Tinsley,2013-08-20 Written from an African American perspective this work depicts the presentation of the gospel message to the first century community of Colossae their reception of it comparative to the presentation and reception of the same to the enslaved Africans of North America particularly in the eighteenth and the nineteenth centuries

Theologizing in Black Celucien L. Joseph,2020-04-15 Theologizing in Black is a creative and rigorous comparative study on black theological musings and liberative intellectual contemplations engaging the theological ethics and anthropology of both continental African theologians Tanzania Kenya Democratic Republic of the Congo and black theologians in the African Diaspora Haiti Trinidad Jamaica Antigua and Barbuda United States Using the pluralist approach to religion promoted by the philosopher of religion and theologian John Hick the book is also an attempt to bridge an important gap in the comparative study of religion Africana Studies and Liberation theology both in Africa and its diaspora The book provides an analytical framework and intellectual critique of white Christian theologians who deliberately disengage with and exclude black and Africana theologians in their theological writings and conversations From this vantage point Africana critical theology is said to be a theology of contestation as it seeks to deconstruct white supremacy in the theological enterprise This book not only articulates a rhetoric of protest about the misrepresentation and underrepresentation of the humanity of African and black people in white theological imagination it also enunciates a positive image of black humanity and congruently promulgates a constructive representation of blackness The paramount goal of Africana theological anthropology and ethics is the preservation of life and promotion of human dignity and the sheer acknowledgement that the African people and people of African descent are bearers of the image of God

Morality Truly Christian, Truly African Paulinus Ikechukwu Odozor C.S.Sp.,2014-11-15 Given the largely Eurocentric nature of moral theology in the history of the Roman Catholic Church what will it take to invest the theological community in the history and moral challenges of the Church in other parts of the world especially Africa What is to be gained for the whole Church when this happens in a deep and lasting way In this timely and important study Paulinus Ikechukwu Odozor brings greater theological clarity to the issue of the relationship between Christianity and African tradition in the area of ethical foundations He also provides a constructive example of what fundamental moral theology done from an African and Christian especially Catholic moral theological point of view could look like Following a brief history of the development of African Christian theology Odozor examines responses of African theologians to African tradition and Christian responses to the reality of non Christian religions In a context where the African religious experience and heritage are powerful sources of meaning and identity Christian evangelization raises questions both about the African primal religions and about Christianity itself and its claims Odozor takes up the subject of moral reasoning in an African Christian theological ethics and concludes with case studies that show how the African Church has tried to inculturate moral discourse on a religiously pluralistic continent and relate the healing gospel message to African situations Students and scholars of moral theology and ethics and church leaders will profit from the issues raised in Morality Truly Christian Truly African Ancestor Christology Cletus Chukwuemeka Nwaogwugwu, 2011-01-07 The study of the application of the title ancestor to Christ permits the author to delve into the Christological reflection in Africa today through one of the principal ways At play here is the inculturation of the faith which cannot be fully achieved without a process of theological assimilation of the fundamental parameters in the African life The thesis therefore is not only limited to a mere description of the contemporary panorama in that respect but attempts to offer a theological evaluation of the real expressive capacity of the title as it has been proposed The criterion used