Speculation And Revelation:

From Speculation to Revelation Bishop Donmaid Brooks,2014-01 From Speculation To Revelation is a literary work explaining the Bible and it is second to none After reading this book you will ask how did I not know this After all I have been in church all my life or I attended the best theology school I ve been a preacher pastor bishop Bible teacher etc all these years Why And where was the truth hidden from me What you will discover is God gives revelation of the Scriptures not man Bishop Brooks an ex con man a jailhouse resident you could say He became hungry for God and His truth while incarcerated He had heard all the speculations about what God said and he wanted truth he asked God and God gave him the revelation One may ask why did God give such a revelation to a man of his caliber His work verifies that God is just and He gives to those who ask no matter who Great Theologians are stunned by his work but yet they agree This book removes all confusion for the new baby Christian about what denomination holds the truth Know that only God can reveal truth to you The author tears down speculations and fills the empty space with revelations such as The reason why God respected Abel s offering and did not respect Cain s offering Showing how there are no contradictions in the Bible Proving that the New Covenant New Testament did not start in Matthew Showing who the twelve apostles gospel was really for and so much more This book will certainly cause you to revisit the scriptures and to ask God for a clear revelation You will no longer be content just sucking in what others have to say no matter who

Exile and Restoration in Jewish Thought Ralph Keen,2009-09-24 Exile and Restoration in Jewish Thought presents the history of an idea originating at the intersection of Judaic piety and the social history of the Jews faith in a protective sovereign deity amid contrary conditions Exiled primordially Eden during the Patriarchal era in the sixth century bce and from the first century to the twentieth the Jewish experience of alienation has been the historical backdrop against which affirmations of divine benevolence have been constructed While histories of Jewish thought have tended to accentuate the speculative creativity of medieval and modern Jewish philosophers the intellectual tradition can come into focus only with attention to these thinkers understanding of diaspora and persecution Ralph Keen describes the distinguishing feature of Jewish thought as a religious hermeneutic in which the primitive promise made to Abraham is preserved not just as a pious memory but as a certain hope for eventual restoration Intended for readers with some familiarity with the history of philosophy this book offers the historical context necessary for understanding the distinctively Judaic character of this tradition of thought and elucidates the role of religious experience in the long process of negotiating between adversity and expectation

The Old and the New: Churching a Secular Age from Solovyóv to Bulgakov Michael Lee

Miller,2025-03-25 In the midst of exile from his native Russia in the mid 1930s Fr Sergii Bulgakov identified his basic aspiration as an Orthodox theologian to be a positive overcoming of Modernity in fact a continuation of the efforts of his great 19th century inspiration Vladimir Solovyov to reconstruct Christian thought and culture in the face of the unprecedented challenges posed by the Enlightenment and the era of revolutionary upheaval But Bulgakov's theological vision also involves a distinctive revision of Solovyov's programme whose residual Hegelianism continually threatens to level out speculative reason and mystagogical faith progress in history and the Kingdom not of this World Bulgakov refuses any such levelling instead he consummates the apocalyptic turn Solovyov had already commenced in the years immediately preceding his premature death in 1900 The resulting preference for the paradox of antinomy over the closure of dialectic comes to light in relation to four themes running through Bulgakov's thinking in the decades falling between his rejection of Marxism and the commencement of his mature systematic theological work in the 1930s history work knowledge and power

Irony of Theology and the Nature of Religious Thought Donald Wiebe,1991 Donald Wiebe critically examines the pervasive assumption that theology is a form of religious thought that is both compatible with and supportive of religious faith The irony he argues is that theology is in fact detrimental to religion and the religious way of life

Community in Islamic Thought Ovamir Anjum,2012-03-19 This revisionist account of the history of Islamic political thought from the early to the late medieval period focuses on Ibn Taymiyya one of the most brilliant theologians of his day This original study demonstrates how his influence shed new light on the entire trajectory of Islamic political thought Although he did not reject the Caliphate ideal as is commonly believed he nevertheless radically redefined it by turning it into a rational political institution intended to serve the community umma Through creative reinterpretation he deployed the Qur'anic concept of fitra divinely endowed human nature to centre the community of believers and its common sense reading of revelation as the highest epistemic authority In this way he subverted the elitism that had become ensconced in classical theological legal and spiritual doctrines and tried to revive the ethico political rather than strictly legal dimension of Islam In reassessing Ibn Taymiyya's work this book marks a major departure from traditional interpretations of medieval Islamic thought

,1890    ...Turned Unto Fables... Rev. R. Carlton Ballowe,2012-08-16 We have reached the point the Apostle Paul warned about For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers having itching ears And they shall turn away their ears from the truth and shall be turned unto fables Technological advances gave us mass media modern transportation and televangelism Finally churchgoers didnt have to wait for the itinerant preacher or attend the closest church They could easily drive by several churches on their way to the one of their choice or even take in church from their own living room by way of a televangelist Consequently churches found themselves in intense competition for supporters to fill the pews and coffers Just as in the corporate world market share depends on ones ability to offer a product that is more appealing than the one offered by the competition This resulted in established doctrines being compromised and or new ones being invented all for the sake of appeal When we allow appeal to systematically influence the formulation of doctrine it doesnt just invite error it invites evil Sound doctrine devolves into the doctrines of devils That is where much of the church finds itself today the blind are leading the blind in promoting the doctrines of devils and paving the way for the Antichrist Even him whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish because they received not the love of the truth that they might be saved And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion that they should believe a lie That they all might be damned who believed not the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness This book holds some of the basic doctrines of the church up to the light of Gods Word so the reader can decide if they are fables the doctrines of devils or truth   Speculation and Revelation in the History of Philosophy Kroner, Richard, 1884,1961   Saadya Gaon

Gyongyi (Ginger) Hegedus,2013-07-11 In Saadya Gaon The Double Path of the Mystic and the Rationalist Gyongyi Hegedus offers a new perspective on the thought of the most significant medieval Jewish thinker of the pre Maimonidean era Saadya Gaon Saadya's important philosophical works belong to two distinct traditions his main work is written in the style of rationalist theology kalam but he is also responsible for composing a commentary in a neo Pythagorean tone In addition to contextualizing the two traditions and analyzing their Islamic parallels the book makes the argument that Saadya consciously constructed a two layered model of thought and harmonized two styles one based on sensation and logic the other on a specific prophetic insight
