Splm Spla The Nasir Declaration:

SPLM/SPLA Lam Akol,2003 In August 1991 three members of the SPLM SPLA Political military High Command made the Nasir Declaration This led to the split of the Movement One of the leaders of the move many say THE ringleader gives an account of the events that led to this momentous event in the SPLM SPLA history the developments that followed what went wrong in the process how the move affected Sudanese politics and the way forward for South Sudan The Sudan People's Liberation Movement/Army (Splm/A) Julia Aker Duany,Wal Duany,2018-08-20 The Republic of South Sudan the world s youngest country gained independence from Sudan following decades of civil war in 2011 with fanfare high hopes and great expectations The Sudan People s Liberation Movement Army SPLM A the primary military force that fought for independence transformed into the political rulers of the new country and lost its vision of a free and prosperous nation Within two years of independence the country has quickly degenerated into internecine warfare with fifty thousand to one hundred thousand dead four million more refugees and internally displaced people IDPs and half the population of the country six to seven million facing starvation The blame for this state of affairs rests primarily on the SPLM A leadership who have failed to put the interests of their people ahead of their own corrupt interests In this firsthand analysis of the South Sudan the authors explain how the corruption leadership struggles infighting and undemocratic culture of the SPLM A have led to the current crises The majority of citizens felt that their novel cause has been stolen by their selfish leaders and the hope for a better life has just disappeared like the morning mist South Sudan Matthew Arnold,Matthew LeRiche,2013-01-11 In July 2011 the Republic of South Sudan achieved independence concluding what had been Africa s longest running civil war A story of transformation and of victory against the odds this book reviews South Sudan s modern history Integration and Fragmentation of the Sudan Mawut Achiecque Mach Guarak,2011 The most comprehensive profound and accurate book ever written in the history of modern Sudan Integration and Fragmentation of the Sudan An African Renaissance is an encyclopedia of ancient and modern history as well as the politics of Sudan It is a library of data that discusses Sudan from its economic political and social standpoint since the Arab discovery and use of the term Bilad es Sudan up through the modern republic of the Sudan after which South and North Sudan collided in 1947 Although written to correct fabrications this book is a foundation on which future Sudans shall live on It is full of useful information that discusses and provides feasible solutions to the fundamental problem of the Sudan that ruptured the country from the Berlin Conference to the post independence era For centuries Sudanese and the international community have been fed with idealistic information as if Sudan started with the coming of the Arabs in the fourteenth century This persisted due to the lack of resources and formal education among African natives Khartoum s unreasonable diversion of genuine history is one among the many causes of mistrust and division in Sudan The indigenous Africans found themselves peripheral to Khartoum where economic and political power is concentrated Integration and fragmentation of Sudan An African Renaissance is a great source of knowledge for the public and students of Sudanese politics With the referendum and popular consultation approaching this book is a head start for the marginalized Black Africans to make an informed decision between oppression and liberty Examples and testimonies provided in the text are reasons for the affected regions to permanently determine their future For freedom diehards this book lays the foundation on which to celebrate the birth of Africa s newest sovereign nation along the Nile River

Guerrilla Government Øystein H. Rolandsen, 2005 Guerrilla Government provides the background for today s political situation at the eve of a peace agreement for the South It starts with a brief account of the historical roots of the second civil war and provides an in depth analysis of the causes and consequences of the split in SPLM A in 1991 The author then discusses the movement s political and administrative structures and its interaction with other parties at the Southern Sudanese scene prior to its National Convention in 1994 The National Convention and the results of its political and administrative reforms are scrutinised and the book is brought to a conclusion with a short comment on the prospects of the future government of the Southern Sudan

BOOK JACKET

Military Integration during War-to-Peace Transitions Lesley Anne Warner, 2023-06-07 In the 1960s only 10% of peace agreements included some element of political military accommodation namely military integration From Burundi to Bosnia to Zimbabwe that number had increased to over 50% by the 2000s However relatively little is understood about this dimension of power sharing often utilized during war to peace transitions Through an examination of the case of South Sudan between 2006 and 2013 this book explores why countries undergoing transitions from war to peace decide to integrate armed groups into a statutory security framework This book details how integration contributed to short term stability in South Sudan allowing the government to overcome wartime factionalism and consolidate political military power prior to the referendum on self determination in 2011 It also examines how the integration process in South Sudan was flawed by its open ended nature and lack of coordination with efforts to right size the military and transform the broader defense sector and how this led the military to fragment during periods of heightened political competition Furthermore the book explains why integration ultimately failed in South Sudan and identifies the wider lessons that could be applied to current or future war to peace transitions This book will be of great interest to students of war and conflict studies peacebuilding post conflict reconstruction African security issues and International Relations in general as well as to practitioners

