Holy Listening Margaret Guenther, 1992-01-25 Guenther uses the images of the spiritual director as host teacher and midwife to describe the ministry of spiritual direction today She pays particular attention to spiritual direction for women and addresses such down to earth questions as setting time and privacy The stories of real people bring the practice of spiritual direction alive In the pages that follow I will attempt to describe the shape that spiritual direction might take for people of our time aware that the subject is an elusive one I am speaking to the beginner those persons lay or ordained with or without formal theological training who find themselves drawn to this ministry Perhaps they feel the stirring of their own unacknowledged gifts Or perhaps they wonder about receiving direction whether it is a ministry available to ordinary people or reserved for the especially holy I hope some dark corners will be illuminated and some questions answered An
