Spirits Dance In Africa Evolution Transformation And Continuity:

The Spirit's Dance in Africa Esther A. Dagan, 1997 International Handbook of Research in Arts Education Liora Bresler, 2007-01-26 Providing a distillation of knowledge in the various disciplines of arts education dance drama music literature and poetry and visual arts this essential handbook synthesizes existing research literature reflects on the past and contributes to shaping the future of the respective and integrated disciplines of arts education While research can at times seem distant from practice the Handbook aims to maintain connection with the live practice of art and of education capturing the vibrancy and best thinking in the field of theory and practice The Handbook is organized into 13 sections each focusing on a major area or issue in arts education research Emerging Solutions for Musical Arts Education in Africa Pan African Society for Musical Arts Education, 2005 Emerging Solutions for Musical arts Education in South Africa offers peer reviewed articles prepared for the 2003 Conference of the Pan African Society for Musical Arts Education in Africa held in Kisumu Maseno Kenya Not only does this publication voice the solutions offered by 31 authors from the African continent and beyond but it presents in a unique and highly accessible fashion the collective voice of the conference participants True to the spirit of ubuntu an individual is only a person through other people their communities this publication is a reflection of the essence of an overarching sub Saharan philosophy the contents represents a conference where papers were not presented but where conference participants engaged to discuss solutions for the musical arts on the African continent While the individual voice has been given its rightful place the collective voice represents an emergent song composed by the scholarly community in oral fashion This publication provides insight into the problems of musical arts education in Africa and solutions for musical arts education History Dances Ofosuwa M. Abiola, 2018-11-16 The field of history is founded on the interrogation of written documents from the past However culture is the center of life in Africa As a result in the past and to a degree in the present the process for documenting events in Africa was not written it was performed History Dances Chronicling the History of Traditional Mandinka Dance argues that a wealth of information is housed within traditional Mandinka dance and consequently the dances can be used as an African derived primary source for writing African history Ofosuwa M Abiola highlights the overall value of studying Mandinka dance history specifically and African dance history generally as well as addressing the issue of scarcity with regard to primary sources for writing African history History Dances proves to be a vital read for both undergraduate students and scholars in the fields of dance history African history performance studies and cultural anthropology Choreographies of African Identities Francesca Castaldi, 2010-10-01 Choreographies of African Identities traces interconnected interpretative frameworks around and about the National Ballet of Senegal Using the metaphor of a dancing circle Castaldi s arguments cover the full spectrum of performance from production to circulation and reception Castaldi first situates the reader in a North American theater focusing on the relationship between dancers and audiences as that between black performers and white spectators She then examines the work of the National Ballet in relation to Leopold Sedar Senghor's Négritude ideology and cultural politics Finally the author addresses the circulation of dances in the streets discotheques and courtyards of Dakar drawing attention to women dancers occupation of the urban landscape

Hellenizing Art in Ancient Nubia 300 B.C. - AD 250 and Its Egyptian Models

László Török, Laszlo Torok, 2011-07-12 Presenting a large body of evidence for the first time this book offers a comprehensive treatment of Nubian architecture sculpture and minor arts in the period between 300 BC AD 250 It focuses primarily on the Nubian response to the traditional pharaonic Hellenistic Roman Hellenizing and hybrid elements of Ptolemaic and Roman Egyptian culture The author begins with a history of Nubian art and a critical survey of the literature on Ptolemaic and Roman Egyptian art Special chapters are then devoted to the discussion of the Egyptian Greek interaction in the arts of Ptolemaic Egypt the place of Egyptian Hellenistic and Hellenizing art within the oikumene the pluralistic visual world of Ptolemaic and Roman Egypt as well as on the specific genre of terracotta sculpture Utilizing examples from Meroe City and Musawwarat es Sufra the author argues that cultural transfer from Ptolemaic and Roman Egypt to Nubia resulted in an inward focused adaptation Therefore the resulting Nubian art from this period expresses only those aspects of Egyptian and Greek art that are compatible with indigenous Nubian goals

Black Performance Theory

Thomas F. DeFrantz, Anita Gonzalez, 2014-04-14 Black performance theory is a rich interdisciplinary area of study and critical method This collection of new essays by some of its pioneering thinkers many of whom are performers demonstrates the breadth depth innovation and critical value of black performance theory Considering how blackness is imagined in and through performance the contributors address topics including flight as a persistent theme in African American aesthetics the circulation of minstrel tropes in Liverpool and in Afro Mexican settlements in Oaxaca and the reach of hip hop politics as people around the world embrace the music and dance They examine the work of contemporary choreographers Ronald K Brown and Reggie Wilson the ways that African American playwrights translated the theatricality of lynching to the stage the ecstatic music of Little Richard and Michael Jackson's performance in the documentary This Is It The collection includes several essays that exemplify the performative capacity of writing as well as discussion of a project that re creates seminal hip hop album covers through tableaux vivants Whether deliberating on the tragic mulatta the trickster figure Anansi or the sonic futurism of Nina Simone and Adrienne Kennedy the essays in this collection signal the vast untapped critical and creative resources of black performance theory Contributors Melissa Blanco Borelli Daphne A Brooks Soyica Diggs Colbert provides a thorough examination of the global and local forces that shaped the changes that the continent underwent. Combining essential factual description with evaluation and analysis, the entries tease out patterns from across the continent as a whole as well as within particular regions and countries. It is the first work of its kind to present such a comprehensive overview of twentieth century African history. With full indexes and a thematic entry list together with ample cross referencing and suggestions for further reading, the Encyclopedia will be welcomed as an essential work of reference by both scholar and student of twentieth century African history. Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2004 Attitudes & Arabesques, 1997 Afrikinesis Ofosuwa Abiola, 2023-09-18. This book provides scholars and non specialists alike with a roadmap for effectively conducting culturally aware, historically relevant research on African dance and on any dance style that contains African elements. This book explains why Western research paradigms are inadequate for research on African dance. It exposes the value of utilizing an appropriate research paradigm that offers researchers a broader perspective and a transparent, unfettered process for analysis in under researched topics such as African and African diaspora dance styles. Researchers are introduced to the African dance aesthetic, characteristically African body movements, definitions of steps, understandings within African culture, and a host of other jewels that facilitate a deeper grasp on the subject and refine the quality of the scholar's research, its findings, and its proficiency. This book will be of great interest to scholars of African dance studies.
