Cohen, 1990-11-30 The sixth volume of the annual publication of the Institute for Contemporary Jewry at The Hebrew University of Jerusalem Art and Its Uses analyzes the levels of meaning present in a wide range of visual images from high art by Jewish artists to Judaica caricatures and political propaganda The use of such material to illuminate aspects of modern history and society is rather uncommon in the field of modern Jewish studies these essays provide the tools necessary for understanding the image in its proper social and political context The distinguished contributors include Richard I Cohen Michael Berkowitz Milly Heyd Irit Rogoff Chone Shmeruk Ziva Amishai Maisels Vivianne Barsky and Vivian Mann Accompanied by more than 160 illustrations the essays shed new light on such topics as Jewish nationalism Jewish identity and Jewish gentile relations In addition to the symposium the volume contains articles by major scholars of contemporary Jewish studies a substantial book review section and a list of recent dissertations in the field Movements in Art Since 1945: Second Edition (World of Art) Edward Lucie-Smith, 2020-04-14 A classic introduction to art since the end of the Second World War Movements in Art Since 1945 tells the story of art across all forms of media over the past seventy five years Revised and redesigned for the first time since 2001 this standard introduction to visual art in the postwar era examines the movements trends and artists from abstract expressionism to the present day Writing with exceptional clarity and a strong sense of narrative Edward Lucie Smith demystifies the work of dozens of artists and reveals how the art world has interacted with social political and environmental concerns This book includes detailed coverage of major developments within the artistic community such as pop art conceptual and performance work neo expressionism and minimalist art across the globe including Asia Africa and Latin America A new chapter on art since 2000 includes discussions of work by Banksy and Ai Weiwei as well as recent trends in art from Russia and Eastern Europe Featuring nearly 300 images of key artworks that range from graffiti from 1980s New York to contemporary painting from China this updated edition of Movements in Art Since 1945 is as global in its reach as art has become in the twenty first century The Art Gallery on Stage Mariacristina Cavecchi, 2024-03-21 Winner of the AIA Associazione Italiana di Anglistica Book Prize 2024 The Art Gallery on Stage is the first book to consider the representation of the art gallery on the contemporary British stage and to discuss how playwrights have begun to regard it as inspiration location focus or theme in an ever more intense game of cross fertilization The study analyzes the impact on dramatic form and theatrical presentation of what has been a paradigmatic shift in the way art galleries and museums display their collections and how these are perceived establishing a hitherto unexplored connection between modes of exhibiting and modes of representation It traces a trajectory from plays that were initially performed in traditional theatres in accordance with a naturalistic play structure to plays that favour of a radical reconfiguration of visual representation Indeed since the beginning of the new millennium playwrights and theatre makers have increasingly experimented with new dramatic forms and site specific venues while forging collaborations with art makers and curators The book focuses on plays from the 1980s onwards such as Howard Barker's Scenes from an Execution Nick Dear's The Art of Success Alan Bennett's A Question of Attribution Timberlake Wertenbaker's Three Birds Alighting on a Field and The Line David Edgar's Pentecost Martin Crimp's Attempt on Her Life Rebecca Lenkiewicz's Shoreditch Madonna and The Painter David Leddy's Long Live the Little Knife and Tim Crouch's My Arm An Oak Tree and England and considers the vital contribution to the field made by set designers Ultimately through this study we come to understand how modern drama can offer a set of interpretative tools to enhance our understanding of the mechanisms underlying the social construction of art and furthermore the potential of theatre and the gallery space to question our fundamental cultural assumptions and values

London Calling Elena Crippa, Catherine Lampert, 2016-07-26 Between the postwar years and the 1980s in Britain and in particular in London a number of figurative painters simultaneously reinvented the way in which life is represented in art Focusing on the depiction of the human figure these artists rendered the frailty and vitality of the human condition Offering a fresh account of developments that have since characterized postwar British painting this catalogue focuses on Michael Andrews Frank Auerbach Francis Bacon Lucian Freud R B Kitaj and Leon Kossoff artists who worked in close proximity as they were developing new forms of realism If for many years their efforts seemed to clash with dominant tendencies reassessment in recent decades has afforded their work a central position in a richer and more complex understanding of postwar British art and culture Rigorous and gorgeously illustrated the essays reflect on the parallel yet diverse trajectories of these artists their friendships and mutual admiration and the divergence of their practice from the discourse of high modernism The authors seek to dispel the notion of their work as a uniquely British endeavor by highlighting the artists international outlook and ongoing dialogue with contemporary European and American painters as well as masters from previous generations This book is published to coincide with an exhibition at the J Paul Getty Museum from July 26 through November 13 2016 I Am You Karl F.
