years Using letters diaries and newspaper reports Jim Blanchard brings us into the homes and public offices of Winnipeg and its citizens to illustrate the profound effect the war had on every aspect of the city from its politics and economy to its men on the battlefield and its war weary families fighting on the home front We witness the emergence of the city s social welfare services through the work of women s volunteer organizations the political scandals that led to the fall of the Rodmond Roblin government and the clash between independent jitneys and the city s private transit company And we hear the conflicted emotions that echoed in the city s streets from anti foreign sentiment and labour unrest to patriotic parades and a spontaneous Victory Day celebration that refused to end Through these stories Blanchard reveals how these crucial years set the stage for the decades ahead and how the First World War transformed Winnipeg into the city it is today View From Rome Pellegrino Stagni, John E. Hinthier, 2018-02-05 In Perogies and Politics Rhonda Hinthier explores the twentieth century history of the Ukrainian left in Canada from the standpoint of the women men and children who formed and fostered it For twentieth century leftist Ukrainians culture and politics were inextricably linked The interaction of Ukrainian socio cultural identity with Marxist Leninism resulted in one of the most dynamic national working class movements Canada has ever known The Ukrainian left s success lay in its ability to meet the needs of and speak in meaningful respectful and empowering ways to its supporters experiences and interests as individuals and as members of a distinct immigrant working class community This offered to Ukrainians a radical social cultural and political alternative to the fledgling Ukrainian churches and right wing Ukrainian nationalist movements Hinthier s colourful and in depth work reveals how left wing Ukrainians were affected by changing social economic and political forces and how they in turn responded to and challenged these forces Official Report of Debates, House of Commons Canada.
