All Kinds of Scary Jonina Anderson-Lopez, 2023-06-12 Horror fiction in literature film and television display a wealth of potential and appeal to diverse audiences The trope of the black man always dies first still however haunts the genre This book focuses on the latest cycle of diversity in horror fiction starting with the release of Get Out in 2017 which inspired a new speculative turn for the genre Using various critical frameworks like feminism and colonialism the book also assesses diversity gaps in horror fictions with an emphasis on marketing and storytelling methodology Reviewing the canon and definitions of horror may point to influences for future implications of diversity which has cyclically manifested in horror fictions throughout history This book studies works from literature film and television while acknowledging that each of the formats are distinct artforms that complement each other The author compares diverse representation in novels like The Castle of Otranto Frankenstein Fledgling Broken Monsters and Mexican Gothic Horror films like Bride of Frankenstein It Comes at Night Us and Get Out are also examined Lastly the author emphasizes the diverse horror fictions in television like The Exorcist Fear the Walking Dead The Twilight Zone and Castle Rock The Bloomsbury Handbook to Ageing in Contemporary Literature and Film Sarah Falcus, Heike Hartung, Raquel Medina, 2023-06-29 Across more than 30 chapters spanning migration queerness and climate change this handbook captures how the interdisciplinary and intersectional endeavor of Age ing studies has shaped contemporary literary and film studies In the early 21st century the literary study of age and ageing in its cultural context has come of age it has come to supplement and challenge a public discourse on ageing seen mainly as a political and demographic problem in many countries of the world Following a tripartite structure it looks first at literary and film genres and how they have been shaped by knowledge about age and ageing incorporating both narrative genres as well as poetry drama and imagery The second section includes chapters on key themes and concepts in Age ing Studies with examples from film and literature The third section brings together case studies focussing on individual artists national traditions and global ageing Containing original contributions by pioneers in the field as well as new scholars from across the globe it brings together current scholarship on ageing in literary and film studies and offers new directions and perspectives Anime and Manga , Anime and Manga Recognized Articles , Science Fiction Roger Luckhurst, 2005-05-06 In this new and timely cultural history of science fiction Roger Luckhurst examines the genre from its origins in the late nineteenth century to its latest manifestations The book introduces and explicates major works of science fiction literature by placing them in a series of contexts using the history of science and technology political and economic history and cultural theory to develop the means for understanding the unique qualities of the genre Luckhurst reads science fiction as a literature of modernity His astute analysis examines how the genre provides a constantly modulating record of how human embodiment is transformed by scientific and technological change and how the very sense of self is imaginatively recomposed in popular fictions that range from utopian possibility to Gothic terror This highly readable study charts the overlapping yet distinct histories of British and American science fiction with commentary on the central authors magazines movements and texts from 1880 to the present day It will be an invaluable guide and resource for all students taking courses on science fiction technoculture and popular literature but will equally be fascinating for anyone who has ever enjoyed a science fiction book British Science Fiction Film and Television Tobias Hochscherf, James Leggott, Donald E. Palumbo, 2014-01-10 Written by international experts from a range of disciplines these essays examine the uniquely British contribution to science fiction film and television Viewing British SF as a cultural phenomenon that challenges straightforward definitions of genre nationhood authorship and media the editors provide a conceptual introduction placing the essays within their critical context Essay topics include Hammer science fiction films the various incarnations of Doctor Who Stanley Kubrick's A Clockwork Orange and such 21st century productions as 28 Days Later and Torchwood New Directions in Popular Fiction Ken Gelder, 2016-11-21 This book brings together new contributions in Popular Fiction Studies giving us a vivid sense of new directions in analysis and focus It looks into the histories of popular genres such as the amatory novel imperial romance the western Australian detective fiction Whitechapel Gothic novels the British spy thriller Japanese mysteries the new weird fantasy girl hero action novels and Quebecois science fiction It also examines the production reproduction and distribution of popular fiction as it carves out space for itself in transnational marketplaces and across different media entertainment systems and it discusses the careers of popular authors and the various investments in popular fiction by readers and fans This book will be indispensable for anyone with a serious interest in this prolific but highly distinctive literary field Science Fact and Science Fiction Brian M.
