Split Level Christians:

Split Level Christians Virgie M. McIntyre, 1993      Split-level Christianity Jaime C. Bulatao, 1966      Understanding Folk Religion: 25th Anniversary Edition Paul G. Hiebert, R. Daniel Shaw, Tite Tienou, 2024-04-24 This book has served the missiological community for twenty five years as a resource for understanding human spirituality in any context. Thousands of students have incorporated the principles of this book into ministry around the globe. This twenty fifth anniversary edition seeks to enable those who now bring their passion for mission to contemporary contexts affected by globalization, climate change and political perspectives unimaginable when this book originally appeared. Every community wherever it is on earth has its share of beliefs and values that manifest themselves in practices that reflect spiritual engagement. Those engaged in mission need to appreciate how underlying beliefs and values are reflected in handling spiritual power, worship and blessing and interaction with others. Gospel communicators must account for these elements as they seek to make God's intentions known to people who are searching for God. The models presented early in the book are essential for establishing what people consider spiritually critical. Applying these models in any religious environment will enable message bearers to engage with beliefs and practices that promote a gospel presentation that makes sense. To that end we commend this book for effective missional engagement.

Comparing Christianities April D. DeConick, 2023-10-09 A ground breaking introductory textbook for the study of the New Testament and the first Christians written for the next generation of students. Comparing Christianities: An Introduction to the New Testament and the First Christians maps the historical rise of Christianity out of a network of early Christian movements. This major new textbook systematically explores the struggles to define the faith by presenting Christianity as the result of a lengthy process of religious consolidation which emerged from a landscape of persistent Christian diversity. The book delves into the history of the first five generations of Christians from Paul to Origen. The first chapter considers the challenges of constructing Christian histories and offers a new model of Christian families to organize and explain the emergence and competition of different varieties of Christianity. Each successive chapter focuses on key issues that Christian leaders engaged over the centuries demonstrating how the questions they posed and the answers they provided gave Christianity its distinct shape. As the movements competed for social advantage, Christians began identifying certain Christian movements as enemies and consolidated against them. The final chapter schematizes the Christians studied in the book into three families of Christian movements based on the particular God they worshipped and other shared patterns of thought and practice. This chapter also explains where the varieties of Christianities came from and how the process of consolidation undertaken by some churches shaped Christian identity within a forge of intolerance that still affects us today. Comparing Christianities explores the answers to questions: Who were the early Christians and what did they write? What did Christians think about sex, women, immortality, Judaism, suffering and death? What rituals did the first Christians practice and what did their religious experiences mean to them? How did Christians live in a Roman dominated world How did the first Christians explain the origins of their movement Comparing Christianities An Introduction to the New Testament and the First Christians serves as an excellent primary textbook in undergraduate classrooms for Introduction to Christianity Introduction to Religion New Testament Studies Christian Origins World Religions and Western World Religions and a thought provoking resource for anyone wishing to know more about Christianity Phenomena and Their Interpretation Jaime C. Bulatao,1992 Intercultural Discipleship (Encountering Mission) W. Jay Moon,2017-12-05 This addition to an acclaimed series brings cutting edge research to bear on a topic of perennial interest making disciples The book looks at disciple making from multiple cultures to help readers discover contextual approaches that are culturally relevant and biblically faithful It emphasizes methods that are especially effective with contemporary converts and includes practical examples from around the world Each chapter includes sidebars discussion questions an activity for discipling and a case study An appendix contains further suggestions and exercises for instructors Crossing Cultures with the Gospel Darrell L. Whiteman,2024-02-27 Christianity Today 2025 Book Award Finalist Missions Global Church Outreach 2025 Resource of the Year Missions and Cross Cultural Southwestern Journal of Theology 2023 Book Award Honorable Mention Evangelism Missions Global Church Drawing on forty years of teaching and mission experience leading missiological anthropologist Darrell Whiteman brings a wealth of insight to bear on cross cultural ministry After explaining the nature and function of culture and the importance of understanding culture for ministry Whiteman addresses the most common challenges of ministering across cultures He then provides practical solutions based on lived experience helping readers develop healthy patterns so they can communicate the gospel effectively Issues addressed include negotiating differences in worldview the problem of nonverbal communication understanding cultural forms and their meanings and the challenge of overcoming culture shock Professors students and anyone ministering cross culturally will benefit from this informed yet accessible guide Foreword by Miriam Adeney The Asianization of Christianity Jonathan D. James,2024 The Asianization of Christianity is a catalyst to change the mission landscape of Asia by making the Gospel more accessible to Hindus Buddhists Muslims Animists