Specifying Black Women Writing The American Experience:

Specifying Susan Willis, 1987 Focusing on Zola Neale Hurston Paule Marshall Toni Morrison Alice Walker and Toni Cade Bambara this book explores both the ways in which black women's fictions have been shaped by the history of the United States and the ways in which they intervene in that history She sees the transition from an agrarian to an urban society as the critical moment of that history and argues that writings by black women articulate that change in their content as well as form ISBN 0 299 10890 2 19 95

Everyday Use Alice Walker, 1994 Presents the text of Alice Walker's story Everyday Use contains background essays that provide insight into the story and features a selection of critical response Includes a chronology and an interview with the author

The Cambridge Companion to African American Women's Literature Angelyn Mitchell, Danille K. Taylor, 2009-04-30 The Cambridge Companion to African American Women's Literature covers a period dating back to the eighteenth century These specially commissioned essays highlight the artistry complexity and diversity of a literary tradition that ranges from Lucy Terry to Toni Morrison A wide range of topics are addressed from the Harlem Renaissance to the Black Arts Movement and from the performing arts to popular fiction Together the essays provide an invaluable guide to a rich complex tradition of women writers in conversation with each other as they critique American society and influence American letters Accessible and vibrant with the needs of undergraduate students in mind this Companion will be of great interest to anybody who wishes to gain a deeper understanding of this important and vital area of American literature

Literary Theory: The Basics Hans Bertens, 2017-07-14 This third edition of Hans Bertens bestselling book is an essential guide to the often confusing and complicated world of literary theory Exploring a broad range of topics from Marxist and feminist criticism to postmodernism and new historicism Literary Theory The Basics covers contemporary topics including reception theory and reader response theory the new criticism of postmodernism the after theory debate post humanism biopolitics and animal studies aesthetics Literary Theory The Basics helps readers to approach the many theories and debates in this field with confidence Now with updated case studies and further reading this is an essential purchase for anyone who strives to understand literary theory today

Literary Theory Johannes Willem Bertens, 2001 Providing the ideal first step in understanding the often bewildering world of literary theory this text is an easy to follow and clearly presented introduction to this fascinating area

Crossroads in the Black Aegean Barbara Goff, Michael Simpson, 2007-11-15 Crossroads in the Black Aegean is a compendious timely and fascinating study of African rewritings of Greek tragedy It consists of detailed readings of six dramas and one epic poem from different locations across the African diaspora Barbara Goff and Michael Simpson ask why the plays of Sophocles Theban Cycle figure so prominently among the tragedies adapted by dramatists of African descent and how plays that dilate on the power of the past in the inexorable curse of Oedipus and the regressive obsession of Antigone can articulate the postcolonial moment Capitalizing on classical reception studies postcolonial studies and comparative literature Crossroads in the Black Aegean co ordinates theory and theatre It crucially investigates how the plays engage with the Western canon and shows how they use their self consciously literary status to assert ironize and challenge their own place and that of the Greek originals in relation to that tradition Beyond these oedipal reflexes the adaptations offer alternative African models of cultural transmission     Shifting the Ground Rachel Stein,1997 From a perspective of ecofeminist theory author Rachel Stein suggests that selected writings by Emily Dickinson Zora Neale Hurston Alice Walker and Leslie Marmon Silko metaphorically revise American concepts of nature gender and race Stein shows that by reinterpreting nature these writers transform their characters from social objects into self empowered subjects     Female Subjects in Black and White Elizabeth Abel,Barbara Christian,Helene Moglen,2023-09-01 This landmark collaboration between African American and white feminists goes to the heart of problems that have troubled feminist thinking for decades Putting the racial dynamics of feminist interpretation center stage these essays question such issues as the primacy of sexual difference the universal nature of psychoanalytic categories and the role of race in the formation of identity They offer new ways of approaching African American texts and reframe our thinking about the contexts discourses and traditions of the American cultural landscape Calling for the racialization of whiteness and claiming that psychoanalytic theory should make room for competing discourses of spirituality and diasporic consciousness these essays give shape to the many stubborn incompatibilities as well as the transformative possibilities between white feminist and African American cultural formations Bringing into conversation a range of psychoanalytic feminist and African derived spiritual perspectives these essays enact an inclusive politics of reading Often explosive and always provocative Female Subjects in Black and White models a new cross racial feminism This landmark collaboration between African American and white feminists goes to the heart of problems that have troubled feminist thinking for decades Putting the racial dynamics of feminist interpretation center stage these essays question such issues     Alice Walker Maria Lauret,2011-02-01 Alice Walker Pulitzer Prize winning author of The Color Purple is one of America s major and most prolific writers She is also among its most controversial How has Walker s work developed over the last forty years Why has it often provoked extreme reactions Does Walker s cultural political and spiritual activism enhance or distort her fiction Where does she belong in the evolving tradition of African American literature Alice Walker second edition examines the full range of Walker s prose writings her novels short stories essays activist writings speeches and memoirs has been thoroughly revised in the light of the latest scholarship and critical developments brings coverage of Walker s work right up to date with a new chapter on Now is the Time to Open Your Heart 2004 and discussion of her recent non fictional writing including Overcoming Speechlessness 2010 traces Walker s lineage back to nineteenth century visionary black women preachers and activists assesses Walkers prose oeuvre both in terms of its literary and its activist merits and shortcomings Ideal for students and scholars alike this established text remains an essential guide to the work of a key US author as it explains her unique place in contemporary American letters     Toni Morrison Jill Matus,2024-07-30 An illuminating study of one of the best selling

