Spirit Matters:

Spirit Matters Philip Gabriel, 2006-01-01 Spirit Matters is a ground breaking work the first to explore a broad range of writings on spirituality in contemporary Japanese literature It draws on a variety of literary works from enormously popular fiction Miura Ayako's HyEten and Shirokari Pass and the novels of Murakami Haruki to more problematic serious fiction Ee Kenzaburo's Somersault to nonfiction meditations on martyrdom and miracles Sono Ayako's Kiseki and the dynamics of religious cults Murakami's interviews with members of Aum Shinrikyo in Underground The first half of the volume focuses on the work of two women Christian writers Miura Ayako and Sono Ayako Combining a decidedly evangelistic bent with the formulas of the popular novel Miura's 1964 novel HyEten Freezing Point and its sequel are entertaining perennial bestsellers but also treat spiritual issues like original sin that are largely unexplored in modern Japanese literature Sono's Kiseki Miracles and Miura's Shirokari Pass focus on the meaning of self sacrifice and the miraculous and survey both the paths by which people come to faith and the spiritual doubts that assail them Perhaps most striking for Western readers Gabriel reveals how Miura's novel shows the lingering resistance to Christianity and its oppositional nature in Japan and how in Kiseki Sono considers the kind of spiritual struggles many Japanese Christians experience as they try to reconcile their belief in a minority faith

All Spirit Matters Pirate of Paradise, 2024-07-08 Each of us is called to be a special kind of mystic when we are formed in the womb in the Divine Image Mystics seek to conform to the Divine Image from womb to tomb for as the Indian Sufi Kabir sang What hope of cutting loose after one's death The noose stifling heaven in every breath As now so shall we seek liberation In Life or be interred in illusion This compilation of prose and mystical poetry draws upon the life and teachings of Jesus of Nazareth a mystic who is revered as a rabbi in Judaism messiah in Christianity prophet in Islam bodhisattva in Buddhism and a wise and compassionate teacher and healer in secular settings References from several faith traditions are included throughout to emphasize the shared wisdom and spiritual heritage of humanity Through these reflections we explore the relationship and reciprocity of life forms on the Tree of Life We aim to foster harmony and healing among and across various form branches We seek to find common ground on universal themes as well as unique expressions within our own secular and faith traditions Hopefully these reflections will prompt us to conduct our own experiments on mystical universals in ways that are congruent and consonant with our primary language of Spirit Matters

Spirit Matters J. Jeffrey Franklin, 2018-03-15 Spirit Matters explores the heterodox and unorthodox religions and spiritualities that arose in Victorian Britain as a result of the faltering of Christian faith in the face of modernity the rise of the truth telling authority of science and the first full exposure of the West to non Christian religions J Jeffrey Franklin investigates the diversity of ways that spiritual seekers struggled to maintain faith or to create new faiths by reconciling elements of the Judeo Christian heritage with Spiritualism Buddhism occultism and scientific naturalism Spirit Matters covers a range of scenarios from the Victorian hearth and the state Church altar to the frontiers of empire in Buddhist countries and Egyptian crypts Franklin reveals how this diversity of elements provided the materials for the formation of new hybrid religions and the emergence in the 20th century of New Age spiritualities Franklin investigates a broad spectrum of experiences through a series of representative case studies that together trace the development of unorthodox religious and spiritual discourses The ideas and events discussed by Franklin through these case studies were considered outside the domain of orthodox religion yet still religious or spiritual rather than atheistic or materialistic Among the works obscure and canonical he analyzes are Edward Bulwer Lytton's Zanoni and A Strange Story Forest Life in Ceylon by William Knighton Anthony Trollope's The Vicar of Bullhampton Anna Leonowens's The English Governess at the Siamese Court Literature and Dogma by Matthew Arnold and Bram Stoker's Dracula

