Spectacle Of Violence Homophobia Gender And Knowledge:

The Spectacle of Violence Gail Mason, 2002 The Spectacle of Violence explores the contexts and implications of homophobia related violence and hostility asking questions about where violence comes from and the effects it has

Gender and Violence in the Middle East David Ghanim Ph.D., 2009-03-20 Gender and Violence in the Middle East argues that violence is fundamental to the functioning of the patriarchal gender structure that governs daily life in Middle Eastern societies Ghanim contends that the inherent violence of gender relations in the Middle East feeds the authoritarianism and political violence that plague public life in the region In this societal sense men as well as women may be said to be victims of the structural violence inherent in Middle Eastern gender relations The author shows that the varieties of physical violence against women for which the Middle East is notorious honor killings obligatory beatings female genital mutilation are merely eruptions of an ethos of psychological violence and the threat of physical violence that pervades gender relations in the Middle East Ghanim documents and analyzes the complementary roles of both sexes in sustaining the system of violence and oppressive control that regulates gender relations in Middle Eastern societies He reveals that women are not only victims of violence but welcome the opportunity to become perpetrators of violence in the married female life cycle of subordination followed by domination The mother in law plays a crucial role in supporting the structure of patriarchal control by stoking tensions with her daughter in law and provoking her son to commit sanctioned violence on his wife The author applies his deep analysis of gender and violence in the Middle East to illuminate the motivational profiles of male and female political suicidalists from the Middle East and the martyrological adulation that they are accorded in Middle Eastern societies

Global Perspectives on War, Gender and Health Hannah Bradby, 2016-04-22 Rendering the suffering of the marginalized visible has been an important aspect of feminist sociological studies of health illness and medicine with the subjective experience of those without access to institutional power being at the forefront of the research This volume analyzes the links between the suffering caused by the intentional violence of war and the unintentional suffering engendered by modern medicinal processes By establishing a fitting tribute to the academic and campaigning work of Meg Stacey Global Perspectives on War Gender and Health responds to her challenge of why medical sociology had not yet turned its gaze upon the health consequences of war A selection of international case studies are used to create a volume of significant interest to sociologists and those working in the fields of anthropology social policy social work peace war and security studies and international development

Crime, Violence and Masculinities Stephen Tomsen, 2024-12-30 Providing a detailed survey of the author's work over three decades this book chronicles Tomsen's studies of interpersonal violence and masculinities which initiated new approaches and topic areas and informed related theorising These novel approaches in social science research sparked new pathways of understanding which are outlined and evaluated in discussions of contemporary research and theoretical debates regarding masculinities and violence The work reflects phases of study concerning 1 public and related private urban male violence 2 anti gay anti queer assaults and homicides hate crimes and the ambivalent official responses to these 3 the ambiguous views of violence and different masculinities that are generated and circulate in criminal justice systems and in popular film and online culture and 4 frames of understanding masculine violence that have emerged in recent decades to further explain and address the apparent intractability of much offending its relationship to related forms of social privilege or disadvantage and preventive measures and programmes that are intended to counter this Crime Violence and Masculinities provides insight into the long term production of knowledge about masculinity and gendered violence that will benefit readers engaged in researching these topics as well as those with an interest in research results and their translation into related theory more broadly

Homophobia Shirleene Robinson, 2008 Homophobia is a prejudice with effects that extend far beyond the gay and lesbian community While its physical emotional and social effects have been charted to some extent the development of homophobia in Australia has yet to be fully explored Homophobia An Australian History is the first book to consider homophobia in a distinctively Australian context In this collection thirteen well known scholars examine the embedded homophobic attitudes that Australian gay and lesbian activists have fought to change The book traces the evolution of homophobia from its expression in Australia's past as a colonial settler society through to manifestations in present day society The compilation of this text is timely given the 2007 release of the Same Sex Same Entitlements report of the Human Rights and Equal Opportunity Commission The release of this report which focused on institutionalised and legal homophobia has raised public awareness of these issues and sparked broader debates about homosexual rights The thirtieth anniversary of Sydney's Gay and Lesbian Mardi Gras earlier this year also offers an ideal opportunity to reflect on the past gains and future goals of the gay and lesbian rights movement The collected chapters in this book argue that homophobia developed in conjunction with the growth of a modern homosexual identity in the second half of the nineteenth century To various extents the legal and medical professions and other social institutions have perpetuated homophobic attitudes Homophobia An Australian History raises awareness of the devastating impact these attitudes can have on individuals and on society Addendum At the commencement of Page IX Dr Ruth Ford's name and academic position was omitted Dr Ford's biographical entry under Notes on Contributors should read Dr Ruth Ford is a lecturer in Australian history at La Trobe University She has published extensively on Australian lesbian queer and gender history She is currently attempting to combine motherhood with researching writing and teaching Her publications include articles in Labour History Gender and History UK and Australian Historical Studies as well as book chapters in Madness in Australia histories heritage and the asylum edited by Catharine Coleborne and Dolly MacKinnon Gender and War Australians at war in the twentieth century edited by Joy Damousi and Marilyn Lake and Sex Power and Justice historical perspectives on the law in Australia 1788-1990 edited by Diane Kirkby