most widely studied black authors today Explains Morrison's relation to the American civil rights and Black Consciousness movements Places Morrison in a political and historical context The Coupling Convention : Sex, Text, and Tradition in Black Women's Fiction Ann duCille Associate Professor of English and African American Studies Wesleyan University, 1993-10-19 What does the tradition of marriage mean for people who have historically been deprived of its legal status Generally thought of as a convention of the white middle class the marriage plot has received little attention from critics of African American literature In this study Ann duCille uses texts such as Nella Larsen's Quicksand 1928 and Zora Neale Hurston's Their Eyes Were Watching God 1937 to demonstrate that the African American novel like its European and Anglo American counterparts has developed around the marriage plot what she calls the coupling convention Exploring the relationship between racial ideology and literary and social conventions duCille uses the coupling convention to trace the historical development of the African American women's novel She demonstrates the ways in which black women appropriated this novelistic device as a means of expressing and reclaiming their own identity More than just a study of the marriage tradition in black women's fiction however The Coupling Convention takes up and takes on many different meanings of tradition It challenges the notion of a single black literary tradition or of a single black feminist literary canon grounded in specifically black female language and experience as it explores the ways in which white and black male and female mainstream and marginalized traditions and canons have influenced and cross fertilized each other Much more than a period study The Coupling Convention spans the period from 1853 to 1948 addressing the vital questions of gender subjectivity race and the canon that inform literary study today In this original work duCille offers a new paradigm for reading black women's fiction

Rewriting Black Identities Rebecca Ferguson, 2007 Topics include Complexity and Continuity Transition Exclusion and Illusion The Use of an Eye Fragmentation and Reconstruction Shifting Foundations Living History and more

Imagine the Sound Carter Mathes, 2015-03-20 The post Civil Rights era was marked by an explosion of black political thought and aesthetics Reflecting a shifting horizon of expectations around race relations the unconventional sounds of free jazz coupled with experimental literary creation nuanced the push toward racial equality and enriched the possibilities for aesthetic innovation within the Black Arts Movement In Imagine the Sound Carter Mathes demonstrates how African American writers used sound to further artistic resistance within a rapidly transforming political and racial landscape While many have noted the oral and musical qualities of African American poetry from the post Civil Rights period Mathes points out how the political implications of dissonance vibration and resonance produced in essays short stories and novels animated the ongoing struggle for equality Situating literary works by Henry Dumas Larry Neal and Toni Cade Bambara in relation to the expansive ideas of sound proposed by free jazz musicians such as Marion Brown and Sun Ra not only does this book illustrate how the presence of sound can be heard and read as political but it recuperates critically neglected yet important writers and musicians Ultimately Mathes details how attempts to capture and render sound through the medium of writing enable writers to envision alternate realities and resistance outside of the linear frameworks offered by the Civil Rights and Black Power movements In precise and elegant prose Mathes shows how in conceptualizing sound African American writers opened up the political imaginations of their readers By exploring this intellectual convergence of literary artistry experimental music and sound theory Imagine the Sound reveals how taking up radically new forms of expression allows us to speak to the complexities of race and political resistance The Significance of Sibling Relationships in Literature JoAnna Stephens Mink, Janet Doubler Ward, 1993 If one does not have them one is compelled to acknowledge and react to their non existence Folk Roots and Mythic Wings in Sarah Orne Jewett and Toni Morrison Marilyn Sanders Mobley, 1994-08-01 As women of different eras cultural backgrounds racial identities and places of origin Sarah Orne Jewett and Toni Morrison would appear to have little in common But in her study of these two seemingly dissimilar writers Marilyn Sanders Mobley finds elements that unite their fictional concerns Mobley argues that a folk aesthetic gives structure and meaning to Jewett s and Morrison s work and that a mythic impulse informs their ability to depict people and values that the dominant American culture has traditionally neglected Through close readings of Jewett s Deephaven A White Heron and The Country of Pointed Firs and of Morrison s Song of Solomon Tar Baby and Beloved she demonstrates that the fiction of both writers attempts to preserve and affirm cultural difference cultural knowledge and cultural memory Mobley s carefully argued study simultaneously offers important new insights into the works of two significant women writers and points out ways in which narrative may be used as a catalyst for cultural and social change