is therefore double In the first place the thesis tried to show that the human and the divine natures of Jesus Christ can be maintained in such a way that there is no rupture with the great tradition of the Christological councils In the second place if it is capable of responding to demands of Christology from above and from below In all this however the horizon of the debate is not occidental exegetical investigation well known by the author but from the theological ambient of sub Saharan world The conclusion is positive pondering the terms involved The work can be of great use in the christoogical endeavors of contemporary Africa as well for those who desire to delve into it Don Alfonso Carrasco Rouco director of the thesis and now Bishop of the Diocese of Lugo Spain The work of Don Cletus Chukwuemeka contains a clear description of what we may call African traditional religiosity as well as the theological efforts to inject Christianity into this cultural and religious tradition The central point of these efforts revolves around the understanding of Christ The most original aspect of this work is in the critical recourse to the figure of the ancestor or proto ancestor to present the identity of Christ in a way that is faithful to the Church tradition and at the same time significant for the religious and cultural tradition of Africa Dr Don Gerardo del Pozo Abejn Censor of the thesis No Longer Slaves Brad Ronnell Braxton, 2015-03-15 No Longer Slaves brings the ancient New Testament message into conversation with African American culture Twenty centuries after Paul penned Galatians American culture in general and American Christianity in particular continue to struggle with the problem of race relations Our challenges are not identical to those faced by Paul and the Galatians Yet when one reads Galatians through the lens of African American experience striking similarities emerge In No Longer Slaves Brad Braxton helps us see that race relations is a central issue in Galatians Paul believes that Christ came in order to unite Jews and Gentiles The church was intended to be a multi ethnic community in which persons of different backgrounds co existed harmoniously Any effort to compel Gentiles to live as Jews is an invalidation of the freedom of the Gospel Galatians offers us a portrait of an early Christian leader and community sorting out complex social issues No Longer Slaves explores the concept of liberation in African American experience It entails a discussion of American slavery Rather than depicting African Americans simply as victims of the crimes of slavery and segregation Braxton describes the creative cultural and religious responses of African Americans to their oppression He employs a type of reader response theory that considers the experiences of the reading community as a lens through which texts are read His discussion of methodology exposes the reader to some of the issues in the current debate without becoming burdensome to the non specialist The remainder of the book is an interpretation of Paul's letter to the Galatians Although Braxton takes seriously the original context of Galatians and his exegesis engages the Greek text he offers a contemporary theological reading that privileges the history experiences and concerns of African Americans Those who are concerned about the connection between Christianity and ethnicity will find this interpretation intriguing and challenging Chapters in Liberation and African American Experience are Introduction Liberation Rationales and Definitions Blackness Biology and Ideology and African American Biblical Interpretation Chapters in A Reading Strategy for Liberation are Reader Response Criticism and Black and Womanist Theologies The Bible and Authority in Reader Response Criticism and The African American Christian Interpretive Community Chapters in Galatians and African American Experience are Introduction Historical Overview Interpretations and Conclusion Includes a bibliography Brad Ronnell Braxton PhD is the Jessie Ball DuPont Assistant Professor of Homiletics and Biblical Studies at Wake Forest University Divinity School in Winston Salem North Carolina He is an ordained Baptist minister and for five years served as Senior Pastor of Douglas Memorial Community Church in Baltimore Maryland

