Spiritual Dimensions Of Pastoral Care Practical Theology In A Multidisciplinary Context:

Spiritual Dimensions of Pastoral Care John Swinton, David Willows, 2001-10-01 Written by significant researchers and practitioners within the field this unique collection of key texts introduces the reader to practical theology It critically explores the way in which the spiritual dimension of pastoral care has entered into constructive dialogue with other disciplines and ways of thinking      Practical Theology and Qualitative Research - second edition John Swinton, 2016-11-03 Practical Theology and Qualitative Research examines methodologies of the social sciences and questions how they can enable the task of theological reflection The authors offer the latest thinking on how to use theological learning in practical situations      Practical Theology Mark J. Cartledge, 2012-04-04 Mark Cartledge's book is unique in integrating charismatic and empirical perspectives in practical theology It exemplifies both qualitative and quantitative methods of research and suggests a way forward for the emerging field of charismatic theology In part one Cartledge offers a proposal for the development of a charismatic practical theology He surveys the different models of the interaction of practical theology and social sciences and defends one that is consistent with charismatic spirituality The section also explores how charismatic spirituality affects theories of truth and knowledge by making testimony an integrating center before concluding with a clear explanation of the methods of research employed Part two progresses into six empirical studies on charismatic worship glossolalia and postmodernity women and prophetic activity the Toronto Blessing healing and socialization Each chapter of this important book ends with a methodological reflection and suggestions from renewed theological praxis enforcing the values of such methods of study for a clearer understanding of charismatic Christianity      Shalom, the Spirit and Pentecostal Conversion Grace Milton, 2015-08-17 In Shalom the Spirit and Pentecostal Conversion Grace Milton presents a uniquely practical theological model of Pentecostal conversion centered on empirical data from a congregational case study Pentecostal Charismatic conversion is commonly equated with a dramatic Damascus road type event which directly opposes prevailing theories within the social sciences that conversion is a more gradual process over time This raises the question how far do these Pentecostal stereotypes reflect lived experience In this book for the first time the experiences and beliefs of ordinary Pentecostal believers are drawn into conversation with conversion theories from the human sciences sociology psychology and anthropology and theology The result is a distinctly Pentecostal model of conversion which interprets religious transformation through the theological lens of Shalom      Postfoundationalist Reflections in Practical Theology Brian C. Macallan, 2014-06-09 Postfoundationalist Reflections in Practical Theology seeks to explore the implications of a Postfoundationalist theology for the discipline of Practical Theology While moving beyond the modernist and postmodernist debates it charts a way forward for a theology that is bound by neither relativism nor certainty It believes that Practical Theology is well suited to this task by its very nature and methodology      Spirituality and Social Care Mary Nash, Bruce Stewart, 2002-07-02 This comprehensive and much needed resource is for professionals and students in social care who are required to engage with the spiritual dimension of their therapeutic work with clients The authors show how they have developed ways of applying their own and their clients spirituality in their practice      Chikamoneka!: Gender and Empire in Religion and Public Life Cheelo Siwila,Sylvia Mukuka,2022-03-21 This is a pioneering volume that emerges from the voices of women scholars who belong to the Circle of Concerned African Women Theologians in their response to the subjection of women and children in religion and public life The book uses the metaphor Chikamoneka literally meaning it shall be seen to demonstrate resistance to all forms of oppression by empire to humanity especially those inflicted on women and children Some of the themes that addressed in this book are drawn from women s lived experiences This demonstrates the power of narrative theory as a tool for academic discourse The book makes a vital contribution to academic religious and secular society in the field of Gender Religion Development and Sociology It is also the first publication by the Zambian Women of Circle      Spirituality and Mental Health Care John Swinton,2001-01-01 In this thoughtful book Swinton explores the connections between mental health or illness and spirituality and draws on these to provide practical guidance for people working in mental health He analyses a range of models of care provision that will enable carers to increase their awareness of aspects of spirituality in their caring strategies      Pastoral Supervision: A Handbook Jane Leach,Michael Paterson,2015-07-31 Pastoral Supervision is increasingly sought out by people working in ministry It offers a safe space to reflect theologically and constructively on pastoral experience Pastoral Supervision A Handbook is the standard text for what is a growing discipline and endorsed by APSE the Association of Pastoral Supervisors and Educators which is now established as an accrediting professional body for all involved in supervision in a Christian context Much has happened in the discipline since the first edition was published The second edition contains a new foreword a new introduction written by the authors a new chapter on the nuts and bolts of structuring a supervision session a new chapter on embodied active supervision literature updates and textual improvements to the extant chapters      Practical Theology and Qualitative Research John Swinton,Harriett Mowat,2013-01-03 Practical Theology used to be a subject where students were left to fend for themselves using what they had learnt from their scholarly studies in history biblical and systematic theology and applying it where they could Things have moved on however and practical theology is a growing discipline in its own right and the latest thinking in practical theology of how to use theological learning in practical situations is fully explored in this textbook This text examines methodologies of the social sciences and questions how they can enable the task of theological reflection They begin by tracing the development of practical theology as a discipline and comment on current methodological practices and trace the movement from practical theology as applied theology ie a discipline which simply takes data from the other theological disciplines historical systematic and biblical theology towards a model which understands the practical theological task in terms of the theology of practice The authors examine the relationship between qualitative and quantitative methods and highlight the significance of both for the task of practical theology They also take the reader through the actual process of developing and carrying out a research project using the author's own research as case study examples. Case studies include the rise in spirituality, the decline in church attendance, evidence-based medicine compared to needs-led assessments, the growth in chaplaincy and how it is understood as separate from parish ministry.

