The Role of Secular Values Charles Hampden-Turner,Peter Peverelli,Fons Trompenaars,2021-06-21 The rise of China will profoundly change the world and the rest of us now have a chance to understand how and why this is happening or continue to moralise about this disaster thought to harm our way of life What is especially galling is that the Chinese appear better able to create wealth and value than the West Even in the midst of political denunciations more and more businesses are profitably engaging China We have to face the fact that China excels at what we are supposed to admire the peaceful creation of wealth It even withstands the current pandemic several hundred times more successfully than we have The answers to China s success lie not in communism but in Chinese civilization and culture which is 22 centuries old and extends to most of East Asia and has traded peacefully since Roman times This is a book about measured business cultures East and West and explains using largely Western scholarship why China is winning and will continue to do so unless and until we wake up

65,000 Years: A Short History of Australian Art Marcia Langton, Judith Ryan, 2024-10-15. 65,000 Years: A Short History of Australian Art stares into the dark heart of Australia's brutal colonial history and offers new insights into the first art of this country. Long before Britain's invasion of Australia in 1788, First Peoples' cultural and design traditions flourished for thousands of generations. Their art shaped the continent as we know it today and the societies that thrived here, but these continuing artistic practices and new art forms were disregarded by the settlers and not considered to be fine art until the late 1980s. In this publication, twenty-five writers urge us to reconsider the art history that is unique to the Australian continent and to acknowledge its rise to prominence in modern times. Featuring new writing by leading thinkers across generations and disciplines, it celebrates Indigenous Australian art across media, time, and language groups. Today, Indigenous art and artists are at the forefront of contemporary art practice. In very real and tangible ways, this publication reveals the artistic brilliance of Australia's First Peoples and stands as a testament to their resilience. This book is published in association with a major exhibition at the University of Melbourne's revitalised Potter Museum of Art, opening in 2025. Also titled 65,000 Years: A Short History of Australian Art, the exhibition, curated by Professor Marcia Langton AO, Ms Judith Ryan AM, and Ms Shanysa McConville, features over 400 artworks that celebrate the longevity and brilliance of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander art despite a difficult history of colonialism and scientific racism.

Material Culture of the Bible Ferdinand Deist, 2000-07-01. Scholarly discussions of biblical interpretation often ignore the fact that language and literature form an integral part of a people's culture; that interpretation therefore implies the total cultural system of the relevant literature; and that biblical interpretation consequently implies inter-cultural communication. This book explores the theoretical and practical implications of this observation from a cultural anthropological perspective. It looks at recent anthropological studies of ancient Israelite society, supplies practical examples of a cultural interpretation of ancient Hebrew narratives, and discusses the impact of the notions of cultural relativity and inter-cultural communication for biblical interpretation.
