The Guinness Legend:

The Guinness Legend Michele Guinness, 1989 Arthur's Round Patrick Guinness, 2014-06-01 Ireland's best known Irishman his name and signature in every household and village in Ireland and many abroad is also the least known Part of Dublin life for over two centuries both family and brewery have passed into legend but their origins have been obscured Here in the round these origins are explored and the story of the man and his background told for the first time Various sources are examined and myths about Arthur laid to rest many of which were allowed to continue by his descendants This narrative traces the family's origins in Ulster Gaelic and Protestant Irish tenant farmers from humble backgrounds on both sides when Arthur's father Richard appears as a household agent in Celbridge Co Kildare in 1722 to work for Arthur Price the Protestant Dean of Kildare In 1755 Arthur takes on a brewery in Leixlip and joins the Kildare Friendly Brothers dining club in 1758 marrying and moving to St James's Gate in 1759-60 where the business developed By 1781 he is a patriarch and member of liberal patriot political groups diversifying his assets to preserve his wealth in unsettled times Of a generation with Edmund Burke and Richard Brinsley Sheridan this wily businessman built an empire that endured and expanded Family and social history combine with an account of the brewing process and descriptions of economic and political backgrounds in a rapidly developing Ireland giving a rich weave to this tapestry Visual sources include maps rare original documents prints and photographs of associated houses and places people and artifacts The result is a fascinating contextual portrait of an enigmatic figure the founding father of one of Ireland's most powerful dynasties Legend Truths Sophia

Curie, AI, 2025-01-31 Legend Truths explores the fascinating intersection between documented events and the urban legends they inspire revealing how real incidents transform into the cautionary tales that captivate our collective imagination Through meticulous research combining police reports archival documents and expert interviews the book uncovers the factual foundations behind popular legends like the kidney theft ring stories and haunted highway narratives demonstrating how actual crimes and accidents evolve into modern folklore The book's three part structure systematically traces the evolution of urban legends beginning with an examination of how mass media and digital networks accelerate the transformation of news into myth Through detailed case studies readers discover how documented incidents such as real elevator accidents spawn elaborate cautionary tales that reflect deeper societal fears The analysis draws from multiple disciplines including criminology social psychology and digital anthropology to explain why people continue believing and sharing these stories despite contradicting evidence What sets this work apart is its commitment to verifiable cases and its practical application of folklore studies to contemporary issues Rather than simply debunking myths it demonstrates how urban legends serve as mirrors of cultural anxiety and social change The book's interdisciplinary approach makes it valuable for both academic researchers and general readers interested in understanding how today's digital landscape influences the spread of modern myths and shapes our collective understanding of truth and fiction The Story of Faith Missions Klaus

Black Students in Imperial Britain Robert Burroughs,2022-09-15 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website This book caters for the demand in new black histories by rediscovering several little known Black people s experiences in late Victorian Britain It centres on The African Institute of Colwyn Bay or Congo House at which almost 90 children and young adults from Africa and its diaspora were enrolled to train as missionaries between 1889 and 1911 Burroughs finds that though their encounters in Britain were shaped by the racism and paternalism of the late nineteenth century civilising mission the students were not simply the objects of British charity They were also agents in a culture of evangelical humanitarianism Some were fully absorbed in the civilising mission becoming leading missionaries Others adapted their experiences to new ends participating in networks of pan Africanism that questioned race prejudice and colonialism In their negotiations of the challenges and opportunities at the heart of the empire the students of Congo House reveal how the global currents of black history shaped the localised cultures of Victorian philanthropy From racism to pan Africanism this study sheds new light on key issues in black British history