Everyday Violence Simone Kolysh, 2021-09-17 Everyday Violence is based on ten years of scholarly rage against catcalling and aggression directed at women and Lesbian Gay Bisexual

Transgender and Queer LGBTQ people of New York City Simone Kolysh recasts public harassment as everyday violence and demands an immediate end to this pervasive social problem Analyzing interviews with initiators and recipients of everyday violence through an intersectional lens Kolysh argues that gender and sexuality shaped by race class and space are violent processes that are reproduced through these interactions in the public sphere They examine short and long term impacts and make inroads in urban sociology queer and trans geographies and feminist thought Kolysh also draws a connection between public harassment gentrification and police brutality resisting criminalizing narratives in favor of restorative justice Through this work they hope for a future where women and LGBTQ people can live on their own terms free from violence Global

Feminist Ethics Peggy DesAutels, Rebecca Whisnant, 2010 This volume is fourth in the series of annuals created under the auspices of The Association for Feminist Ethics and Social Theory FEAST The topics covered herein from peacekeeping and terrorism to sex trafficking and women's paid labor to poverty and religious fundamentalism are vital to women and to feminist movements throughout the world Chikamoneka!: Gender and Empire in Religion and Public Life Cheelo

Siwila, Sylvia Mukuka, 2022-03-21 This is a pioneering volume that emerges from the voices of women scholars who belong to the Circle of Concerned African Women Theologians in their response to the subjection of women and children in religion and public life The book uses the metaphor Chikamoneka literally meaning it shall be seen to demonstrate resistance to all forms of oppression by empire to humanity especially those inflicted on women and children Some of the themes that addressed in this book are drawn from women's lived experiences This demonstrates the power of narrative theory as a tool for academic discourse The book makes a vital contribution to academic religious and secular society in the field of Gender Religion

Development and Sociology It is also the first publication by the Zambian Women of Circle Queer Conflict Research

Jamie J. Hagen, Samuel Ritholtz, Andrew Delatolla, 2025-06-10 Bringing together a team of international scholars this volume provides a foundational guide to queer methodologies in the study of political violence and conflict Contributors provide illuminating discussions on why queer approaches are important what they entail and how to utilise a queer approach to political violence and conflict The chapters explore a variety of methodological approaches including fieldwork interviews cultural analysis and archival research They also engage with broader academic debates such as how to work with research partners in an ethical manner Including valuable case studies from around the world the book demonstrates how these methods can be used in practice It is the first critical in depth discussion on queer methods and methodologies for research on political violence and conflict Families, Violence and Social Change Linda McKie, 2005-03-16 This comprehensive analysis on abuse committed in the home provides insights at both the micro and macro levels The book combines legal and social science approaches in a way that makes it essential reading for anyone studying or working on violence related issues Kev t Nousiainen University of Helsinki Johanna Niemi Kiesil inen University of Ume and Anu Pylkk nen University of Helsinki This excellent book offers a timely intervention into debates about violence Whilst most debates still focus on the spectacular rather than mundane forms of violence Linda McKie uses a synthesis of legal sociological and feminist research to show how current debates fail to deal with the violence that underpins our lives Prof Beverley Skeggs University of London An exciting new addition to the series this book tackles assumptions surrounding the family as a changing institution and supposed haven from the public sphere of life It considers families and social change in terms of concepts of power inequality gender generations sexuality and ethnicity Some commentators suggest the family is threatened by increasing economic and social uncertainties and an enhanced focus upon the individual This book provides a resume of these debates as well as a critical review of the theories of family and social change Charts social and economic changes and their impact on the family Considers the prevalence and nature of abuse within families Explores the relationship between social theory families and changing issues in familial relationships Develops a theory of social change and families through a critical and pragmatic stance Key reading for undergraduate students of sociology reading courses such as family gender health criminology and social change

