politics education theology economics and social mores Margaret Laurence and Jack McClelland, Letters Linda M. Morra, Laura K. Davis, 2018-04-30 An edited annotated collection of funny affectionate and insightful letters between two Canadian literary icons This Side Jordan Margaret Laurence, 2009-08-04 In 1957 the British colony of the Gold Coast broke free to become the independent nation of Ghana Margaret Laurence's first novel This Side Jordan recreates that colour-drenched world a place where men and women struggle with self-betrayal self-discovery and the dawning of political pride This Side Jordan transcends the traditional limits of the first novel Its powerful and compassionate characterizations and its themes of exile and community anticipate the five later novels that make up Laurence's acclaimed Manawaka series A major work of lasting significance This Side Jordan creates echoes in the mind of the reader as resonant as the drums of Ghana

The Diviners Margaret Laurence, 2008-11-19 The culmination and completion of Margaret Laurence's celebrated Manawaka cycle The Diviners is an epic novel This is the powerful story of an independent woman who refuses to abandon her search for love For Morag Gunn growing up in a small Canadian prairie town is a toughening process putting distance between herself and a world that wanted no part of her But in time the aloneness that had once been forced upon her becomes a precious right relinquished only in her overwhelming need for love Again and again Morag is forced to test her strength against the world and finally achieves the life she had determined would be hers The Diviners has been acclaimed by many critics as the outstanding achievement of Margaret Laurence's writing career In Morag Gunn Laurence has created a figure whose experience emerges as that of all dispossessed people in search of their birthright and one who survives as an inspirational symbol of courage and endurance The Diviners received the Governor General's Award for Fiction for 1974