First Raise a Flag Peter Martell, 2019-04-15 A beautifully written first hand account of how bitter and deadly rivalries dashed the hopes of the world s newest nation

The State of Post-conflict Reconstruction Naseem Badiey, 2014 Naseem Badiey examines the local dynamics of the emerging capital city of Juba Southern Sudan during the historically pivotal transition period following the 2005 Comprehensive Peace Agreement CPA Focusing on the intersections of land tenure reform and urban development she challenges the dominant paradigm of post conflict reconstruction and re conceptualizes state building as a social process underpinned by negotiation Badiey explores local resistance to reconstruction programmes debates over the interpretation of peace settlements and competing claims to land and resources not as problems to be solved through interventions but as negotiations of authority which are fundamental to shaping the character of the state While donors and aid agency officials anticipated clashes between the Government of Sudan and the Sudan People's Liberation Movement SPLM following the CPA they did not foresee internal divisions that impeded reconstruction in Southern Sudan raising serious questions about the viability of an independent state In Juba local elites interpreted the CPA in line with their economic and political interests using claims to land authority and political power to challenge the SPLM's agenda for urban reconstruction In revealing how local actors strategically interpreted the framework of land rights in Southern Sudan the book offers a basis for understanding the challenges that confront the nascent South Sudan's state builders and their international partners in the future

NASEEM BADIEY is Assistant Professor of International Development and Humanitarian Action at California State University Monterey Bay

A Guide to Intra-state Wars Jeffrey S. Dixon, Meredith Reid Sarkees, 2015-10-22 This title describes how civil war is defined and categorized and presents data and descriptions for nearly 300 civil wars waged from 1816 to the present Analyzing trends over time and regions this work is the definitive source for understanding the phenomenon of civil war

Aid, Insurgencies and Conflict Transformation Robert Kevlihan, 2013 This book examines the circumstances under which aid can contribute to the management and transformation of intra state conflicts How and when do insurgents govern How does the presence of aid and social services influence how insurgents govern Under what circumstances can aid contribute to the management and transformation of civil wars The established literature in this area argues that aid exacerbates civil wars where resources are scarce as greedy rebels steal resources for themselves This book however argues that under certain conditions such greed can be good Drawing on primary research from three very different conflicts Northern Ireland 1969-1998 southern Sudan 1983-2005 and Tajikistan 1992-1997 and more than 10 years experience working in and researching humanitarian crises this study breaks new ground through its wide ranging comparison of conflicts The book argues that insurgent efforts to reap rewards from aid and social services have in turn facilitated organizational changes and that these changes while they may have had conflict enhancing effects in the short term have also contributed to conflict transformation over the long term This book will be of much interest to students of insurgencies civil wars comparative politics conflict management humanitarian emergencies public health and IR Security Studies in general

A History of the Sudan P.M. Holt,2014-09-11 A History of the Sudan by Martin Daly and PM Holt sixth edition has been fully revised and updated and covers the most recent developments that have occurred in Sudan over the last nine years including the crisis in Darfur The most notable developments that this text covers includes the decades long civil war in the South with the signing of the Comprehensive Peace Agreement in January 2005 the emergence of the Sudan as an oil producer and exporter and its resulting higher profile in global economic affairs notably as a partner of China the emergence of al Qaeda the relations of Sudanese authorities with Osama bin Laden whose headquarters were in the Sudan in the 1990s and the Sudanese government s complicated relations with the West This text is key introductory reading for any student of North Africa

A History of South Sudan Øystein H. Rolandsen,M. W. Daly,2016-07-04 South Sudan is the world s youngest independent country This book provides a general history of the new country

