Pierce, 2014-11-04 A powerful and profoundly moving novel of the civil war in Rwanda told by men women and children on both sides Speak Rwanda by Julian R Pierce marks the arrival of one of the most mesmerizing novels of the year In vivid sometimes horrifying balanced complex and utterly believable chapters it traces the linked lives of several characters Hutu and Tutsi soldiers and civilians mothers politicians nurses herdsmen and orphaned children as they try to survive one of the most violent and deeply disturbing acts of genocide since the Second World War Through the course of the novel some live and some die by the end the reader is fully involved in the lives of these people and begins to see a faint glimmer of hope and the promise of peace Rwanda Genocide Stories Nicki Hitchcott, 2015 A critical study of fictional responses by authors inside and outside Rwanda to the 1994 genocide

Historical Dictionary of Rwanda Aimable Twagilimana, 2015-11-06 Blessed with natural beauty and rich vegetation Rwanda is often called the land of a thousand hills le pays des mille collines a reference to its many lush and green rolling hills Moreover for many Rwandans at least in the past Rwanda in spite of its small size is vast in fact it means the universe This idyllic view however sharply contrasts with the sad history of ethnic strife that unfolded since the 1950s the 1959 Hutu Revolution followed by years of anti Tutsi pogroms undemocratic regimes the civil war of 1990 1994 and more significantly the April July 1994 genocide against the Tutsi and the killing of Hutu who opposed the killings The 1994 genocide against the Tutsi remains the most defining single event in contemporary Rwanda and many people in the world today know of this central African nation from the prism of extreme mass violence that sullied the end of the 20th century amid international indifference and has since haunted the world s conscience This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Rwanda contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 300 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Rwanda Imagining the International Nesam McMillan, 2020-09-08 International crime and justice are powerful ideas associated with a vivid imagery of heinous atrocities injured humanity and an international community seized by the need to act Through an analysis of archival and contemporary data Imagining the International provides a detailed picture of how ideas of international crime crimes against all of humanity and global justice are given content foregrounding their ethical limits and potentials Nesam McMillan argues that dominant approaches to these ideas problematically disconnect them from the lived and the specific and foster distance between those who have experienced international crime and those who have not McMillan draws on interdisciplinary work spanning law criminology humanitarianism socio legal studies cultural studies and human geography to show how understandings of international crime and justice hierarchize spectacularize and appropriate the suffering of others and promote an ideal of justice fundamentally disconnected from life as it is lived McMillan critiques the mode of global interconnection they offer one which bears resemblance to past colonial global approaches and which seeks to foster community through the image of crime and the practice of punitive justice This book powerfully underscores the importance of the ideas of international crime and justice and their significant limits cautioning against their continued valorization

The Seduction of Pessimism in the Novel Tom Ribitzky, 2024-10-31 The Seduction of Pessimism in the Novel Eros Futility and the Quarrel with Philosophy explores the novel as a response to the Platonic myth that narrates the rift at the core of our being Eros is supposedly the consolation for this rift but the history of the novel documents its expression as one of frustrated desires neuroses anxieties and cosmic doom As if repeating the trauma from that original split in Plato a split that also divides philosophy from literature the novel treats eros as a site of loss and grief from the medieval romances to Goethe Emily Bront Proust Mann Woolf D H Lawrence and Nabokov The pessimism that emerges from this eros tells us something fundamental about who we are something that only the novel can say At a time when both education and leisure are increasingly ignoring the novel's imperative to sit with ambiguity complexity and contingency and as we are hurtling toward a bleak future of climate catastrophe and political instability the novel is one of the last bastions of humanity even as it is quickly being eroded