Interconnecting the Violences of Men Kate Seymour, Bob Pease, Sofia Strid, Jeff Hearn, 2024-11-04 This book aims to expand and enrich understandings of violences by focusing on gendered continuities interconnections and intersections across multiple forms and manifestations of men's violence In actively countering both the compartmentalisation of studies of violence by type and form and the tendency to conceptualise violence narrowly it aims to flesh out not delimit understandings of violence Bringing together cross disciplinary indeed transdisciplinary perspectives this book addresses how what are often seen as specific and separate violences connect closely and intricately with wider understandings of violence how there are gendered continuities between violences and how gendered violences take many forms and manifestations and are themselves intersectional Grounded by the recognition that violence is itself a form of inequality the contributors to this volume traverse the intersectional complexities across both experiences of violent inequality and what is seen to count as violence The international scope of this book will be of interest to students and academics across many fields including sociology criminology psychology social work politics gender studies child and youth studies military and peace studies environmental studies and colonial studies as well as practitioners activists and policymakers engaged in violence prevention

The SAGE Handbook of Criminological Theory Eugene McLaughlin, Tim Newburn, 2010-07-21 An indispensable international resource The SAGE Handbook of Criminological Theory provides readers with a clear overview of criminological theory enabling them to reflect critically upon the traditional emergent and desirable theoretical positions of the discipline This handbook is essential for libraries and scholars of all levels studying the rapidly developing interdisciplinary field of criminology

The Emerald Handbook of Feminism, Criminology and Social Change Sandra Walklate, Kate Fitz-Gibbon, Jude McCulloch, Jane Maree Maher, 2020-07-02 Emerald Studies in Criminology Feminism and Social Change offers a platform for innovative engaged and forward looking feminist informed work to explore the interconnections between social change and the capacity of criminology to grapple with the implications of such change Violence Against Queer People Doug Meyer, 2015-10-11 Violence against lesbians and gay men has increasingly captured media and scholarly attention But these reports tend to focus on one segment of the LGBT community white middle class men and largely ignore that part of the community that arguably suffers a larger share of the violence racial minorities the poor and women In Violence against Queer People sociologist Doug Meyer offers the first investigation of anti queer violence that focuses on the role played by race class and gender Drawing on interviews with forty seven victims of violence Meyer shows that LGBT people encounter significantly different forms of violence and perceive that violence quite differently based on their race class and gender His research highlights the extent to which other forms of discrimination including racism and sexism shape LGBT people s experience of abuse He reports for instance that lesbian and transgender women often described violent incidents in which a sexual or a misogynistic component was introduced and that LGBT people of color sometimes weren t sure if anti queer violence was based solely on their sexuality or whether racism or sexism had also played a role Meyer observes that given the many differences in how anti queer violence is experienced the present media focus on white middle class victims greatly oversimplifies and distorts the nature of anti queer violence In fact attempts to reduce anti queer violence that ignore race class and gender run the risk of helping only the most privileged gay subjects Many feel that the struggle for gay rights has largely been accomplished and the tide of history has swung in favor of LGBT equality Violence against Queer People on the contrary argues that the lives of many LGBT people particularly the most vulnerable have improved very little if at all over the past thirty years Gender in Spanish Urban Spaces Maria C. DiFrancesco, Debra J. Ochoa, 2018-01-03 This edited collection examines the synergistic relationship between gender and urban space in post millennium Spain Despite the social progress Spain has made extending equal rights to all citizens particularly in the wake of the Franco regime and radically liberating Transición the fact remains that not all subjects particularly women immigrants and queers possess equal autonomy The book exposes visible shifts in power dynamics within the nation s largest urban capitals Madrid and Barcelona and takes a hard look at more peripheral bedroom communities as all of these spaces reflect the discontent of a post nationalistic economically unstable Spain As the contributors problematize notions of public and private space and disrupt gender binaries related with these they aspire to engender discussion around civic status the administration of space and the place of all citizens in a global world Safe Space Christina B. Hanhardt, 2013-12-04 Winner 2014 Lambda Literary Award in LGBT Studies Since the 1970s a key goal of lesbian and gay activists has been protection against street violence especially in gay neighborhoods During the same time policymakers and private developers declared the containment of urban violence to be a top priority In this important book Christina B Hanhardt examines how LGBT calls for safe space have been shaped by broader public safety initiatives that have sought solutions in policing and privatization and have had devastating effects along race and class lines Drawing on extensive archival and ethnographic research in New York City and San Francisco Hanhardt traces the entwined histories of LGBT activism urban development and U S policy in relation to poverty and crime over the past fifty years She highlights the formation of a mainstream LGBT movement as well as the very different trajectories followed by radical LGBT and queer grassroots organizations Placing LGBT activism in the context of shifting liberal and neoliberal policies Safe Space is a groundbreaking exploration of the contradictory legacies of the LGBT struggle for safety in the city

