Speaking Of Films Paperback:

Speaking of Films Satyajit Ray, 2005-07-25 India's greatest film maker on the art and craft of films Exactly fifty years ago in 1955 the release of Pather Panchali heralded the arrival of a master in the world of cinema Over the next forty years Satyajit Ray came to be regarded as one of the world's finest film makers ever Today more than a decade after his death he continues to be India's most respected name in international film circles Apart from his achievements as a director Ray was also a prolific writer of novels short stories and essays on cinema Speaking of Films brings together some of Ray's most memorable writings on film and film making With the masterly precision and clarity that characterize his films Ray discusses a wide array of subjects the structure and language of cinema with special reference to his adaptations of Tagore and Bibhutibhusan Bandopadhyay the appropriate use of background music and dialogue in films the relationship between a film maker and a film critic and important developments in cinema like the advent of sound and colour He also writes about his own experiences the challenges of working with rank amateurs and the innovations called for when making a film in the face of technological financial and logistical constraints In the process Ray provides fascinating behind the scenes glimpses of the people who worked with him the intricacies of getting Chhabi Biswas who had no ear for music to play a patron of classical music in Jalsaghar the incredible memory of the seventy five year old Chunibala Devi Indir Thakrun of Pather Panchali and her remarkable attention to details This first ever translation of Bishay Chalachitra a seminal collection of essays on cinema Speaking of Films retains the lucidity and simplicity that is a hallmark of Ray's writing and gives an invaluable insight into the mind of a genius Daniel Blum's Screen World 1967 (Screen World) (Hardcover) John Willis, 1967 Film Talk

Wheeler Winston Dixon, 2007-07-11 What 1970s Hollywood filmmaker influenced Quentin Tarantino How have contemporary Japanese horror films inspired Takashi Shimizu director of the huge box office hit The Grudge What is it like to be an African American director in the twenty first century The answers to these questions along with many more little known facts and insights can be found in Film Talk an in depth behind the scenes look at filmmaking from the 1940s to the present In eleven intimate and revealing interviews contemporary film directors speak frankly about their work their successes and their disappointments their personal aspirations struggles relationships and the politics that affect the industry A medley of directors including those working in pop culture and documentary as well as feminist filmmakers social satirists and Hollywood mavericks recount stories that have never before been published Among them are Monte Hellman the auteur of the minimalist masterpiece Two Lane Blacktop Albert Maysles who with his late brother David created some of the most important documentaries of the 1960s including Salesman and The Beatles What's Happening Robert Downey Sr whose social satires Putney Swope and Greaser's Palace paved the way for a generation of filmmakers Bennett Miller whose film Capote won an Academy Award in 2005 and Jamie Babbit a lesbian crossover director whose low budget film But I'm a Cheerleader became a mainstream hit The candid conversations complimented by more than fifty photographs including many that are rare make this book essential reading for aspiring moviemakers film scholars and everyone interested in the how movies are made and who the fascinating individuals are who make them The Documentary Film Book Brian Winston,2019-07-25 Powerfully posing questions of ethics ideology authorship and form documentary film has never been more popular than it is today Edited by one of the leading British authorities in the field The Documentary Film Book is an essential guide to current thinking on documentary film In a series of fascinating essays key international experts discuss the theory of documentary outline current understandings of its history from pre Flaherty to the post Griersonian world of digital i Docs survey documentary production from Africa to Europe and from the Americas to Asia consider documentaries by marginalised minority communities and assess its contribution to other disciplines and arts Brought together here in one volume these scholars offer compelling evidence as to why over the last few decades documentary has come to the centre of screen studies Books and Bookmen ,1973 Comic Book Film Style Dru Jeffries,2017-09-05 Superhero films and comic book adaptations dominate contemporary Hollywood filmmaking and it is not just the storylines of these blockbuster spectacles that have been influenced by comics The comic book medium itself has profoundly influenced how movies look and sound today as well as how viewers approach them as texts Comic Book Film Style explores how the unique conventions and formal structure of comic books have had a profound impact on film aesthetics so that the different representational abilities of comics and film are put on simultaneous display in a cinematic work With close readings of films including Batman The Movie American Splendor Superman Hulk Spider Man 2 V for Vendetta 300 Scott Pilgrim vs the World Watchmen The Losers and Creepshow Dru Jeffries offers a new and more cogent definition of the comic book film as a stylistic approach rather than a genre repositioning the study of comic book films from adaptation and genre studies to formal stylistic analysis He discusses how comic book films appropriate comics drawn imagery vandalize the fourth wall with the use of graphic text dissect the film frame into discrete panels and treat time as a flexible construct rather than a fixed flow among other things This cinematic remediation of comic books formal structure and unique visual conventions Jeffries asserts fundamentally challenges the classical continuity paradigm and its contemporary variants placing the comic book film at the forefront of stylistic experimentation in post classical Hollywood Paperback Talk Ray Walters,1985 This book draws on Ray Walters column Paperback Talk which ran in the New York Times Book Review from 1939 to 1984 It provides an invaluable account of how the trade is carried on by writers agents editors sales and promotion people wholesalers distributors and booksellers and readers Writing Talk Alex Hamilton,2012 In his long career in literary journalism Alex Hamilton has probably met and talked in depth to more of our great writers than anyone else from the most critically acclaimed to the most hard nosed bestsellers from novelists to cartoonists and in every genre from Thrillers and Whodunnits to Short Stories from Poetry to Science Fiction This selection from a life s work gives us a stimulating and rare insight into the minds and lives of some of the most fascinating creators of our modern culture It s a book that contains many surprises in the revelations given by some of the authors about their struggles and victories the serious or humorous commitments made by them and their addiction to the kind of fiction they like to write The reader will soon realise that no two of these eighty five featured authors such as Kurt Vonnegut Angela Carter Stephen King Daphne du Maurier Ian McEwan Jorge Luis Borges Graham Greene or Margaret Atwood are alike Splendidly informative and serious Writing Talk is also often very funny a book to dip into as the mood takes or to dive into hungrily It will appeal to those with a passion for books and for the people who have written them I ve been fortunate to talk to so many marvellous writers Gathering some of these conversations into a book rather than their brief life in a daily newspaper offers a chance for readers to share my pleasure and to introduce a new generation to some past greats says Alex Hamilton behind his reason to create Writing Talk