Leadership, Nation-building and War in South Sudan Sonja Theron,2022-06-02 For over fifty years the people of South Sudan fought for the right to be citizens of an independent nation state When this goal was finally achieved however it quickly became evident that the South Sudanese nation was not nearly as cohesive as hoped The result has been a catastrophic civil war Spanning South Sudan s nation building struggle from its inception up until the current civil war this book challenges the notion that the continued violence of this process can be reduced to either identity difference or the fault of individual leaders Rather it uses the leadership process to understand the complex progressions and relationships that have characterised South Sudan s nation building trajectory The book argues that the core driving force behind the current conflict in South Sudan can be found not in ethnicity the resource curse or power struggle but in a set of destructive relationships that have fueled violence and oppression in the country for the better part of a century This cyclical leadership process has entrapped the country in an increasingly destructive and contradictory nation building process that continues to

spiral and disintegrate Political Islam, Justice and Governance Mbaye Lo, 2018-11-08 This book argues that political Islam represented by its moderate and militant forms has failed to govern effectively or successfully due to its inability to reconcile its discursive understanding of Islam centered on literal justice with the dominant neo liberal value of freedom Consequently Islamists politics have largely been abject often tragic failures in providing a viable collective life and sound governance This argument is developed theoretically and supported through a set of case studies represented by the Muslim Brotherhood in Egypt under President Muhammad Morsi s tenure Hassan Turabi s National Islamic Front in Sudan and The Islamic State in Iraq and Syria ISIS It is ideal for audiences interested in Regional Politics Islamic Studies and Middle Eastern Studies In-Betweenness in Greater Khartoum Alice Franck, Barbara Casciarri, Idris El-Hassan, 2021-04-01 Focusing on Greater Khartoum following South Sudanese independence in 2011 In Betweenness in Greater Khartoum explores the impact on society of major political events in areas that are neither urban nor rural public nor private This volume uses these in between spaces as a lens to analyze how these events in combination with other processes such as globalization and economic neo liberalization impact communities across the region Drawing on original fieldwork and empirical data the authors uncover the reshaping of new categories of people that reinforce old dichotomies and in doing so underscore a common Sudanese identity From Bush to Bush Steven Wöndu, 2011 Steven Wöndu left school at a young age and strayed into the Anyanya Army for a short stint before he was released to wander in the bushes of Eastern Sudan Wöndu s trails from the bushes of South Sudan and attempts to synthesize the historical precedents leading to the long war in the Sudan Written at the dawn of a new nation for the South Sudanese the author conveys the depressing impact of war on individual and family life He captures the intricate reality where distrust and fear of Muslims and Arabs found root in the minds of the South Sudanese From bush to BUSH is the story of Steven Wöndu s outstanding life journey and the story of the turbulent journey to the birth of a new nation Steven Wöndu is a graduate of several Universities Makerere in Uganda Nairobi in Kenya Reading in the United Kingdom George Washington in the United States and the Kenya Institute of Administration He is a former Sudanese Ambassador to Japan and has co authored the book Battle for Peace in Sudan Ambassador Wöndu is currently the Auditor General of South Sudan Contested Sudan Ibrahim Elnur, 2009-01-13 Since gaining independence in 1956 Sudan has endured a troubled history including the longest civil war in African history in Southern Sudan and more recent conflicts such as the humanitarian crisis in Darfur This book explores this history of ensuing conflict examining why Sudan failed to sustain a successful modern post colonial state The book goes on to consider in detail the various attempts to end Sudan s conflicts and initiate political and economic reconstruction including the failure which followed the Addis Ababa agreement of 1982 and the more recent efforts following the Nivasha agreement of 2005 which ended the civil war in the south It critically examines how reconstruction has been envisioned and the role of the various major players in the process including donors NGOs ex combatants and the central state authority It argues that reconstruction can only be successful if it takes into account the fundamental and irreversible transformations of society engendered by war and conflict which in the case of Sudan includes the massive rural to urban population flows experienced during the years of warfare It compares possible future scenarios for Sudan and considers how the obstacles to successful post conflict reconstruction might best be overcome Overall this book will not only be of interest to scholars of Sudan and regional specialists but to all social scientists interested in the dynamics of post conflict reconstruction and state building
