The Shame of the Nation Jonathan Kozol, 2006-08-01 Since the early 1980s when the federal courts began dismantling the landmark ruling in Brown v Board of Education segregation of black children has reverted to its highest level since 1968 In many inner city schools a stick and carrot method of behavioral control traditionally used in prisons is now used with students Meanwhile as high stakes testing takes on pathological and punitive dimensions liberal education has been increasingly replaced by culturally barren and robotic methods of instruction that would be rejected out of hand by schools that serve the mainstream of society Filled with the passionate voices of children principals and teachers and some of the most revered leaders in the black community The Shame of the Nation pays tribute to those undefeated educators who persist against the odds but directly challenges the chilling practices now being forced upon our urban systems In their place Kozol offers a humane dramatic challenge to our nation to fulfill at last the promise made some 50 years ago to all our youngest citizens

Last Deadly Lie Caleb Pirtle, III, 1987-06 Nathan Locke is the pastor of Basilwood Presbyterian Church an ambitious man who carefully and charismatically manipulates his congregation to build a power base and financial empire within the town Helen Jensen live with her fragile dreams watching them shatter around her She is desperately in love with only one man Unfortunately it is not her husband Raymond Lynch came from his home in New England to teach in Mississippi schools He's a yankee He's an outcast He dares to openly challenge the minister as he desperately tries to hide from the shame of his past Tom Beecher is a maverick the aging former attorney general of Mississippi who has seen too much who knows too much who keeps too many secrets especially the one that haunts him like a nightmare without an end Birdie Castleberry and Alice Setzer deal with what they know best lies rumors half truths and gossip Their tongues are the most deadly weapons in town Martha Landers doesn't belong in Vicksburg society and never will a prostitute whose fading beauty is wasted on a man who can never return the love that rages deep inside her Max Gordon was the foundation of Basilwood society a banker with both wealth and a solid reputation He had it all And no one knows why he held a shotgun to his head and pulled the trigger The wages of sin are death The time has come to collect The One Ronny Russell, 2013-12-17 The parable in Luke 15:17 can be seen from three angles The dilemma of the shepherd is whether or not to leave the ninety nine and go in search of the one lost sheep It may not make sense economically and rationally but he leaves them anyway and begins his search The poor sheep has wandered away and is lost not hopelessly so but lost The sheep does have hope and it rests with the shepherd whose love for her is so vast and so relentless that he won't rest until he finds the sheep And then there's the ninety nine Their attitude and behavior toward the lost sheep is paramount in the story Will they join in the search Will they celebrate with the shepherd once the sheep is returned Or will they criticize and whine about how the shepherd spends all his time searching for the one who is lost The One explores the foundational nature of this parable and how important its implications are for the church and one's own walk with the Lord The value that God places on the one is life changing for those who come to understand it An intense and powerful vision shared through the lens of author Ronny Russell's personal and professional spiritual journey Authenticity is found in every paragraph that rings with empowering truth inspiration and encouragement for the one I have watched Ronny's journey for decades and found his passion to be deep contagious and transformational for the one and the remnant who seek meaning in our fast paced world filled with churches that often miss the one to preserve the institution Ronny serves Christ above all and finds hope in God's calling and gifting as a member of the body of Christ Truly a worthy and engaging read Edward Hammett author of Spiritual Leadership in a Secular Age and Recovering Hope for Your Church