Making Spirit Matter Larry Sommer McGrath, 2020-11-13 The connection between mind and brain has been one of the most persistent problems in modern Western thought even recent advances in neuroscience haven't been able to explain it satisfactorily Historian Larry Sommer McGrath's Making Spirit Matter studies how a particularly productive and influential group of nineteenth and early twentieth century French thinkers attempted to solve this puzzle by showing the mutual dependence of spirit and matter The scientific revolution taking place at this point in history across disciplines from biology to psychology and neurology located our mental powers in the brain and offered a radical reformulation of the meaning of society spirit and the self Tracing connections among thinkers such as Henri Bergson Alfred Fouille Jean Marie Guyau and others McGrath plots alternative intellectual movements that revived themes of creativity time and experience by applying the very sciences that seemed to undermine metaphysics and religion Making Spirit Matter lays out the long legacy of this moment in the history of ideas and how it might renew our understanding of the relationship between mind and brain today The Counselor . . . as if Soul and Spirit Matter William Bento, Edmond Knighton, 2015-03-01 In an anthroposophic approach to counseling and psychotherapy we integrate the whole paradigm of spiritual science into the contemporary forms of psychology thereby reformulating a psychology inclusive of body soul and spirit Dr William Bento Executive Director of Anthroposophic Psychology Associates of North America APANA The art of counseling is practiced in many settings An uncle counsels a troubled niece A licensed professional clinical counselor LPCC works in a treatment center for drug addicts A counselor can also be everything in between the two If you consider everyone who mentors another from life coaches to police officers to wedding planners to lawyers to intimate friends counseling includes all of us Whereas mainstream counseling psychology has been moving increasingly toward cognitive and pharmacological approaches this book brings us back to a psychology of soul and spirit Through the guidance of Anthroposophy the becoming human being and Sophia and divine wisdom counselors will rediscover here an approach to people that has the heart of soul and the light of spirit Spirit Matters Connie Howell, 2019-06-12 The path to spiritual awareness requires both dedication and the desire to explore the inner depths of who we really are Sometimes it is a struggle but we are never alone Though invisible to most we all have spirit guides and teachers to help us maintain the balance needed to navigate life and the lessons it brings Spirit Matters Michael Lerner, 2000 The author of The Politics of Meaning presents a vision of an Emancipatory Spirituality one that is capable of healing our inner conflicts and reconnecting us with a sense of unity one that creates a new society in which compassion social justice ecological sanity and spiritual transformations are the norm Spirit matters Jim Self, 2008 The Mind of the Spirit Craig S. Keener, 2016-06-21 Leading Scholar Explores Paul's Teaching on the Mind This major work by a leading New Testament scholar explores an important but neglected area of Pauline theology Paul's teaching about the mind In discussing matters such as the corrupted mind the mind of Christ and the renewal of the mind Paul adapts language from popular intellectual thought in his day but he does so in a way distinctively focused on Christ and Christ's role in the believer's transformation Keener enables readers to understand this thought world so they can interpret Paul's language for contemporary Christian life The book helps overcome a false separation between following the Spirit and using human judgment and provides a new foundation for relating biblical studies and Christian counseling The Cosmic Spirit Roland Faber, 2021-03-04 Are we more than stardust Is the appearance of the fragile Earth in the vast universe more than an accident Are we not children of a Spirit that pervades the dust rejuvenates life and embraces the ever evolving universe Is there a cosmic Spirit that wants us to awaken to a consciousness of universal meaning sacred purpose and mutual friendship with all beings This book answers these questions with a spirituality of the numinous in our relation to the elements of the Earth in the matrix of the multiverse by taking you on a journey through nine paths and nineteen meditations of awakening Not bound by any religion but in deep appreciation of the religious and spiritual heritage of human encounters with the divine depth of existence in our selves and in nature they invite you to become sojourners by engaging the most profound embodiments of the intangible Spirit by which it facilitates its own materialization in the cosmos and our spiritualization of the cosmos Use says this Spirit the stardust that you are to become a spirit faring species in an eternal journey of the cosmos to realize its ultimate motive of existence the attraction of love