Spiritual Caregiving as Secular Sacrament Ray Anderson, 2003-01-31 The author explores spirituality in the context of the individual and of society and discusses how those practicing pastoral or health care can deal with the issues raised outside of any religious ideas or practice. Anderson shows how professionals can help people move towards a more positive state in the face of pain, distress and illness.

Hearing God's Voice: Towards a Theology of Contemporary Pentecostal Revelatory Experience Tania M. Harris, 2023-09-25 The revelatory experience or in common parlance hearing God's voice is prized by Pentecostal Charismatic Christians for its contribution to spirituality yet remains one of the most problematic areas of church life. Theological tensions and pastoral fallout have plagued the experience since the time of the New Testament. Drawing on the tools of practical theology, this book presents the findings of a unique and ground-breaking study among Australian Pentecostals. With a theological framework modelled on New Testament practice and undergirded by the accountability of the local church, many of the problems associated with revelatory experience can be addressed and the experience fully harnessed for kingdom purpose.

Words Made Flesh Elaine Graham, 2013-01-25 Words Made Flesh draws together a number of Elaine Graham's shorter writings and essays and thereby maps out the work of a pioneer theological thinker and the development of pastoral and practical theology in the last twenty years. Elaine Graham considers the theological significance of topics as diverse as nativity plays, science fiction, gender, consumerism, cyberspace and urban regeneration. They all share a concern with the way the sources and norms of the Christian tradition can enter into a creative and critical conversation with contemporary experience in order to generate the practical wisdom by which the life of the Church can be directed. They reflect Elaine Graham's fundamental conviction that theology as talk about God in the world is always practical and public and that it begins and ends in the complexities of the human condition where words become flesh.

Ageing, Spirituality, and Well-being Albert Jewell, 2004 Using selected conference material, this text explores how well-being among the elderly does not depend solely on physical health but also on having purpose in life and ongoing spiritual growth and offers guidance on meeting the spiritual needs of this age group and providing meaningful care and support.

