Australian Cultural Studies John Frow, Meaghan Morris, 1993 Cultural studies has emerged as a major force in the analysis of cultural systems and their relation to social power Rather than being interested in television or architecture or pinball machines themselves as industrial or aesthetic structures cultural studies tends to be interested in the way such apparatuses work as points of concentration of social meaning as media literally according to John Frow and Meaghan Morris Here two of Australia's leading cultural critics bring together work that represents a distinctive national tradition moving between high theory and detailed readings of localized cultural practices Ethnographic audience research cultural policy studies popular consumption bad aboriginal art landscape in feature films style form and history in TV miniseries and the intersections of tourism with history and memory these are among the topics addressed in a landmark volume that cuts across myriad traditional disciplines

Portable Prose Jarrad Cogle, N. Cyril Fischer, Lydia Saleh Rofail, Vanessa Smith, 2018-11-09 Portable Prose The Novel and the Everyday examines the novel as a privileged site for representing the everyday as well as a physical object that occupies public and private space This collection interrogates the relationships between these differing aspects of the novel's existence negotiating the boundaries between the material world subjective experience and strategies of representation This collection offers a wide array of innovative novelistic explorations with a focus ranging from nineteenth century fiction to contemporary literary theory and explores the portability of novels as both physical things and virtual hermeneutic devices While mimetic qualities of prose remain an integral consideration for literary interpretation this collection argues for more diverse frameworks ones that see aesthetic components of the novel in close connection with reading practices shared structures of feeling and the corporeal In this capacity this volume will argue for readings of texts that consider the capacity for literary culture to move through the world but also to make it or re make it new
