Hans Conried Suzanne Gargiulo, 2002-09-05 Hans Conried was once described by the well-known Hollywood gossip columnist Hedda Hopper as a high-strung droll fellow plagued by a multitude of talents. Conried was indeed a talented and versatile actor, but his versatility often worked against him. A complex individual who yearned to perform Shakespeare on the stage, he achieved success playing low comedy in films and on television. Conried performed in nearly 10,000 radio shows and hundreds of television programs and stage plays, as well as more than 80 films. Over the years, Conried also lent his distinctive voice to numerous animated shorts, phonograph records, commercials, and other projects. Some of his most memorable roles are Dr. Terwilliker in The 5000 Fingers of Dr. T, the voice of Captain Hook from Disney's Peter Pan, eccentric Uncle Tonooso on The Danny Thomas Show, the fussy elocutionist Percy Livermore on I Love Lucy, and the voice of comical villain Snidely Whiplash from Jay Ward's Dudley Do-Right series. This book chronicles Conried's life and career from his birth in 1917 through his death in 1982. Enlivened by many photographs, as well as personal reminiscences from family, friends, and colleagues, the book also contains comprehensive information on Conried's radio, television, film, stage, and voice work.

Culture Matters Norhayati Zakaria, 2016-11-25 Global virtual teams (GVTs) have evolved as a common work structure in multinational corporations due to their efficiency and cost effectiveness. The cultural differences can produce great benefits in terms of perspective, creativity, and innovation, but can also exacerbate interpersonal tensions, miscommunications, and clashing decision-making behaviors. This book outlines cultural competencies specific to GVTs and sheds light on management strategies for creating an optimal inter-cultural GVT environment. It covers theory, decision-making strategies, and activities for cultural competence and problem resolution, all told through vignettes and lessons learned.

and industry services Paths Not Taken Henry R. Winkler, 2000-11-09 Distinguished historian Henry Winkler examines the changing and often contradictory views that characterized the British Labour party's approach to foreign policy from the end of World War I through the 1920s. He documents the progression from Labour's general indifference toward international issues before World War I to its almost total rejection of the prevailing international order after the war to its eventual grudging acceptance of the need to work for international cooperation through existing institutions. In the early 1920s the Labour party began to abandon its earlier positions of pacifism and class struggle in favor of a more pragmatic approach to foreign affairs as party leaders recognized the possibility that they might one day come to power. Central to the shift in policy were such leaders as J. R. Clynes, Norman Angell, Arthur Henderson, Hugh Dalton, Philip Noel Baker, and Will Arnold Forster, who rejected traditional policies and who supported the League of Nations and more tentatively collective security. According to Winkler, these positions might have offered a viable alternative to the ruling Conservative party agenda had they not been undermined by the disintegration of the entire European order in the 1930s.