and others It is hoped that a new generation of mission leaders will use these culturally specific principles to build bridges from the heart of God to the heart of Asian cultures Worldviews and Christian Education W. Shipton, E. Coetzee & R. Takeuchi,2014-04 In Worldviews and Christian Education editors W A Shipton E Coetzee and R Takeuchi have brought together works by experts in cross cultural religious education The authors and editors have a wealth of personal experience in presenting the gospel to individuals with various worldviews that differ greatly from those held by Christians who take the Bible as authoritative They focus on the beliefs and issues associated with witnessing to seekers for truth coming from backgrounds as diverse and animism Buddhism Confucianism Hinduism Islam Marxism Taoism and postmodernism Back Cover The Great CoMission Brooks St. Clair Morton,2012-11-02 This book presupposes that pastors and seminarians deeply desire to answer the question of all questions how do I make disciples of Jesus Christ The Great CoMission Making Sense of Making Disciples is a helpful guide for pastors in the field yet meaty enough for seminarians in the classroom In The Great CoMission readers will encounter useful principles for discipleship and solid biblical theology for ministry This unique book approaches the Great Commission from a rite of passage framework therefore allowing for serious consideration of the internal mechanisms of Matthew 28 16 20 by focusing on the relationship between initiation instruction and Jesus promise to be with the church to the end of the age Morton writes from a Wesleyan cross cultural and missiological perspective avoiding the popular method of using the Great Commission merely as a holy launching pad for retelling the story of a mega church      Asian Christian Theology Timoteo D. Gener, Stephen T. Pardue, 2019-07-31 Asian Christian Theology provides a survey of contextually reflective robustly evangelical theology for students to engage with the core doctrines of Christianity and their outworking in different cultures across Asia The contributors of the chapters come from all corners of Asia to systematically examine traditional doctrinal themes and contemporary concerns for the Asian church Ideal for use as a companion textbook in Asian seminaries and institutions this book will also provide excellent further reading for those outside of Asia seeking global theological perspectives and for those in contexts of significant Asian diaspora Many excellent books surveying theology exist but this book is a major step forward for students and scholars seeking to understand the dynamic environment of evangelical theology in Asia      Who Are You, and Who Am I? Hannes Wiher, 2024-12-20 In a globalized world with increasing migration and diaspora we live alongside a growing number of people from different backgrounds and cultures With these multicultural communities how do we live as good neighbours as well as share the love of God with cultural awareness and sensitivity Who Are You and Who Am I provides an in depth approach that makes accessible the knowledge needed for harmonious intercultural relationships evangelism and discipleship Hannes Wiher a renowned missiologist explores the concepts of worldview and identity drawing on communication theory philosophy anthropology theology and missiology to bring the practicalities of both to life and fruitfully apply these to Scripture theology and the church Missiologists missionaries and Christians in multicultural societies alike will find in this work a rich practical and accessible resource      Urban Ecclesiology Pascal D. Bazzell, 2015-05-21 Pascal D Bazzell brings the marginal ecclesiology of a Filipino ecclesial community facing homelessness FECH into contemporary ecclesiological conversation in order to deepen the ecumenical understanding of today s ecclesial reality He contributes relevant data to support a theory of an ecclesial oriented paradigm that fosters ecclesial communities within homeless populations There is an extensive dialogue occurring between ecclesiologies church planting theories or urban missions and the urban poor Yet the situation with the homeless population is almost entirely overlooked The majority of urban mission textbooks do not acknowledge an ecclesial oriented state of being and suggest that the street level environment is a place where no discipleship can occur and no church should exist By presenting the FECH s case study Bazzell emphasizes that it is possible to live on the streets and to grow in the faith of God as an ecclesial community To be able to describe the FECH's ecclesial narrative Bazzell develops a local ecclesiological methodology that aims to bridge the gap between more traditional systematic and theoretical ideal ecclesiology and practical oriented ecclesiology e.g. congregational studies in order to hold together theological and social understandings of the church in its local reality He articulates a theological framework for the FECH to reflect on who they are the essence of identity studies who they are in relationship to God the essence of theological studies and what that means for believers in that community as they relate to God and to each other in ways that are true to who they are and to who God intends them to be the essence of ecclesial studies The research provides a seldom heard empirical tour into the FECH's social world and communal identity The theological findings from the FECH's hermeneutical work on the Gospel of Mark reveal an understanding of church being developed as gathering around Jesus that creates a space for God's presence to be embodied in their ordinary relationships and activities and to invite others to participate in that gathering Moreover it addresses ecclesial issues of the supernatural world honor shame values and further develop the neglected image of the familia Dei in classical ecclesiology that encapsulates well the FECH's nature mission and place The Christian Theology Reader Alister E. McGrath, 2016-08-04

