cultural context Stratton focuses on the British faultline between the post war African Caribbean settlers and the white Britons Central to the book is the question of identity For example how African Caribbean people have constructed their identity in Britain can be considered through an examination of when Police on My Back was written and how it has been revisioned by Lethal Bizzle in its most recent iteration At the same time this song written by the Guyanese migrant Eddy Grant for his mixed race group The Equals crossed the racial faultline when it was picked up by the punk rock group The Clash Conversely Johnny Reggae originally a pop ska track written about a skinhead by Jonathan King and performed by a group of studio artists whom King named The Piglets was revisioned by a Jamaican studio group called The Roosevelt Singers After this the character of Johnny Reggae takes on a life of his own and appears in tracks by Jamaican toasters as a Rastafarian Johnny s identity is then totally transformed It is this migration of music that will appeal not only to those studying popular music but