Racial, Ethnic, Gender and Class Representations in Margaret Laurence's Writings Andreea Topor-Constantin, 2013-07-26 Racial Ethnic Gender and Class Representations in Margaret Laurence's Writings is a study on Canada Canadian literature and Margaret Laurence's works in particular thus addressing various kinds of readership This book avoids the danger of limiting the approach to solely focusing attention on Canada by presenting a thorough analysis of various literary genres allowing the book to be of interest to all literature lovers Furthermore the book explores the parallelism between life and fiction emphasising Laurence's biographic and realist elements and their influence on the writer's fictional writing revealing real and imaginary worlds which would appeal to anybody's literary needs This major contribution to the already existent criticism of Margaret Laurence's works lies in the analysis of her work as an entity balancing both terms of the common binary oppositions fiction versus non-fiction Africa versus Canada white versus Black or Metis In spite of critical comments which might be raised Andreea Topor-Constantin comments on how the voice of the marginal makes itself heard throughout the author's books underlying Laurence's emphasis on characterisation and her genuine concern for people This book covers all aspects of Laurence's life and fiction from the African to the writer's Canadian background from adults to children's literature from novels to short stories from essays to letters in order to challenge readers' perceptions of race ethnicity gender and class Heart of a Stranger Margaret Laurence, 2003 Travel was closely connected to Margaret Laurence's creativity Laurence realized that her travels especially to Africa provided her with new perspectives on Canada Heart of a Stranger originally published in 1976 is a fascinating travelogue chronicling Laurence's geographical journeys to many lands and historic places She notes I saw somewhat to my surprise that they are all in one way or another travel articles And by travel I mean both those voyages which are outer and those voyages which are inner Laurence writes about her travels to Egypt in Good Morning to the Grandson of Ramesses the Second to Scotland in Road from the Isles and to Greece in Sayonara Agamemnon In The Very Best Intentions Laurence sees herself as a stranger in a strange land in Ghana She reflects on the many places she lived in Put Out One or Two More Flags Down East The Shack and Where the World Began Professor Nora Foster Stovel's new introduction Heart of a Traveller explores how Laurence's experiences in other lands influenced and shaped her writing She contends that Heart of a Stranger constitutes a concealed autobiography for in chronicling her literal life journey Laurence also reveals her spiritual odyssey Margaret Laurence's Epic Imagination Paul Comeau, 2005-12-23 Although at times painfully insecure about her creative ability and achievement Margaret Laurence nevertheless remained fiercely loyal to her artistic vision an archetypal vision of loss exile and redemption that sought comprehensive expression in the epic mode that shapes the Bible Dante's Divine Comedy Milton's Paradise Lost and ultimately the Manawaka world of Hagar Shipley Rachel Cameron Stacey MacAindra and Morag Gunn Paul Comeau traces the development of Margaret Laurence's epic voice from its tentative beginnings in her African fiction to its culmination in the epic Manawaka Cycle a Dantesque journey through an infernal state of self-destructive pride out of a purgatorial paralysis of self-doubt and on to a kind of paradisaic fulfillment in self-knowledge Laurence discovered in epic a fitting mode at once to requite her debt to the ancestors and to break free of their influence to portray the world through the sight of her own eyes In so doing she became the enduring epic voice of a country and a generation Challenging Territory Christian Riegel, 1997-05 In a postmodern and postcolonial age how do we approach the writing of Margaret Laurence Challenging Territory demands of the reader a re-evaluation of the basic assumptions that underlie their understanding of Laurence's life and writing by addressing the full range of her writing Laurence is presented as Canadian colonial and postcolonial subject as feminist humanist and politically active individual and as essayist translator journalist memoir writer and fiction writer The essays stake out a critical territory as well as offer a challenge to territory previously mapped by the criticism in addition to charting critical space never before traced Margaret Laurence Doreen Xiques, 2005-09-24 Margaret Laurence The Making of a Writer is an engaging narrative that contains new and important findings about Laurence's life and career This biography reveals the challenges successes and failures of the long apprenticeship that preceded the publication of The Stone Angel Laurence's first commercially successful novel Doreen Xiques demonstrates the importance of Margaret Laurence's early work as a journalist in her development as a writer and covers her return to Canada from Africa in the late 1950s She details the significance of Laurence's Vancouver years as well as the challenges of her year in London prior to settling at Elm Cottage in Buckinghamshire when Laurence stood on the verge of success The Margaret Laurence known to most people is a public figure of the 1960s and 1970s matriarchal matronly and accomplished The story of her early years in the harsh setting of the Canadian Prairies during the 1930s years of drought and the Great Depression and of her African years has never before been chronicled with the thoroughness and vividness that Xiques provides for the reader Appended to this powerful new biography is a short story by Margaret Laurence that has never before been published and two other stories that have not been widely available They indicate the range of her concerns and show a marked departure from her fiction in The Tomorrow Tamer and Other Stories and A Bird in the House Readers will benefit from the extensive research in this full and vibrant portrait of one of the most revered writers of twentieth century Canadian literature The Canadian Short Story Reingard M. Nischik, 2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada's flagship genre It continues to attract the country's most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood Mavis Gallant Alice Munro Carol Shields and many others Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre's beginnings through the twentieth century A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre's development in Canada the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story Reingard M Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany Intimate Strangers Margaret Laurence, Gabrielle Roy, 2004-12-02 The books of Margaret Laurence and Gabrielle Roy are among the most beloved in Canadian literature In 1976 when both were at the height of their careers they began a seven year written correspondence Laurence had just published her widely acclaimed The Diviners for which she won her second Governor General's Award and Roy had returned to the centre of the literary stage with a series of books that many critics now consider her richest and most mature works Although both women had been born and raised in Manitoba Laurence in Neepawa and Roy in St Boniface they met only once in 1978 at a conference in Calgary As these letters reveal their prairie background created a common understanding of place and culture that bridged the differences of age and language Here Laurence and Roy discuss everything from their own and each other's writing to Canadian politics housekeeping publishing and their love of nature With a thoughtful introduction by Paul G Socken these lovely and intimate letters record the moving affectionate friendship between two remarkable women A Bird in the House Margaret Laurence, 2017-05-16 One of Canada's most accomplished authors combines the best qualities of both the short story and the novel to create a lyrical evocation of the beauty, pain and wonder of growing up now available as a Penguin Modern Classic. In eight interconnected finely wrought stories Margaret Laurence recreates the world of Vanessa MacLeod, a world of scrub oak, willow and chokecherry bushes of family love and conflict and of a girl's growing awareness of and passage into womanhood. The stories blend into one masterly and moving whole, poignant, compassionate and profound in emotional impact. In this fourth book of the five volume Manawaka series Vanessa MacLeod takes her rightful place alongside the other unforgettable heroines of Manawaka: Hagar Shipley in The Stone Angel, Rachel Cameron in A Jest of God, Stacey MacAindra in The Fire Dwellers and Morag Gunn in The Diviners. Encyclopedia of World Writers, 1800 to the Present

