Emotion Carolyn Price, 2015-06-18 Emotion is at the centre of our personal and social lives To love or to hate to be frightened or grateful is not just a matter of how we feel on the inside our emotional responses direct our thoughts and actions unleash our imaginations and structure our relationships with others Yet the role of emotion in human life has long been disputed Is emotion reason's friend or its foe From where do the emotions really arise Why do we need them at all In this accessible and carefully argued introduction Carolyn Price focuses on some central questions about the nature and function of emotion She explores the ways in which emotion contrasts with belief and considers how our emotional responses relate to our values our likes and our needs And she investigates some of the different ways in which emotional responses can be judged as fitting or misplaced rational or irrational authentic or inauthentic sentimental or profound Throughout she develops a particular view of emotion as a complex and diverse phenomenon which reflects both our common evolutionary past and our different cultural and personal histories Engagingly written with lots of examples to illuminate our understanding this book provides the ideal introduction to the topic for students and scholars and anyone interested in delving further into the intricate web of human emotion

The Emotions Helena Wulff, 2024-11-01 Emotions are a loaded topic From love and hate to grief fear and envy emotions are increasingly understood as driving forces in social life The Emotions A Cultural Reader applies a cross cultural perspective on emotions It examines the fact that emotions are socially and culturally constructed while highlighting problems of comparison and translation of local terms and emotional experiences Are emotions cultural or universal To what extent are there culturally distinct emotions The Emotions closes the traditional Western gap where emotions are separated from rationality and thought the heart versus mind debate By presenting both classic essays and new cutting edge chapters from anthropology sociology and psychology with important contributions from philosophy and neuroscience the volume connects a rich range of cross cultural studies to form a thriving interdisciplinary debate on emotions

Pregnant Bodies,

Fertile Minds Wendy Luttrell, 2014-05-22 Focusing on fifty girls enrolled in a model public school program for pregnant teens Luttrell explores how pregnant girls experience society's view of them and also considers how these girls view themselves and the choices they've made Also includes an 8 page color insert The Papon Affair Richard Joseph Golsan, 2000 First Published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Introductory Psychology for Teachers Edward Kellogg Strong, 1922 Emotional Life - Managing Your Feelings to Make the Most of Your Precious Time on Earth Doreen Davy, 2014-03-28 Emotional Life explains how we can harness our own emotional power in order to live happier healthier and more fulfilling lives Criminal Law, Feminism and Emotions Latika Vashist, 2025-01-29 This book critically engages criminal law issues relating to sexuality and violence in order to argue that an attention to emotions can produce a more nuanced and more adequate feminist account of legal subjectivity Although the relationship between law and feminism has resulted in a vast body of work the issue of emotions has not been foregrounded in feminist legal scholarship in India Indeed many feminists have argued that reason and not emotion must provide the foundational basis for all laws and legal reforms an argument that has led to a division of the legal and the psychic or the emotional into separate and distinct zones Challenging this separation the book engages a range of recent criminal law cases and legislations in India in order to advocate for a feminine law that embraces its inherent cracks and contradictions Drawing on psychoanalytic theory the book takes up a range of issues surrounding sexuality and violence in order to propose a shift from viewing law as reason to seeing law as the terrain of messy and contradictory emotional continuums where legal subjects are viewed in their psychic dimensions and where law itself is opened up to its own unconscious desires Foregrounding emotions in this way the book argues can offer new insights into the operation of criminal law and new orientations for feminist ways of responding to and engaging with it This book will be of interest to scholars and students working in the areas of criminal law legal feminism and gender studies Living Large: Mastering Your Power Of Intention (formerly titled Watch Where You Point That Thing) Lola Jones, 2018-06-15 The followup book to Things Are Going Great In My Absence this book takes you beyond the old paradigm of seeking and working on yourself into what do I want to create now that life is great Lola Jones has created another groundbreaking book that people read over and over and get more each time Child and Adolescent Psychopathology for School Psychology Terry Diamanduros, P. Tysinger, Jeffrey Tysinger, Pamela Fenning, 2022-02-23 This is the only text to address child and adolescent psychopathology from the viewpoint of the school psychologist Integrating comparing and distinguishing DSM 5 diagnoses from IDEA disability classifications it provides a comprehensive overview of mental health conditions in this population This book addresses the impact of these conditions at school and at home along with a description of practical evidence based educational and mental health interventions that can be implemented in school environments It addresses the role of the school psychologist and details a variety of educational supports and school based mental health services as they apply to specific conditions This resource provides comprehensive coverage of school
