
Special Needs Appropriate Practices Questions and Answers 100% Correct

Key Term 1 - ANSWER-Learning to see the whole child and what they can do, as well as concentrating on their family's needs, will help you provide excellent care to a child with special needs.

The National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) has the most widely accepted definition of inclusive child care: - ANSWER-Early childhood inclusion embodies the values, policies, and practices that support the right of every infant and young child and his or her family, regardless of ability, to participate in a broad range of activities and contexts as full members of families, communities, and society. The desired results of inclusive experiences for children with and without disabilities and their families include a sense of belonging and membership, positive social relationships and friendships, and development and learning to reach their full potential. The defining features of inclusion that can be used to identify high quality early childhood programs and services are access, participation, and supports." (p. 2)

Key Point 2 - ANSWER-Inclusive child care is an approach to child care that ensures every child has his or her unique needs met, and that every child in the program can participate in every offering.

Key Point 3 - ANSWER-A developmental delay or disability affects a person's ability to function in a way that is commonly expected for their age, resulting in special needs.

Key Point 4 - ANSWER-Being gifted or talented may impact a child's attention and behavior in a classroom of peers who are developing typically.

Key Point 5 - ANSWER-Early intervention refers to services that mitigate a delay or disability.

Key Point 6 - ANSWER-Developmentally appropriate practice involves knowing child development in general, along with each child's cultural and individual needs.

Key Point 7 - ANSWER-Support services can improve the quality of life for a child with a delay or disability.

Key Point 8 - ANSWER-If you suspect a child may have a delay or disability, refer the parents to the Florida Diagnostic & Learning Resources System.

Key Point 9 - ANSWER-Making a reasonable effort to accept a child with special needs means you are complying with the Americans with Disabilities Act, a federal law.