Violence in Everyday Life Aliraza Javaid,2020-07-23 Violence in Everyday Life explores how identity markers such as gender and sexuality intersect with violence synthesizing the themes of gender sexuality and violence to offering a crucial and coherent framework for understanding the interrelationship between these concepts Aliraza Javaid explores how violence is experienced at a local regional and global level and considers the ways in which hegemonic masculinities are reproduced through violence Attention is given to the particular ways in which these constructions of masculinity are reflected in areas such as homophobic violence transphobic violence and violence against intimate partners Drawing on new empirical data and his own personal experiences of violence as well as identifying new areas for further research Javaid s work represents a unique study of the interconnectedness of violence gender and sexuality and of how violence is fuelled by society s attitudes towards masculinity

Witnessing Sadism in Texts of the American South Claire Raymond,2019-10-28 Looking at works by Carrie Mae Weems Toni Morrison Emily Dickinson Flannery O Connor Dorothy Allison Carson McCullers and Zora Neale Hurston Claire Raymond uncovers a pattern of femininity constructed around representations of sadistic violence in American women s literature and photography from the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries Dickinson s poetry is read through its relationship to the Southern Agrarian critics who championed her work While the representations of violence found in Carrie Mae Weems s installation From Here I Saw What Happened and I Cried Morrison s Beloved Dickinson s poetry O Connor s A View of the Woods and A Good Man Is Hard to Find Allison s Bastard Out of Carolina McCullers Ballad of the Sad Caf and Hurston s Mules and Men are diverse in terms of artistic presentation all allude to or are set in the antebellum and Jim Crow South In addition all involve feminine characters whose subjectivity is shaped by the practice of seeing acts of violence inflicted where there can be no effective resistance While not proposing an equivalence between representing violence in visual images and written text Raymond does suggest that visual images of violence can be interpreted in context with written evocations of violent imagery Invoking sadism in its ethical sense of violence enacted on a victim for whom self defense and recourse of any kind are impossible Raymond s study is ultimately an exploration of the idea that a femininity constructed by the positioning of feminine characters as witnesses to sadistic acts is a phenomenon distinctly of the American South that is linked to the culture s history of racism

Acts of Love and Lust Lisa Featherstone,2014-10-02 The past six decades have seen astonishing changes in the construction of sexuality as an apparatus of knowledge and as a lived experience Australia like much of the West has undergone a veritable sexual revolution in attitudes and behavior From early sex therapy to gay marriage the juggernaut of late modern sexuality has significantly remade Australian social and cultural life This collection brings together the work of leading historians of sexuality to consider sixty years of remarkable sexual and social change Acts of Love and Lust explores the ways both heterosexuality and homosexuality were constructed by the state through sex education in medicine by the law political activists and in the hands of the media Just as importantly contributors consider the ways sexuality was experienced not as a monolithic or imposed institution but how it was explored and enjoyed by individual bodies across different times and spaces The authors examine the pleasures and pains of living in sexual bodies and explore the manifest ways that love and lust shaped Australia s society and culture Victims, Crime and Society Pamela Davies,Peter Francis,Chris Greer,2017-04-13 This book provides a thorough account of victimisation across the social spectrum of class race age and gender The second edition has been fully revised and expanded with two parts now spanning the key perspectives and issues in victimology Covering theoretical social and political contexts the book Includes new chapters on defining and constructing victims fear and vulnerability sexuality white collar crime and the implications of crime policy on victims Examines a global range of historical and theoretical perspectives in victimology and features a new chapter on researching victims of crime Reinforces your learning through critical thinking sections future research suggestions chapter summaries and a glossary of key terms Victims Crime and Society is the essential text for your studies in victimology across criminology criminal justice community safety youth justice and related areas
