Lost Land of the Dodo Anthony Cheke, Julian P. Hume, 2009-01-01 The Mascarene islands in the southern Indian Ocean Mauritius R union and Rodrigues were once home to an extraordinary range of birds and reptiles Evolving on these isolated volcanic islands in the absence of mammalian predators or competitors the land was dominated by giant tortoises parrots skinks and geckos burrowing boas flightless rails the birds and tortoises were slaughtered indiscriminately while introduced rats cats pigs and monkeys destroyed their eggs the once extensive forests logged and invasive introduced plants from all over the tropics devastated the ecosystem The now familiar icon of extinction the Dodo was gone from Mauritius within 50 years of human settlement and over the next 150 years many of the Mascarenes other native vertebrates followed suit The product of over 30 years research by Anthony Cheke Lost Land of the Dodo provides a comprehensive yet hugely enjoyable account of the story of the islands changing ecology interspersed with human stories the islands biogeographical anomalies and much else Many French publications old and new especially for R union are discussed and referenced in English for the first time The book is richly illustrated with maps and contemporary illustrations of the animals and their environment many of which have rarely been reprinted before Illustrated box texts look in detail at each extinct vertebrate species while Julian Hume s superb colour plates bring many of the extinct birds to life Lost Land of the Dodo provides the definitive account of this tragic yet remarkable fauna and is a must read for anyone interested in islands their ecology and the history of our relationship with the world around us

The city guide for Vacoas (Mauritius) YouGuide Ltd, The Traveler's Handbook Caroline Brandenburger, 1994 This book is the quintessential traveler s companion and the ultimate resource for what you need to know to go anywhere Islands Magazine , 1999-07

A Traveller's History of Italy Valerio Lintner, 2003-09 Linter presents a compact portrait of Italy from prehistory to the present Illustrations Maps Dodo Alan Grihault, 2005 It took less than a hundred years of human influence in Mauritius to wipe out the Dodo The delicate balance of nature was suddenly tipped and became a threat to the survival of the Dodo which had reigned supreme on this island for thousands of years For nearly two hundred years after its extinction the Dodo was forgotten and there were some doubts as to whether it actually lived at all It seemed that these strange birds had only been part of the imagination and exaggeration of sailors Today the once remote island of Mauritius is home top over a million people of European African Indian and Chinese origin It can boast of being one of the most stable democratic countries in the world and it is host to thousands of tourists who find shops full of Dodos in many forms shapes and sizes Yet there is an unfortunate lack of information about this island s unique national icon This book allows the reader to examine various eyewitness writings drawings paintings and skeletal remains which depict the Dodo as it actually was and helps us to understand how it was driven to extinction It also traces what happened after the final demise of the bird and how worldwide evidence was pieced together to provide a reasonable idea of how the Dodo lived and died Back cover New York City for Families Larry Lain,2002 New York City for Families includes everything a family needs to know to become temporary New Yorkers This guide can help readers find affordable travel accommodations for less delicious and inexpensive meals and reveal how to get around the Big Apple with ease Illustrations Paris for Families Larry Lain,2000-01-04 Paris for Families is your guide for the most memorable family holiday of your life every thing you need to know about making the most of your money finding a home away from home in the city and putting together an itinerary that is both practical and fun
