Both Sides of the Fence Reg Fearman,2014-07-07 Reg Fearman is the man who knows all of speedway s secrets and is prepared to reveal them He has taken a unique full throttle white knuckle ride to the top as an international rider a world class team manager a successful promoter and a formidable administrator He has never ducked a confrontation on or off the speedway track he knows the glamorous and the murky side of a tough fabulously exciting and sometimes cruel sport and he spares no one s blushes not even his own John Chaplin speedway s leading historian From humble origins in London s East End this is the story of how Reg Fearman became a local hero with West Ham the cockney giants of speedway and went on to represent his country first as a rider at the tender age of 17 and then as an international manager A captivating mixture of sporting achievement politics and business and social history it also looks at how speedway was resurrected from the doldrums of the late 1950s and dragged into a new Jet Age golden era a time which paved the way for the heights that the sport has enjoyed in the twenty first century as a global phenomenon Including a plethora of untold truths revelations and a rich treasure trove of photographs Reg lays bare for the first time the sensational inside story of the resurrection of speedway warts and all Dr Brian Belton JP and author

Birthplaces of Australian Motor Racing Bill Pearson,2022-12-16 This book records and now preserves the history of

Australian motorsport Huge proportions of it were just on the very edge of being lost By the time you have read this book you will be unbeatable at Australian motor racing trivia around any race campground fire pit or BBQ You will know what the deadliest day was trackside in this country the speedway promoter who discovered and named one of Australia s biggest international rock groups the most extreme financial car racing venue disaster of all time why many residential roads have names the people who live there don t appreciate and what venue built its own railway station which is still in use today You will discover places worth dragging the family off to so you can take photos of rusting artefacts and sprout knowledgeable but boring nostalgic conversations You ll also be amazed at some of the historic car racing locations you ve unknowingly been driving past How do you locate old car venues when some were utterly demolished 90 years ago an industrial complex built on the same spot which was in turn torn down and replaced with a university a lake or a multi storey housing estate This roll call of mine started out with two simple questions that most petrol heads in this country ask themselves sooner or later How many car racing facilities have closed in Australia and why

The Witness Tom Gilling, 2022-08-02 The fighting had ended but for Sandakan s most notorious prisoner the war was not over That bastard s still alive I m going to kill him with my bare hands POW Bill Moxham At the Australian war crimes trials that followed World War II one prosecution witness stood out Warrant Officer Bill Sticpewich During his three years in the infamous Sandakan POW camp Sticpewich had seen hundreds of fellow prisoners die of starvation sickness and overwork Others were shot or bayoneted to death by Japanese guards on forced marches through the Borneo jungle Of more than 2400 Allied prisoners at Sandakan at the start of 1945 only six survived It was Sticpewich s meticulous evidence that sent Sandakan s commandant and his murderous henchmen to the gallows But to his fellow prisoners Sticpewich was not a war hero he was a collaborator who avoided heavy labour and obtained extra rations by ingratiating himself with the Japanese Was Sticpewich a traitor or a man who did what he needed to stay alive Drawing on wartime records original interviews and the recollections of other survivors The Witness reveals the compelling story of Australia s most notorious POW a dramatic tale of war and survival Sydney Morning Herald The Witness stands alone as the most comprehensive account to date of the Sandakan survivor Bill Sticpewich Gilling has produced a sharp and compelling account of events through the eyes of key witnesses In writing this book Tom Gilling has helped keep the memories of the lost souls of Sandakan alive and for that he has done Australia a great service The Australian A compelling story indeed Australian Defence Magazine a new stark tale stopping you dead in your tracks A dark disturbing and revealing yarn Tom Gilling s book deserved to be read Newcastle Herald a fascinating story Deborah Knight 2GB

The Automobile , 1905 Pioneers & Icons of Australian Motorsport Bill Pearson, 2025-02-21 The author has captured in words and lavish illustrations many of his own that have never been seen before the stories of over one hundred men and women whose personal motor racing journeys paved the way to establish and explode this sport They did so both locally and overseas showing that Aussies were as good as the world s best when it came to not only skill behind the wheel

but also in the design and manufacture of the fastest cars and in organising events of the highest level and regard Most of these names are extremely well known by all Aussie petrol heads household names admired around any backyard barbecue Just the mention of their names brings nods of respect But you will additionally read accounts of some very significant lives and racing achievements you previously knew nothing about and some are quite simply amazing There s our first woman to race commercially overseas Just how she got there is incredible Then you share the exploits of an illegal inter capital record holder who went to New Zealand to break the land speed record the farmers whose sons and grandsons became racing dynasties and the home grown mechanics and car builders whose designs obliterated all competition Strap yourself in and hang on It s gonna be a bloody wild ride      American Motorcyclist ,2002-12 American Motorcyclist magazine the official journal of the American Motorcyclist Associaton tells the stories of the people who make motorcycling the sport that it is It s available monthly to AMA members Become a part of the largest most diverse and most enthusiastic group of riders in the country by visiting our website or calling 800 AMA JOIN      British Sport: a Bibliography to 2000 Richard Cox,2013-12-16 Volume one of a bibliography documenting all that has been written in the English language on the history of sport and physical education in Britain It lists all secondary source material including reference works in a classified order to meet the needs of the sports historian      A New History of Western Australia Tom Stannage,1981 Papers by G C Bolton J E Thomas D Black J Hay M Aveling I M Crawford S J Hallam and N J Green separately annotated      British Film Catalogue Denis Gifford,2016-04-01 First published in 2001 The standard work on its subject this resource includes every traceable British entertainment film from the inception of the silent cinema to the present day Now this new edition includes a wholly original second volume devoted to non fiction and documentary film an area in which the British film industry has particularly excelled All entries throughout this third edition have been revised and coverage has been extended through 1994 Together these two volumes provide a unique authoritative source of information for historians archivists librarians and film scholars      The Politics of Sport Paul Gilchrist,Russell Holden,2013-09-13 Sport is an essential part of community structure membership and identity Whether on the field of play in stadia or on the streets sport has consistently brought together disparate individuals to share culture values and memories Nowadays these relationships are being rewritten through the effects of global socio economic practices the interventions of government the impact of cultural imperialism and at the local level through the actions of individuals and new constituencies that are emerging in response Furthermore this generates discourse on matters of regional and national identity This themed issue presents a range of essays that examine the relationship between sport and society through the conceptual lenses of community mobility and identity Drawing upon insights from contemporary history and current political phenomena from leading academic specialists in the field the issue addresses cross cutting themes such as loyalty and allegiance migration and integration identity and collective memory and the politics of resistance and change which will be of interest to the political scientist the contemporary historian and sport
