The Cinema of Nuri Bilge Ceylan Bülent Diken, Graeme Gilloch, Craig Hammond, 2017-12-02 Film maker Nuri Bilge Ceylan's meditative visually stunning contributions to the New Turkish Cinema have marked him out as a pioneer of his medium Reaping success from his prize winning breakout film Uzak 2002 and from later festival favourites Once Upon a Time in Anatolia 2011 and Winter Sleep 2014 he has quickly established himself as an original and provocative writer director and producer of 21st century cinema In an age where Turkey's modernisation has created societal tensions and departures from past tradition Ceylan's films present a cinema of dislocation and a vision of nostalgia understood as homesickness sick of being away from home sick of being at home This book offers an overdue study of Ceylan's work and a critical examination of the principle themes therein In particular chapters focus on time and space melancholy and loneliness absence rural and urban experience and notions of paradox as explored through films which are often slow and uncompromising in their pessimistic outlook Moving on from the tendency to situate Ceylan's oeuvre exclusively within the canon of New Turkish Cinema one of this book's major achievements is also to assess the influence of classic European thought literature and film and how such a notably minimal and in many ways nationally specific approach translates to an increasingly transnational context for film This will prove an important book for film students and scholars and those interested in Turkish visual culture

Postcolonial Imaginings David Punter, 2000 This deeply engaging historically and culturally informed book provides new perspectives on a wide range of writers and at the same time provides a radically new development of many of the most pertinent issues in the field of postcolonial writing and theory It constitutes a major new engagement between the postcolonial and a conception of the literary that is richly innovative in its deployment of psychoanalytic deconstructive and other approaches to the text The book begins with some brief background to the issue of decolonization and its contemporary effects It is informed throughout by a clear sense of literary and political context within which chosen texts by well known writers Derek Walcott Chinua Achebe Edward Kamau Brathwaite as well as less well known ones Joan Riley Susan Power Abdulrazak Gurnah and writers not often seen in a postcolonial context James Kelman Seamus Deane Hanif Kureishi can be situated The chapters that follow are based around themes such as violent geographics hallucination dream and the exotic mourning and melancholy diaspora and exile delocalization and the alibi This profoundly new approach to the complexities of the postcolonial allows the reader to appreciate some of the richness but at the same time the political and cultural ambivalence which underlies postcolonial writing Throughout the book David Punter continually questions as one would expect from his many previous books the definition and scope of the postcolonial It is seen throughout as a phenomenon not restricted to the ex or neo colonies but as a key characterisation of all our lives at the beginning of the twenty first century It is an indissoluble part of the development of national imaginings and at the same time an alibi for the emergence of a violently assertive new world order committed to the management and obliteration of difference By juxtaposing texts from different cultural traditions and topographies from Things Fall Apart to The Bone People from Anot Neo-Victorianism and the Memory of Empire Elizabeth Ho, 2012-04-19 Examining the global dimensions of Neo Victorianism this book explores how the appropriation of Victorian images in contemporary literature and culture has emerged as a critical response to the crises of decolonization and Imperial collapse Neo Victorianism and the Memory of Empire explores the phenomenon by reading a range of popular and literary Anglophone neo Victorian texts including Alan Moore's Graphic Novel From Hell works by Peter Carey and Margaret Atwood the films of Jackie Chan and contemporary Steampunk science fiction Through these readings Elizabeth Ho explores how constructions of popular memory and fictionalisations of the past reflect political and psychological engagements with our contemporary post Imperial circumstances Freedom, 1915 CyberArts 2020 Christine Leopoldseder, 2020-01-01 Der Prix Ars Electronica ist der traditionsreichste Medienkunstwettbewerb der Welt Seit 1987 alljährlich ausgeschrieben gilt er wegen seiner Kontinuität der hohen Anzahl sowie Qualität der Einreichungen als Trendbarometer der weltweiten Medienkunst Mit vielen Bildern Texten und Statements der Jury befindet das Buch jene
