Chandavarkar, Kt* Sir Narayen Ganesh Chandavarkar, 1911 The Theosophist, 1922 Rewriting History Uma Chakravarti, 2014-10-27 In this classic study of Pandita Ramabai's life Uma Chakravarti brings to light one of the foremost thinkers of nineteenth century India and one of its earliest feminists A scholar and an eloquent speaker Ramabai was no stranger to controversy Her critique of Brahminical patriarchy was in sharp contrast to Annie Besant who championed the cause of Hindu society And in an act seen by contemporary Hindu society as a betrayal not only of her religion but of her nation Ramabai herself a high caste Hindu widow chose to convert to Christianity Chakravarti's book stands out as one of the most important critiques of gender and power relations in colonial India with particular emphasis on issues of class and caste Published by Zubaan
Tradition and Liberation Catherine A Robinson, 2018-10-24 The text examines the role of the Hindu tradition in the ideology and methodology of the Indian women's movement By showing how leaders of the movement have restated aspects of the tradition it provides insight into the ways in which a women's movement can restate a religious tradition Throughout Indian society religion has been central to debate about the position of women and opposition to the women's movement has often been rationalised in terms of religion Through a review of the speeches and writings of leading figures of the movement from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries it identifies positive as well as negative representations of the tradition and its implications for women It shows when and why the movement has chosen either to offer a traditional justification for its aims and activities or to eschew such a justification in favour of an alternative rationale

Ironies of Colonial Governance James Jaffe, 2015-05-21 The Indian village council or panchayat has long held an iconic place in India. Ironies of Colonial Governance traces the history of that ideal and the attempts to adapt it to colonial governance. Beginning with an in-depth analysis of British attempts to introduce a system of panchayat governance during the early nineteenth century, it analyses the legacies of these actions within the structures of later colonial administrations as well as the early nationalist movement. Particular attention is paid to the ways in which the ideologies of panchayat governance evolved during this period and to the transnational exchange and circulation of panchayat ideologies.

Congress Speeches Annie Besant, 1917 Lineages of the Global City Shibben Banerji, 2025-07-08 The forgotten history of the occult foundations of the early twentieth-century global city. War, revolution, genocide, rebellion, slump. The economic and political turmoil of the early twentieth century seemed destined to rip asunder the ties that bound colonizers and the colonized to one another. The upheaval represented an opportunity, not just to nationalists who imagined new homelands or to socialists who dreamed of international brotherhood. For modernists in the orbit of various occultisms, the crisis of empire also represented an opportunity to reveal humanity's fundamental unity and common fate. Lineages of the Global City recounts a continuous if also contentious transnational exchange among modernists and occultists across the Americas, Europe, South Asia, and Australia between 1905 and 1949. At stake were the feelings and affect of a new global subject who would perceive themselves as belonging to humanity as a unified whole and the urban environment that would foster their subjectivity. The interventions in this debate, which drew in the period's most renowned modernists, took the form of a succession of plans for cities, suburbs, and communes, as well as experiments in building, drawing, printmaking, filmmaking, and writing. Weaving together postcolonial, feminist, and Marxist insight on subject formation, Shibben Banerji advances a new way of understanding modernist urban space as the design of subjective effects. Mental Health Research Institute Staff Publications University of Michigan. Mental Health Research Institute, 1958 Kashinath Trimbak Telang, the Man and His Times Vasant Narayan Naik, 1895
