Spirit Level and Other Poems Christopher Morley, 1946-02-05 Spirit Level, and Other Poems Christopher Morley, 1946 Spirit Level and Other Poems Anthony Conran, 1974 Cultural Memory in Seamus Heaney's Late Work Joanne Piavanini, 2020-06-17

Cultural Memory in Seamus Heaney's Late Work considers the ways that memory functions in Heaney's poetry Joanne Piavanini argues that the shaping of collective memory is one of Heaney's major contributions as a poet Locating Heaney in a transnational literary sphere this book argues that his late work is defined by a type of cosmopolitanism openness the work moves beyond national identity to explore multiple allegiances and identifications Moreover Piavanini demonstrates that memory is a helpful lens to look at Heaney's late work in particular because of the interplay of past present and future in these works in the construction of a collective memory of the Troubles in the use of the elegy to commemorate the passing of important contemporary poets in his writing on events with transnational significance such as 9/11 in the slippages between past and present in poems about his family and through the literary afterlives of texts specifically his appropriation of canonical classical texts Drawing on approaches and concepts from memory studies Piavanini considers Heaney's late work to develop an analysis of poetry as a vehicle of memory

The Ulster Renaissance Heather Clark, 2006-04-06 Publisher description

The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish Poetry Fran Brearton, Alan Gillis, 2012-10-25 Forty chapters written by leading scholars across the world describe the latest thinking on modern Irish poetry The Handbook begins with a consideration of Yeats's early work and the legacy of the 19th century The broadly chronological areas which follow covering the period from the 1910s through to the 21st century allow scope for coverage of key poetic voices in Ireland in their historical and political context From the experimentalism of Beckett MacGreevy and others of the modernist generation to the refashioning of Yeats's Ireland on the part of poets such as MacNeice Kavanagh and Clarke mid century through to the controversially titled post 1969 Northern Renaissance of poetry this volume will provide extensive coverage of the key movements of the modern period The Handbook covers the work of among others Paul Durcan Thomas Kinsella Brendan

Kennelly Seamus Heaney Paul Muldoon Michael Longley Medbh McGuckian and Ciaran Carson The thematic sections interspersed throughout chapters on women s poetry religion translation painting music stylistics allow for comparative studies of poets north and south across the century Central to the guiding spirit of this project is the Handbook s consideration of poetic forms and a number of essays explore the generic diversity of poetry in Ireland its various manipulations reinventions and sometimes repudiations of traditional forms The last essays in the book examine the work of a new generation of poets from Ireland concentrating on work published in the last two decades by Justin Quinn Leontia Flynn Sinead Morrissey David Wheatley Vona Groarke and others Tongue of Water, Teeth of Stones Jonathan Hufstader,2021-12-14 In a 1984 lecture on poetry and political violence Seamus Heaney remarked that the idea of poetry was itself that higher ideal to which the poets had unconsciously turned in order to survive the demeaning conditions Jonathan Hufstader examines the work of Heaney and his contemporaries to discover how poems combining conscious technique with unconscious impulse work as aesthetic forms and as strategies for emotional survival In his powerful study Hufstader shows how a number of contemporary Northern Irish poets including Seamus Heaney Derek Mahon Michael Longley Paul Muldoon Tom Paulin Ciaran Carson and Medbh McGuckian explore the resources of language and poetic form in their various responses to cultural conflict and political violence Focusing on both style and social contexts Hufstader explores the tension between solidarity and art between the poet s need to belong and to rebel He believes that an understanding of the power of lyric points towards an understanding of the source of social violence and of its cessation

Bright Cages Christopher Morley,2015-09-30 Here brought together in one volume for the first time are the best poems of Christopher Morley Best known to the public as a novelist Morley considered himself first and last a poet and it is as a poet that he wished to be remembered From the span of Morley s work John Bracker has drawn 132 poems that may be said to represent the high points of the poet s art In addition the editor has included a number of the translations from the Chinese so much admired by Pearl Buck and Leonard Bacon Irish Poetry: Politics, History, Negotiation S. Matthews,1997-04-12 The award of the 1995 Nobel Prize for Literature to Seamus Heaney recognized not only the aesthetic achievement of his work but also its political urgency Here Steven Matthews presents a genealogy of Irish poetry which centres upon Heaney s recent preoccupation with the relations between poetry politics and history Writing from the perspective of Irish critical responses to the poetry he discusses a wide range of work from John Hewitt through Heaney himself to Paul Muldoon All of these poets have been inspired directly or indirectly by the situation in the North of Ireland Placing the poems in their historical context the author also analyses how these poets have reacted to the influence of W B Yeats This important book offers a new approach to Irish poetry linking it for the first time to the crucial political and historical events which lie at its centre Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1946 Elizabeth Bishop Lorrie Goldensohn,1992 Elizabeth Bishop A Biography of a Poetry is a fascinating account of one of the most influential and beloved poets of the past fifty years Writing a clean spare poetry of elegance lucidity and great charm Bishop appears to offer small insight into her private life wryly remarking that confessional poets overdo the morbidity The Literary Gazette and Journal of Belles Lettres, Arts, Sciences, &c ,1841 Reference Guide to American Literature Jim Kamp,1994 Now in its

3rd edition the Reference Guide to American Literature focuses on the rich diversity of individuals that comprise an important group of American novelists poets dramatists and essayists Entries include expanded multi ethnic representation and profile more African Americans and for the first time Asian Hispanic and Native American writers and works as well as writers who concentrate on women s and gay and lesbian issues The English Catalogue of Books Published from

Seamus Heaney author of nine collections of poetry and three volumes of influential essays is regarded by many as the greatest Irish poet since Yeats Passage to the Center is the most comprehensive critical treatment to date on Heaney s poetry and the first to study Heaney s body of work up to Seeing Things and The Spirit Level It is also the first to examine the poems from the perspective of religion one of Heaney s guiding preoccupations According to Tobin the growth of Heaney s poetry may be charted through the recurrent figure of the center a key image in the relationship that evolved over time between the poet and his inherited place an evolution that involved the continual re evaluation and re vision of imaginative boundaries In a way that previous studies have not Tobin s work examines Heaney s poetry in the context of modernist and postmodernist concerns about the desacralizing of civilization and provides a challenging engagement with the work of a living master
