Basic Mandarin Chinese - Speaking & Listening Textbook Cornelius C. Kubler,2017-11-17 ING_08 Review quote

Learning Chinese as a Heritage Language Guanglun Michael Mu,2015-10-06 This book explores the fascinating topic of heritage language learning looking in particular at Chinese Australians learning of Chinese The author studies the investment challenges and benefits of heritage language learning across varied contexts including school work home and in the community The book investigates how Chinese Australians navigate and negotiate their Chineseness and how resources are used to support their learning The book is based on a mixed methods study which uses Bourdieu s sociological theory and offers implications for sociologists of language and education Chinese heritage language learners and teachers as well as language and cultural policy makers Intersectional Lives Alanna Kamp,2022-04-25 Intersectional Lives explores the varied experiences of Chinese Australian females across time and place during the White Australia Policy era 1901 1973 Chinese Australian women s personal reflections are examined alongside postcolonial feminist readings of official records to illustrate how their everyday lives were influenced by multiple and fluid identities and subject positions including migrant mother daughter wife student worker entrepreneur and cultural custodian This book provides new ways to conceptualise

Chinese females in the diaspora as gendered classed culturally varied and racialised individuals with multiple forms of oppression agency and mobility It offers a revision of patriarchal understandings of Chinese Australian history and broader understandings of overseas Chinese migrations and settlement experiences It also demonstrates how historical geography informed by postcolonial feminist approaches can facilitate more nuanced understandings of past and present times and places that include women s diverse experiences at the domestic local national and international scale This book will appeal to social and cultural geographers with additional audiences of interest in history and historical geography ethnic and racial studies gender studies diaspora studies migration studies and gender and feminist studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Modern Mandarin Chinese Claudia Ross, Baozhang He, Pei-chia Chen, Meng Yeh, 2018-10-03 Modern Mandarin Chinese is a two year undergraduate course for students with no prior background in Chinese study Designed to build a strong foundation in both the spoken and written language it develops all the basic skills such as pronunciation character writing word use and structures while placing a strong emphasis on the development of communicative skills Each level of the course consists of a textbook and workbook in simplified Chinese A free companion website provides all the audio for the course with a broad range of interactive exercises and additional resources for students self study along with a comprehensive instructor s guide with teaching tips assessment and homework material and a full answer key Key changes to this new edition An increased number of vocabulary and characters introduced 255 characters are introduced in this second edition for active production Dialogues and example sentences are also presented in full character format for passive recognition and to provide additional challenge for more advanced students Additional exercises in the workbooks and online to support the expanded number of words and characters incorporated into the textbooks New cross references between the textbooks workbooks and companion website facilitate using all the resources in an integrated manner Greatly enhanced and re designed website Retaining its focus on communicative skills and the long term retention of characters the text is now presented in simplified characters and pinyin from the outset with a gradual and phased removal of pinyin as specific characters are introduced and learnt This unique approach allows students to benefit from the support of pinyin in the initial stages as they begin speaking while ensuring they are guided and supported towards reading only in characters

Identity and Belonging Among Chinese Australians Jennifer Martin, Dharma Arunachalam, Helen Forbes-Mewett, 2023-11-20 This book describes the ethnic identity construction involved in being feeling and doing Chinese for multi generation Australian born Chinese who were born and raised in a different social environment It demonstrates how Chineseness is manifested in a multitude of ways and totally debunks any notion that being Chinese is a simple identity marker The book shows that while there are commonalities with the American born the experiences of Australia born Chinese are distinct in many ways This book is a timely and critically examination of the inescapability of Chineseness particularly when social and economic stability is threatened and those in power are looking for a scapegoat

The Third Space and Chinese Language Pedagogy Xin Zhang, Xiaobin Jian, 2020-12-30 The Third Space and Chinese Language Pedagogy presents the Third Space as a new frame through which foreign language pedagogy is conceptualized as a pedagogy of negotiating intentions and expectations in another culture The field of Chinese as a foreign language CFL in the past decades has been expanding rapidly at the beginning and intermediate levels yet it is lacking in scholarship on the true advanced level both in theory building and research supported curriculum and material development This book argues that it is time for CFL to go beyond merely satisfying the desire of gazing at the other whether it is curiosity about the other or superiority over the other to focusing on learning to work with the other It reimagines the field as co constructing a transcultural Third Space where learners are becoming experts in negotiating intentions and expectations in another culture It presents a range of research based CFL pedagogical scholarship and practices especially relevant to the advanced level and to the goal of enabling learners to go past fans or critics to become actors players in the game of cross lingual and intercultural cooperation

Mandarin Chinese Dual Language Immersion Programs Ko-Yin Sung, Hsiao-Mei Tsai, 2019-06-05 This book discusses multiple aspects of Chinese dual language immersion DLI programs with a focus on the controversial Utah model The first part of the book focuses on the parents teachers and school administrators It looks at the perceptions of the three groups toward the Utah model how they build a supportive DLI classroom with an emphasis on teacher teacher and teacher parent communication and how the teachers position themselves in teaching through their teacher identities The second part of the book emphasizes classroom research and explores teaching and learning strategies corrective feedback and learner uptake and repair translanguaging in authentic teacher student interaction and Chinese character teaching As the first DLI book to include a non alphabetical language Chinese it addresses the need for more research on DLI programs of languages other than Spanish The book will benefit not only Chinese DLI educators and administrators in the US but will also offer some useful suggestions and thoughts to educators and administrators of similar programs worldwide
