Spiritual Formation in Emerging Adulthood David P. Setran,Chris A. Kiesling,2013-08-15 The shift from adolescence to adulthood a recently identified stage of life called emerging adulthood covers an increasing span of years in today's culture roughly ages 18-30 due to later marriages and extended education. During this prolonged stage of exploration and self-definition many young adults drift away from the church. Here two authors, both veteran teachers who are experienced in young adult and campus ministry, address this new and urgent field of study, offering a Christian perspective on what it means to be spiritually formed into adulthood. They provide a practical theology for emerging adult ministry and offer insight into the key developmental issues of this stage of life, including identity, intimacy, and sexuality, morality, church involvement, spiritual formation, vocation, and mentoring. The book bridges the gap between academic and popular literature on emerging adulthood and offers concrete ways to facilitate spiritual formation among emerging adults.

The Heart of Racial Justice Bible Study Brenda Salter McNeil, Rick Richardson, 2022-01-11. For Christians pursuing racial justice and reconciliation begins with following Scripture and the voice of the Holy Spirit, asking God to give us new eyes and hearts. In this five-session Bible study, readers will learn how the early church engaged with issues of reconciliation and how we too can commit ourselves to discipleship, prayer, community, and witness in alignment with God's call.

Digital Media and Youth Discipleship Vo Huong Nam, 2023-06-30. Today's youth grow up immersed in digital technology. This presents a unique challenge to the church as it seeks to faithfully make disciples of the next generation. What does it look like theologically and practically to minister contextually to those whose lives are permeated by social media and digital culture? In this in-depth study, Dr. Vo Huong Nam offers both social and theological insight into the task of discipling youth in the digital age. He examines the impact of digital media on both society and young people and offers an overview of Christian responses to the changing technological landscape. Engaging such authors as John Calvin, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, and Henri Nouwen, he develops a constructive theology of spiritual formation relevant to the context of twenty-first-century youth. He explores the implications of this theology on church practice, urging the church to take seriously its call to be all things for all people. Drawing specific examples from youth ministry in Vietnam, he addresses practical questions of application and contextualization and suggests that silence, solitude, and prayer are spiritual disciplines uniquely vital for the digital age. This book is an important resource for all those involved in discipling young people and longing to see today's youth come to fullness of life in Christ.