Regarded as the leading text in Christian theology for the last 25 years Alister E McGrath's The Christian Theology Reader is now available in a new 5th edition featuring completely revised and updated content Brings together more than 350 readings from over 200 sources that chart 2 000 years of Christian history Situates each reading within the appropriate historical and theological context with its own introduction commentary and study questions Includes new readings on world Christianity and feminist liberation and postcolonial theologies as well as more selections by female theologians and theologians from the developing world Contains additional pedagogical features such as new discussion questions and case studies and a robust website with new videos by the author to aid student learning Designed to function as a stand alone volume or as a companion to Christian Theology An Introduction 6th edition for a complete overview of the subject Sharing Jesus in the Buddhist World David Lim, Steve Spaulding, Paul H. de Neui, 2003-06-01 This book on Christian missions to the Buddhist world not only provides understanding of many Buddhist cultures but provides culturally relevant ideas on sharing Jesus with Buddhists around the world It lives up to the editors goal to provide the global church with knowledge and understanding of the Buddhist world and how to reach it for Christ Hermeneutical Community C. S. Barefoot, 2024-12-23 Many Western initiatives exist for theological development in the majority world but how often do practitioners from the West pause to examine the role they should play in that endeavor Missions history and church history have revealed inadequacies of imposing foreign theology on local churches yet the alternative of withdrawing from local theological development appears equally problematic If therefore the outsider's role is neither to impose theology nor withdraw from the task then what is his or her role Hermeneutical Community addresses this fundamental question and seeks to lay a sound missiological foundation for local theological development Nigeria's Christian Revolution Richard Burgess, 2008 Nigeria has become the arena of one of the most remarkable religious movements of recent times reflecting the shift in the global center of Christianity from the North to the South This book tells the story of one sector of this movement from its root in the Nigerian civil war to the turn of the new millenium It describes a revival that occurred among the Igbo people of Eastern Nigeria and the new Pentecostal churches it generated and documents the changes that have occurred as the movement has responded to global flows and local demands As such it explores the nature of revivalist and Pentecostal experience but does so against the backdrop of local socio political and economic developments such as decolonization and civil war as well broader processes such as modernization and globalization

The Hybrid Tsinoy Juliet Lee Uytanlet, 2016-06-28 The Hybrid Tsinoy is a study of hybridity and homogeneity as sociocultural constructs in the development of current ethnic identity ies of Chinese Filipinos This study employs a descriptive ethnographic research method to discover how they see or define themselves in terms of ethnicity Chinese Filipino or both and how their perspectives affect other aspects of their lives language marriage and family The research proposes that there are different kinds of Chinese Filipinos as evidenced in the six classifications in chapter 4 Further most of them have constructed a hybrid culture exclusively and uniquely their own On the one hand they are still attached to their cultural roots on the other hand they cannot evade the fact that they are influenced by their host country and the present global and migratory age we live in Second third and fourth generation Chinese Filipinos demonstrate their hybridity in language and mindset This dissertation also lays out some challenges in relation to doing mission among them

Appropriate Christianity Charles H. Kraft, 2005 Appropriate Christianity consists of 28 chapters by 18 authors approaching contextualization in three dimensions truth allegiance and spiritual power Over the years there have been quite a number of helpful discussions of the contextualization of theological truth Though we have been helped greatly by them it is high time we began to deal also with allegiance and spiritual power two additional dimensions that Jesus considered of great importance Any adequate and appropriate treatment of the contextualization of biblical Christianity needs to deal with all three of these 2 crucial dimensions 3 For allegiance to Christ is the basis for all we do that makes us Christian and Jesus was very much into spiritual power If we are to be truly biblical we must deal also with these areas

Traditional Ritual as Christian Worship Burrows, William R., Shaw, R. Daniel, 2018-03-27 A necessary task of missionaries in recent decades has been to help local Christians inculturate or contextualize their faith although the criteria for doing so often came from outside the context in which new believers developed their understanding of Christianity Highlighting the voices of non Western scholars this work recognizes the importance of ritual and ceremony in the life of communities that seek to worship God in ways that reflect culturally appropriate responses to Scripture The contributors some of missiology s leading lights discuss rituals beliefs and practices of diverse peoples supporting the conclusion that orthodox Christianity is hybrid Christianity