Or wished you could sit down and pick the brains of the people whose stories have been adapted or the screenwriters producers and directors who adapted them? Author John Robert Marlow has done it for you. He spoke to book authors playwrights comic book creators and publishers as well as Hollywood screenwriters producers and directors responsible for adapting fictional and true stories into Emmy winning TV shows Oscar winning films billion dollar megahits and smaller independents. Then he talked to the entertainment attorneys who made the deals. He came away with a unique understanding of adaptations an understanding he shares in this book which stories make good source material and why what Hollywood wants and doesn't what you can and can't get in a movie deal how to write and pitch your story to maximize the chances of a Hollywood adaptation and how much and when you can expect to be paid. This book contains the distilled experience of creators storytellers and others whose works have earned over 50 billion worldwide. Whether you're looking to sell film rights adapt your own story alone or with help or option and adapt someone else's property this book is for you. Halliwell's Horizon (paperback) Michael Binder, 2011-07-01 The first full biography of the film encyclopaedist and television impresario Leslie Halliwell who in 1965 compiled The Filmgoer's Companion the first one volume reference book devoted to all aspects of the cinema. In his capacity as chief buyer for the ITV network Halliwell was further responsible for bringing to British television screens some of the most popular films and shows of the 1970s and 80s including The Six Million Dollar Man Charlie's Angels The Winds of War Jaws Star Wars and the James Bond movies. His promotion of the cinema through his books and seasons of golden oldies on Channel 4 won him awards from the London Film Critics Circle and the British Film Institute as well as a posthumous BAFTA. Film historian Jeffrey Richards said of Halliwell's Horizon 'I enjoyed it enormously. It combines exhaustive research with critical insight and affectionate regard bringing Halliwell and his work to vivid life.' Book World, 1968 The Complete Films of Alfred Hitchcock Robert A. Harris, Michael S. Lasky, 2002 A tribute to the undisputed master of terror and suspense and the visionary who revolutionised the art of filmmaking this book covers everything from his 1922 silent film The Pleasure Garden to his final 1976 film Family Plot including such masterpieces as Vertigo Psycho Rear Window and The Birds and the years of his popular television show Alfred Hitchcock Presents. Complete with 450 b/w stills from his many films and a text that examines the background of each production this is the ultimate portrait of the movie genius in all his cinematic glory. The Economist, 1991 The Great Movie Musical Trivia Book, 1996 How much did Munchkins get paid? What great cultural institution stands on the site where West Side Story was filmed? Who was first considered for the role of Mary Poppins? The Great Movie Musical Trivia Book spins out revelation after revelation with entertaining answers to intriguing questions that will test the wits of even the most die hard musical fan.

Movie Roadshows Kim R. Holston, 2013-01-01 This work examines a film distribution system paralleling the rise of early features and persisting until 1972 when Man of La Mancha was the final roadshow to require reserved seating. Synonymous with Hollywood's star-studded premieres, roadshows were longer and cost more than regular features, making the experience similar to attending the legitimate theater. Roadshows often epic in subject matter, played selected, usually only one theaters in major urban centers until demand decreased. By the 1960s, they were musical overtures, intermissions, entre acte, and exit music, and souvenir programs for sale in the lobby. Throughout the text are recollections by people who attended roadshows, including actor John Kerr and actresses Barbara Eden and Ingrid Pitt. The focus is on roadshows released in the United States, but an appendix identifies international roadshows and films forecast but not released as roadshows. Included are plots, contemporary critical reaction, premiere dates, production background, and methods of promotion, i.e. the ballyhoo.
