Inclusive Educational Administration Mary Konya Weishaar, John C. Borsa, Phillip M. Weishaar, 2007-03-08 Regular and special education administrators regularly encounter problems when attempting to work together to create and maintain successful special education programs This updated and improved second edition seeks to overcome this obstacle by training readers in shared problem solving Each chapter focuses on a specific issue including school reform fiscal and human resource matters school governance identification and placement conflict resolution program evaluation transportation and discipline followed by real life case studies and questions designed to encourage inclusive thinking and discussion within a cohort These real life case studies are an ideal way to hone problem solving skills in the safety of the classroom and prepare for real world situations The second edition integrates new legislation such as IDEA 2004 and No Child Left Behind and discusses contemporary developments including Response to Intervention RtI Enhanced graphics and semantic maps effectively highlight key terms and concepts The authors have added a new section featuring concept maps and key vocabulary terms for each case study Instructors will appreciate this invaluable tool to facilitate discussion and promote critical thinking about the elements presented in each chapter

The Essential Special Education Guide for the Regular Education Teacher Edwards Burns, 2007 The Individuals with Disabilities Education Act IDEA of 2004 has placed a renewed emphasis on the importance of the regular classroom the regular classroom teacher and the general curriculum as the primary focus of special education This book contains over 100 topics that deal with real issues and concerns regarding the regular classroom and the special education process These concerns range from requirements for referring a child for an individual evaluation school discipline classroom based assessment IEP meetings inclusion and mainstreaming and various legal requirements relating to IDEA Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the No Child Left Behind act It stresses the importance that every child with a disability must have goals to enable the child to be involved in and make progress in the general education curriculum OCO Other issues interspersed within this text include classroom needs the planning of individualized education programs and participation in all aspects of the general curriculum In order to achieve these goals support for the regular classroom teacher must be provided so that children with disabilities can be involved in and make progress in the curriculum and participate in nonacademic activities

The Handicapped Student in the Regular Classroom Bill Ray Gearheart, Mel W. Weishahn, 1980

Education is Special for Everyone Janet Mulvey, Bruce S. Cooper, Kathryn Accurso, Karen Gagliardi, 2014-07-07 Reform in education has focused mainly on development of new programs and procedures to increase the achievement of the student in the classroom Teacher evaluations are now based on how students perform in their classrooms on yearly standardized tests The advent of integrating students with special needs into the regular classroom has brought both benefits and concerns for average and above average students Special education in the United States has evolved from institutional and segregated environments to inclusion in the regular education classrooms We examine how the practice has affected all students and question whether this change has created equal opportunity for those students without special education needs This book researches and reports on issues of current practice e g teacher preparation placement of students with special needs implications for the average and above in the classroom and the financial costs driving placement decisions in the education system We examine the lowering of standards so all can pass tests report on loss of engagement of students by middle school and mourn the squandering of creativity to appease a mandate Sir Ken Robinson relates that Education is meant to take us into a future we cannot even grasp Yet we continue on a road that lowers our educational ranking internationally We recommend to provide services for all students and take the system from its current state to one that provides a Free and appropriate education for all Reimagining Special Education Jenna M. Rufo, Julie Causton, 2021-09 As the COVID 19 era continues to expose inequities inefficiencies and areas of need across our education system leaders and educators have a unique opportunity to press pause and reimagine school Now is the time to take the lessons of 2020 and turn them into action by closely examining the old ways letting go of practices that don't serve students and creating new routines and environments that meet the needs of every learner Education professionals need to investigate critical questions Which established routines and practices have always worked in school Did those practices really work for all students What hasn't worked so well What would it look like to rethink school in a way that eliminates practices that keep some students struggling while others thrive Explore the answers to these questions and more in this forthcoming release a visionary guide to the reimagined school from inclusion experts Jenna Rufo Ed D and Julie Causton Ph D