Marie Diamond, 2020-07-01 In recent years schools have started introducing more inclusive syllabi emphasizing the works and ideas of previously overlooked or underrepresented writers. Readers of all ages can now explore the rich contributions of writers from around the world. These writers have various backgrounds and unlike most writers from the U.S. or the United Kingdom, information on them in English can be difficult to find. Encyclopedia of World Writers 1800 to the Present covers the most important writers outside of the U.S., Britain and Ireland since 1800. More than 330 insightful A to Z entries profile novelists, poets, dramatists and short story writers whose works are anthologized in textbooks or assigned in high school English classes. Entries range in length from 200 to 1,000 words each and include a biographical sketch, synopses of major works and a brief bibliography. Dozens of entries are new to this edition and many existing entries have been updated and significantly expanded with new Critical Analysis sections. Coverage includes Chinua Achebe, Margaret Atwood, Roberto Bolaño, Albert Camus, Khalid Hosseini, Victor Hugo, Mohammad Iqbal, Franz Kafka, Stieg Larsson, Mario Vargas Llosa, Naghib Mahfouz, Gabriel García Márquez, Kenzaburo Oe, Marcel Proust, Leo Tolstoy, Emile Zola and more. Women in Exile and Alienation

Kaptan Singh, 2016-06-22 Since World War II, exile and alienation have become two of the most prominent themes in world literature. Canadian and Indian literatures are no exception. Modern human civilisation is passing through a terrible ordeal following on from the catastrophic consequences of two world wars and many people have been overwhelmed and overawed by the growth of science, technology and urbanisation. Alienation, a feeling of not belonging, has filled the life of modern man with uncertainties and disappointments, obstructions and frustrations. Indian and Canadian literatures are currently two of the most acclaimed forms of global literature with major themes including a search for identity, a struggle for survival and self, and social isolation, and it is not surprising that female writers are major voices in both Indian and Canadian literature. There is a heavy imbalance of power between two sexes in both cultures where men are considered to be domineering and the centre of the family while women are regarded as subordinate to men. Women's suppression compels them to live in their self-exiled and alienated world. The works of Margaret Laurence and Anita Desai depict heart-rending facts and bitter realities which women have to face in an emotionless modern society. Since the patriarchal structure is prevalent in India and Canada women are categorised as second rate citizens and are treated as liabilities by their families due to a lack of financial power In the absence of any economic social emotional and financial support they also consider themselves inferior to men Time and again they revolt against the mechanical and merciless treatment of their family and society and sometimes they choose self exile as a safeguard against the callous and selfish treatment of their family members Their inner desire to revolt against an oppressive society and the prevailing cultural norm only increases their isolation In their works Laurence and Desai have unveiled the tortured psyche of sensitive women who are unable to share their feelings with others and are destined to live an emotionally deprived life Recognition and Revelation Margaret

Laurence,2020-09-23 Margaret Laurence best known for her germinal novels set in the Canadian prairies is one of the nation s most respected authors She was also an accomplished essayist yet today her nonfiction writing is largely unavailable and therefore little known In Recognition and Revelation Nora Foster Stovel brings together Laurence s short nonfiction works including many that have not previously been collected and some that have never before been published These works including over fifty essays and addresses that span Laurence s writing career from the 1960s to the 1980s reveal her passionate concern for Canadian literature and for the land and peoples of Canada Based on extensive archival research Stovel s introduction contextualizes Laurence s nonfiction writings in her life as a creative artist and political activist and as a woman writing in the twentieth century The texts range from essays on Laurence s own writings and on other works of Canadian literature to autobiographical essays several focusing on environmental concerns to sociopolitical essays and writing advocating for peace and nuclear disarmament By revealing Laurence as a socially and politically committed artist this collection of lively and provocative essays illuminates the undercurrents of her creative writing and places her fiction often informed by her nonfiction writing in a new light