Speaking in Tongues Mark J. Cartledge, 2012-04-04 Speaking in tongues (glossolalia) is a common spiritual phenomenon in the Pentecostal and Charismatic streams of the Christian church. Such Christians believe that when they speak in tongues they are communicating with God in a language that they have never learned: spiritual prayer language given to them by the Holy Spirit. This innovative volume seeks to enhance our understanding and appreciation of glossolalia by examining it from a range of different angles. Christian scholars from diverse academic disciplines bring to bear the insights of their own specialist areas to shed new light on the practice of speaking in tongues. The disciplines include New Testament Studies, Max

Turner Theology Frank D Macchia History Neil Hudson Philosophy James K A Smith Linguistics David Hilborn Sociology Margaret M Poloma Psychology William K Kay A final chapter by Mark J Cartledge seeks to show how all of these perspectives can work together and enrich a Christian appreciation of the gift of tongues     Sustaining Persons, Grieving Losses Dianne Crowther,2017-01-19 Dementia presents a significant social issue in a hyper cognitive culture where stigma relational neglect and isolation still accompany forgetfulness This raises serious theological ecclesiological and pastoral questions calling for a Christian response To fight against a malignant social positioning of anyone as an an empty shell is crucial nonetheless there is another pressing reality the reality of ongoing loss Often the focus is on one or the other side affirming personhood or acknowledging loss and grief Spiritual caregiving and Christian pastoral caregiving are uniquely placed to offer both sustaining relationship and grief support to both caregivers and persons with dementia This pastoral approach emerges from cultural scholarship rigorous on the ground research and theological reflection on God s purposes in responding to persons in and beyond the Christian community Christian communities are called to be places of agape love compassion and hospitality We individually and corporately are called to care to love honor value comfort and sustain one another and one another includes those who travel the road of forgetting and those who travel with them This fresh pastoral approach offers theologically and culturally informed practical ways of sustaining persons in the midst of their losses throughout the dementia journey     Theologians on Scripture Angus Paddison,2016-11-03 The movement that is known as theological interpretation of Scripture reminds us that the reading and exegesis of Scripture is an indispensable part of the theologian s work not to be reserved to biblical scholars alone This insight that the reading of Scripture is a theological responsibility is always at risk of being eclipsed by the modern disciplinary divisions between biblical studies historical theology and systematic theology Intended as a contribution to the theological re engagement with Scripture this book invites a range of high profile systematic and constructive theologians to reflect on the role that the reading and interpretation of Scripture plays in their theological work both professionally and more personally Spanning a cross section of theological perspectives contributors reflect on the role of tradition in their reading of Scripture the company they view as indispensable in their engagement with the text the place of historical critical study and biblical studies and the significance of their context The book will be valued by all those who care for the place of Scripture in theology and the life of the church as well as those who want an insight into the state of contemporary theology     Spirituality, Values and Mental Health Mary Ellen Coyte,Peter Gilbert,Vicky Nicholls,2007 This edited work addresses policy and practice for professional working in the mental health field and for carers and people with mental health problems themselves enabling them to overcome the stigma often associated with mental health problems and the subject of spirituality     Working Relationships Neil Pembroke,2004-04-15 In this illuminating and thoughtful text Neil Pembroke shows how relationships form the heart of chaplaincy nursing and social care practice Developing ideas from Martin Buber and virtue theory he shows how authentic compassionate self communication forms the basis of relatedness in human services work Drawing on examples from everyday life and human services work settings Pembroke demonstrates the importance of trust and feelings of belonging in the working environment He considers in particular the connection between spirituality and the idea of personal charm showing how charm can be seen as a vital component in the communication of self which enables us to nurture the physical and spiritual well being of those we care for      Pastoral Counseling in Africa and the West Ibidun B.

Daramola,2018-07-14 This is the first time an author has listened to pastors in Africa and compared her findings with pastoral counseling from a Western perspective Pastoral Counseling in Africa and the West presents a practical record of pastoral counseling in Africa It accounts for the wide difference between pastoral counseling in Africa and the West considering that pastoral counselors in Africa received Western theological training It presents a theological perspective of the pastoral counseling ministry in Africa and the West It also presents both perspectives as professional partners in conversation with each other Thank God for providing trained experts like Dr Daramola to enlighten His people I have every confidence this publication is only the first installment More GRACE to her elbows Emmanuel Oladipo Former International Secretary Scripture Union