American Lazarus Joanna Brooks,2003-09-11 The 1780s and 1790s were a critical era for communities of color in the new United States of America Even Thomas Jefferson observed that in the aftermath of the American Revolution the spirit of the master is abating that of the slave rising from the dust This book explores the means by which the very first Black and Indian authors rose up to transform their communities and the course of American literary history It argues that the origins of modern African American and American Indian literatures emerged at the revolutionary crossroads of religion and racial formation as early Black and Indian authors reinvented American evangelicalism and created new postslavery communities new categories of racial identification and new literary traditions While shedding fresh light on the pioneering figures of African American and Native American cultural history including Samson Occom Prince Hall Richard Allen Absalom Jones and John Marrant this work also explores a powerful set of little known Black and Indian sermons narratives journals and hymns Chronicling the early American communities of color from the separatist Christian Indian settlement in upstate New York to the first African Lodge of Freemasons in Boston it shows how eighteenth century Black and Indian writers forever shaped the American experience of race and religion American Lazarus offers a bold new vision of a foundational moment in American literature It reveals the depth of early Black and Indian intellectual history and reassesses the political literary and cultural powers of religion in America accessible to churchgoers without formal theological training. Emphasis is placed on connecting formal theological reflection and the experiences of ordinary people with disabilities to existing congregational practices and denominational statements thereby enabling readers to decide on the best ways to successfully include people with disabilities into their communities within the rich and diverse Christian theological tradition. Radical Human Ecology Rose Roberts, 2016-04-08 Human ecology, the study and practice of relationships between the natural and the social environment, has gained prominence as scholars seek more effectively to engage with pressing global concerns. In the past seventy years, most human ecology has skirted the fringes of geography, sociology, and biology. This volume pioneers radical new directions. In particular, it explores the power of indigenous and traditional peoples' epistemologies both to critique and to complement insights from modernity and postmodernity. Aimed at an international readership, its contributors show that an inter-cultural and transdisciplinary approach is required. The demands of our era require a scholarship of ontological depth, an approach that can not just debate issues but also address questions of practice and meaning. Organized into three sections: Head, Heart, and Hand, this volume covers the following key research areas: Theories of Human Ecology; Indigenous and Wisdom Traditions; Eco-spiritual Epistemologies and Ontology; Research practice in Human Ecology. The researcher researched relationship. Research priorities for a holistic world. With the study of human ecology becoming increasingly imperative, this comprehensive volume will be a valuable addition for classroom use. Starting with the Spirit Stephen Pickard, Tracy Preece, 2001-12-31 Within the field of theology, per se, a fundamental issue is raised when we begin with the Spirit. This issue concerns the particular shape and trajectory of the Christian faith. How will the doctrine of God at the heart of theology be re-configured when the Spirit becomes the fundamental theme? To begin with the Spirit is to place such a question at the centre of the theological agenda. Rediscovering the Spirit Lowell Greathouse, 2020-10-16 How do we come together when things around us are falling apart? What is the best way forward when we are faced with political turmoil, a global pandemic, civil unrest, and spiritual wandering? Rediscovering the Spirit is an exploration of the critical spiritual principles we need to understand and embrace in our current social reality. The book focuses on the nature of the inward-out movement and how to deal with current social barriers that cause deep division and alienation. We can come together in whole and harmonious ways when we rediscover and activate our spiritual lives through centering, framing, practicing, and learning how to live with others.

Engaging with the Hopes of Parishes Brendan Reed, 2018 Catholic institutions today are faced with the challenge of redefining themselves within a context of growing pluralisation and detraditionalisation. Following the empirical work on Catholic School identity, Identity in Dialogue, this book attends to the institution of the parish. Engaging with the Hopes of Parishes offers a theoretical framework for parish life in a new context. It introduces a new diagnostic tool, the Searching for Parish Engagement Scale, and it proposes four models for parish life today: the convinced parish, the engaged parish, the devoted parish, and the consumerist parish. Brendan Reed is a parish priest in the Archdiocese of Melbourne, Australia. He is adjunct lecturer at Catholic Theological College, University of Divinity.

East Enders Mumford, Katharine, Power, Anne, 2003-05-14 What impact do poor neighbourhood conditions have on family life? Why does neighbourhood matter to low income families? How important is community spirit to people living in deprived areas? Does major regeneration funding improve social conditions? Using an up-to-date account of life in East London, the authors illustrate how cities faced with neighbourhoods in decline are changing. East Enders gives a bird's-eye view of neighbourhood problems and assets, provides policy recommendations based on real-life experiences, tackles topical issues such as race relations, mothers and work, urban revival, and social disorder through the eyes of families. It is authored by leading experts in community studies.

Undergraduate and postgraduate students in social policy, sociology, anthropology, urban studies, child development, geography, housing, and public administration should all read this book. Policy makers in national and local government, practitioners and community workers in towns and cities, and general readers interested in the life and history of urban neighbourhoods will also find this book an invaluable source of information.