Embracing the Spirit Emilie Townes, 2015-03-31 This book continues the conversations begun in Emilie Townes's path breaking A Troubling in My Soul Womanist Perspectives on Evil and Suffering Once again Townes brings together essays by leading womanist theologians interweaving a concern for matters of race gender and class as these bear on the survival and well being of the African American community In Embracing the Spirit the emphasis is not on evil and suffering but on hope salvation and transformation for individuals and their communities Jacket

Over My Head Lisa M. Allen, 2025-06-25 Over My Head The Power of Ancestral Music to Future the Black Church explores how sacred music genres of the Black church Spirituals hymns and gospel music have functioned historically as spiritual technologies empowering African descended peoples to navigate their lives through and beyond perilous circumstances while helping maintain connections however tenuous to ancestral spirituality Employing an Afrofuturist lens the author examines the origin and evolution of these genres and posits how their creation and performance employ core elements of imagination improvisation and adaptability ancestral spiritual technologies that can help African and African descended Christian communities vision themselves into generative hope filled futures

Religion, Gender, and Wellbeing in Africa Chammah J.

Kaunda,2021-05-11 Religion Gender and Wellbeing in Africa argues that in many African societies ideas and practices of wellbeing and gender relations continue to be informed and shaped by religious epistemologies The contributors affirm that for many Africans it is through religio spiritual frameworks that daily experiences interactions and gender relations are understood and interpreted However for many African women religions have functioned as a double edged sword Although they have contributed to the struggle against issues such as colonialism gender justice climate justice and human rights they have also endorsed and perpetuated sexism heterosexism homophobia and the denial of human rights for a wide variety of people on the margins The chapters within this collection demonstrate that most religions and religious formations in Africa have not yet positioned themselves as forces for wellbeing gender justice and security for African women and children The contributors challenge simplistic and superficial readings and interpretations of religio spirituality in Africa and call for deeper engagements of the interplay between Africa s religio spiritual realities and the wellbeing of women particularly around issues of gender justice reproductive health and human rights

African Communitarianism and the Misanthropic Argument for Anti-Natalism Kirk Lougheed, 2022-08-08 Anti natalism is the provocative view that it is either always or almost always all things considered wrong to procreate Philanthropic anti natalist arguments say that procreation is always impermissible because of the harm done to individuals who are brought into existence Misanthropic arguments on the other hand hold that procreation is usually impermissible given the harm that individuals will do once brought into existence The main purpose of this short monograph is to demonstrate that David Benatar's misanthropic argument for anti natalism ought to be endorsed by any version of African Communitarianism Not only that but there are also resources in the African philosophical tradition that offer unique support for the argument Given the emphasis that indigenous African worldviews place on the importance of procreation and the immediate family unit this result is highly surprising This book marks the first attempt to bring anti natalism into conversation with contemporary African ethics Vodou in Haitian Life and Culture C. Michel, P. Bellegarde-Smith, 2006-11-27 This collection introduces readers to the history and practice of the Vodou religion and corrects many misconceptions The book focuses specifically on the role Vodou plays in Haiti where it has its strongest following examining its influence on spiritual beliefs cultural practices national identity popular culture writing and art The Oxford Handbook of African American Theology Katie G. Cannon, Anthony B. Pinn, 2014 The Oxford Handbook of African American Theology brings together leading scholars in the field to present a critical and comprehensive analysis of African American Theology in its many forms and contexts providing an interdisciplinary examination of the nature content and meaning of this form of theology Ubuntu and Western Monotheism Kirk Lougheed, 2021-09-05 This book offers a unique comparative study of ubuntu a dominant ethical theory in African philosophy and western monotheism It is the first book to bring ubuntu to bear on the axiology of theism debate in contemporary analytic philosophy of religion A large motivating force behind this book is to explore the extent to which there is intersubjective ethical agreement and disagreement between ubuntu and Western worldviews like monotheism and naturalism First the author assesses the various arguments for anti theism and pro theism on the assumption that ubuntu is true Ubuntu's communitarian focus might be so different from the Western tradition that it completely changes how we evaluate theism and atheism Second the author assesses the advantages and disadvantages of the truth of ubuntu for the world Third and finally he assesses the axiological status of faith for both monotheism and ubuntu Ubuntu and Western Monotheism will be of interest to scholars and advanced students specializing in philosophy of religion African religion and philosophy and religious ethics Gender, Ethnicity, and Religion Rosemary Radford Ruether, New methodologies from social theory cultural anthropology and gender studies have emerged which take religion and cultural values into perspective Particular light shed on social transformations religious practices and theological perspectives Routledge Handbook of Religion and Ecology Willis J. Jenkins, Mary Evelyn Tucker, John Grim, 2016-07-22 The moral values and interpretive systems of religions are crucially involved in how people imagine the challenges of sustainability and how societies mobilize to enhance ecosystem resilience and human well being The Routledge

Handbook of Religion and Ecology provides the most comprehensive and authoritative overview of the field. It encourages both appreciative and critical angles regarding religious traditions, communities, attitudes, and practices. It presents contrasting ways of thinking about religion and about ecology and about ways of connecting the two terms. Written by a team of leading international experts, the Handbook discusses dynamics of change within religious traditions as well as their roles in responding to global challenges such as climate change, water conservation, food, and population. It explores the interpretations of indigenous traditions regarding modern environmental problems, drawing on such concepts as lifeway and indigenous knowledge. This volume uniquely intersects the field of religion and ecology with new directions within the humanities and the sciences. This interdisciplinary volume is an essential reference for scholars and students across the social sciences and humanities and for all those looking to understand the significance of religion in environmental studies and policy.