Approaches to Teaching the Works of Edwidge Danticat Celucien Joseph, Suchismita Banerjee, Marvin Hobson, Danny Hoey, Jr., 2019-09-20 Providing an intellectual interpretation to the work of Edwidge Danticat this new edited collection provides a pedagogical approach to teach and interpret her body of work in undergraduate and graduate classrooms Approaches to Teaching the Works of Edwidge Danticat starts out by exploring diasporic categories and postcolonial themes such as gender constructs cultural nationalism cultural and communal identity and moves to investigate Danticat s human rights activism the immigrant experience the relationship between the particular and the universal and the violence of hegemony and imperialism in relationship with society family and community The Editors of the collection have carefully compiled works that show how Danticat s writings may help in building more compassionate and relational human communities that are grounded on the imperative of human dignity respect inclusion and peace The Erotics of Talk Carla Kaplan, 1996 African American women s texts she demonstrates often dramatize their distrust of their readers their lack of faith in the cultural conversation through strategies of self silencing and self talk At the same time she argues the homoerotics of women s writing has too often gone unremarked Not only does longing for an ideal listener draw women s texts into a romance with the reader but there is an erotic excess which is part of feminist critical recuperation itself

"Who Set You Flowin'?" Farah Jasmine Griffin, 1996-09-26 Twentieth century America has witnessed the most widespread and sustained movement of African Americans from the South to urban centers in the North Who Set You Flowin examines the impact of this dislocation and urbanization identifying the resulting Migration Narratives as a major genre in African American cultural production Griffin takes an interdisciplinary approach with readings of several literary texts migrant correspondence painting photography rap music blues and rhythm and blues From these various sources Griffin isolates the tropes of Ancestor Stranger and Safe Space which though common to all Migration Narratives vary in their portrayal She argues that the emergence of a dominant portrayal of these tropes is the product of the historical and political moment often challenged by alternative portrayals in other texts or artistic forms as well as intra textually Richard Wright s bleak yet cosmopolitan portraits were countered by Dorothy West s longing for Black Southern communities Ralph Ellison while continuing Wright s vision reexamined the significance of Black Southern culture Griffin concludes with Toni Morrison embracing the South as a site of African American history and culture a place to be redeemed Black Women Novelists

and the Nationalist Aesthetic Madhu Dubey,1994-05-22 Focus on the works of Toni Morrison Gaye Jones and Alice Walker

Invisibility Blues Michele Wallace,2016-11-08 First published in 1990 Michele Wallace s Invisibility Blues is widely regarded as a landmark in the history of black feminism Wallace s considerations of the black experience in America include recollections of her early life in Harlem a look at the continued underrepresentation of black voices in politics media and culture and the legacy of such figures as Zora Neale Hurston Toni Cade Bambara Toni Morrison and Alice Walker Wallace addresses the tensions between race gender and society bringing them into the open with a singular mix of literary virtuosity and scholarly rigor Invisibility Blues challenges and informs with the plain spoken truth that has made it an acknowledged classic
