen writers who enjoyed the same level of success and renown This book brings these authors and their most successful books back into the spotlight of Canadian writing In 2001 Canadian literature specialist Gwen Davies and Formac publisher James Lorimer set out to republish books by these largely forgotten Maritime authors Readers can now discover 35 of their novels all reprinted in Formac s Fiction Treasures series For each book series editor Gwen Davies commissioned an introduction by a contemporary scholar who offers a brief biography of the writer and a discussion of the text itself As Gwen Davies notes These introductions not only capture new research in literary biography or publishing history but also broaden our understanding of regional popular reading tastes from the era of Queen Victoria to the Second World War This book brings these introductory essays together in a single volume so that readers can discover these writers and get an overview of their best works

New Brunswick at the Crossroads Tony Tremblay,2017-10-25 What is the relationship between literature and the society in which it incubates Are there common political social and economic factors that predominate during periods of heightened literary activity New Brunswick at the Crossroads Literary Ferment and Social Change in the East considers these questions and explores the relationships between periods of creative ferment in New Brunswick and the socio cultural conditions of those times The province s literature is ideally suited to such a study because of its bicultural character in both English and French periods of intense literary creativity occurred at different times and for different reasons What emerges is a cultural geography in New Brunswick that has existed not in isolation from the rest of Canada but often at the creative forefront of imagined alternatives in identity and citizenship At a time when cultural industries are threatened by forces that seek to negate difference and impose uniformity New Brunswick at the Crossroads provides an understanding of the intersection of cultures and social economies contributing to critical discussions about what constitutes the creative in Canadian society especially in rural non central spaces like New Brunswick

The Imaginary Indian Daniel Francis,2012-04-17 First published in 1992 The Imaginary Indian is a revealing history of the Indian image mythologized by popular Canadian culture since 1850 propagating stereotypes that exist to this day Images of First Nations people have always been fundamental to Canadian culture From the paintings and photographs of the 19th century to the Mounted Police sagas and the spectacle of Buffalo Bill s Wild West Show from the performances of Pauline Johnson Grey Owl and Buffalo

Long Lance to the media images of Oka and the Vancouver Winter Olympics the Imaginary Indian is ever with us oscillating throughout our history from friend to foe from Noble Savage to bloodthirsty warrior from debased alcoholic to wise elder from monosyllabic squaw to eloquent princess from enemy of progress to protector of the environment The Imaginary Indian has been and continues to be as Daniel Francis reveals in this book just about anything the non Native culture has wanted it to be and the contradictory stories non Natives tell about Imaginary Indians are really stories about themselves and the uncertainties that make up their cultural heritage This is not a book about Native people it is the story of the images projected upon Native people and the desperate uses to which they are put This new edition published almost twenty years after the book's first release includes a new preface and afterword by the author Daniel Francis is an award winning historian and the author of twenty books

Improved by Cultivation R.G. Moyles, 1994-09-28 This anthology combines some of the finest writing by such well known writers as Leacock Moodie Ernest Thompson Seton and Lucy Maud Montgomery with fascinating pieces by lesser known names such as George Copway the first Canadian native writer to have his work published in English and Lady Agnes Macdonald the wife of Canada's first prime minister and a popular writer of great verve and enthusiasm In addition to three genres of fiction the anthology includes two important varieties of non fiction in which early Canadians made a strong and distinctive contribution Travel and Exploration Narratives and Memoirs and Descriptive Sketches

Animal Fiction in Late Twentieth-Century Canada Alice Higgs, 2023-11-09 Animal Fiction in Late Twentieth Century Canada fulfils a vital contribution to the conversation surrounding animal representation as a point of continuity in national narratives and supports the idea that focusing on narratives of responsibility and care influences better relations with both non human animals and across settler Indigenous boundaries Alice Higgs engages with on going debates regarding reconciliation by demonstrating that it is imperative to critique settler colonial environmental frameworks and place autonomy back into Indigenous communities by bringing Indigenous practices of custodianship and relationality to bear more generally This book also develops a number of conversations in animal studies in relation to the politics of representation Higgs studies a range of canonical Canadian authors demonstrating a progress across the period in which it is possible to identify the emergence of a literary pro animal turn
