Great Pages in History from the Wisconsin State Journal, 1852-2002 Frank Denton,2002 This fascinating collection reproduces the most important front pages in the history of the Wisconsin State Journal newspaper from its first publication under that name on September 30 1852 to the current War on Terrorism See what Wisconsinites first read about Abraham Lincoln s election and assassination Custer s last stand against the Sioux the first votes by women Henry Ford s 5 daily wage the Saint Valentine s Day mob massacre in Chicago the disappearance of Amelia Earhart as she attempted to fly around the world and the wars elections crimes and social revolutions that have defined the past century and a half Each front page reproduced from the original is readable down to the smallest type In 2002 the Wisconsin State Journal celebrates its Sesquicentennial marking one hundred and fifty years of service to the people of Madison and the State of Wisconsin. The newspaper had an earlier inception as the Madison Express in 1839 when Madison was a territorial town on the frontier and statehood was still nine years away. Readers will notice the newspaper's appearance has changed nearly as much as have the methods of gathering the news and producing the paper. But readers' fascination with and hunger for the news of each day remain strong.
