Speak A Comedy:

The Rise of Classical English Criticism James Edward Routh, 1915 The Quarterly Journal of Public Speaking, 1916

The Speaker, 1906 Comedy Films 1894-1954 John Montgomery, 2022-04-26 Originally published in 1954 this was the first factual history of comedy films and the men and women who had since 1894 kept us laughing in the cinema. It traces the beginning of comic motion pictures and the pioneer work of Paul Gaumont, Hepworth, Pathe and Zecca. Then comes the picture palace craze and the success of the early Italian and French comedies and trick films. The work of Al Christie and Mack Sennett in America and the rise of American films is fully described as knockabout gives way to slapstick and salaries and box office receipts soar. Now come Chaplin, Harold Lloyd and all the other bright figures of the Roaring Twenties with favourites like Buster Keaton and Will Rogers to the fore. The development of sound and its effect on the comedians is explained and the story comes up to date through the thirties and forties to 1954. Some of the hundreds of names to whom tribute is paid include Mabel Normand, Larry Semon, Roscoe Arbuckle, Monty Banks, Max Linder, Harry Langdon, Will Hay, the Marx Brothers, Bob Hope, Fernandel and Alec Guinness. These are only a few of the many whose careers are traced. The book is illustrated by a number of carefully selected photographs many of which are unique. This edition first published in 1968 has been revised but the period it covers remains the same 1894-1954 sixty years of film humour.

Do You Talk Funny? David Nihill, 2016-03-08 Public speaking can be terrifying. For David Nihill the idea of standing in front of an audience was scarier than cliff jumping into a thorny pit of spiders and mothers in law. Without a parachute or advanced weaponry something had to change. In what doesn't sound like the best plan ever David decided to overcome his fears by pretending to be an accomplished comedian called Irish Dave for one full year crashing as many comedy clubs, festivals and shows as possible. One part of the plan was at least logical he was already Irish and already called Dave. In one year David went from being deathly afraid of public speaking to hosting a business conference, regularly performing stand up comedy and winning storytelling competitions in front of packed houses. And he did it by learning from some of the best public speakers in the world stand up comedians.

Do You Talk Funny? 7 Comedy Habits to Become a Better and Funnier Public Speaker shows how the key principles of stand up comedy can be applied to your speaking engagements and presentations to make you funnier, more interesting and better looking. Or at least two of the three. Whether you are preparing for a business presentation, giving a wedding toast, defending your thesis, raising money from investors or simply want to take on something you're afraid of, this book will take you from sweaty to stage ready. You'll learn how to craft a story and content that your audience will want to listen to. Find the funniest parts of your material and how to get to them faster. Deal with stage fright. Master the two most important parts of your performance: timing and delivery. Ten percent of the author's proceeds from this book will go to Arash Bayatmakou via Help Hope Live until he is fully back on his feet and thereafter to one of the many facing the same challenges after suffering a severe spinal cord injury.
