Oetzel, Stella Ting-Toomey, 2013-02-14 This second edition of the award winning The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Communication emphasizes constructive conflict management from a communication perspective identifying the message as the focus of conflict research and practice Editors John G Oetzel and Stella Ting Toomey along with expert researchers in the discipline have assembled in one resource the knowledge base of the field of conflict communication identified the best theories ideas and practices of conflict communication and provided the opportunity for scholars and practitioners to link theoretical frameworks and application tools In and Out of View Catha Paquette, Karen Kleinfelder, Christopher Miles, 2021-09-09 In and Out of View models an expansion in how censorship is discursively framed Contributors from diverse backgrounds including artists art historians museum specialists and students address controversial instances of art production and reception from the mid 20th century to the present in the Americas Africa Asia Europe and the Middle East Their essays interviews and statements invite consideration of the shifting contexts values and needs through which artwork moves in and out of view At issue are governmental restrictions and discursive effects including erasure and distortion resulting from institutional policies canonical processes and interpretive methods Crucial considerations concerning death violence authoritarianism neo colonialism global capitalism labor immigration race religion sexuality activism social justice disability campus speech and cultural destruction are highlighted The anthology a thought provoking resource for students and scholars in art history museum and cultural studies and creative practices represents a timely and significant contribution to the literature on censorship The Priest and Levite as Temple Representatives Michael Blythe, 2023-07-07 The parable of the good Samaritan is well known yet scholarship has not plumbed the depths of its meaning within its first century Palestinian context For the majority of Christian history the parable has suffered either from extreme allegorical treatments or from unimaginative readings limiting the parable to a single point example story of virtue A creative reading employing social and historical methods generates a refreshing telling of the story within Jesus s context whereby each variable from the Samaritan to the priest and even the innkeeper takes on representative forms not only indicative of widespread concerns from Jesus s audience but also becoming symbols of the eschatological age when the new temple supplants the old

Critical Affect Ashley Barnwell, 2020-05-28 Critical Affect explores the emotional complexity of critique and maps out its enduring value for the turn to affect and ontology Through a series of vivid close readings Ashley Barnwell shows how suspicion and methods of decoding remain vital to both civic and academic spaces where concerns about precarity transparency and security are commonplace and the question of how we verify the truth is one of the most polarising of our age Weaving together both the critical and affective dimensions of paranoid reading Critical Affect opens crucial questions about the ethics of practicing theory and offers a new route into the critical study of affect a
