Alt-Education Catherine Tebaldi,2025-07-25 Alt Education looks at the stories the right tells about schools a fight between an evil indoctrinating government and a far right freethinking truth warrior between a frigid cultural Marxist teacher and a loving Christian mother This book explores the link between education gender and far right metapolitics and offers insights into the ways in which it circulates and is normalized Through digital ethnography and fieldwork it explores the production circulation and interpretation of these discourses and the ideologies they express tracing their movement across four groups of women in the US and UK fascists white nationalist Christian nationalists and Republicans Although often understood to be opposed to education the far right is instead opposed to schooling and offers its own practices of alt education Through media alternative schools and home education the far right teaches their ideologies of gender and race knowledge and power as well as transmitting alternative histories sociologies and conspiracies From mom s groups to digital discourses about the evils of public schools social media are key arenas in which women not only teach but are taught far right alternative knowledge Alt education teaches reactionary ideology as a timeless truth normalizing it through discourses of home family and love At the same time alt education borrows and co opts the language of critique normalizing racism sexism and fascism a kind of alternative knowledge while making it exciting as a countercultural critique of woke liberal indoctrination The book concludes with a look at this attempt to speak post truth to power as a way of normalizing and spreading their ideology bringing alt education to a wide audience as their critiques of woke politics spreads across the US UK and into Europe This book is aimed at scholars of the far right and gender as well as scholars and practitioners of education Written in an accessible and engaging tone this book will be of interest to both researchers and advanced undergraduates

Smit,2024-08-15 The spirit of the Reformation is often expressed in the well known slogan that Reformed churches are always being reformed according to God s Word ecclesia reformata semper reformanda secundum verbum Dei Over the last century the spirit of this slogan motivated someone like Dietrich Bonhoeffer to argue that the visible form and life of the church should reflect the truth and message of the church Already in his doctoral dissertation called Sanctorum Communio the communion of the saints the young Bonhoeffer combined theological claims and traditions with social theory and analysis in this spirit in an innovative way to study the nature and integrity and witness of the church At the time this was a radical claim with major consequences and challenges for Protestant churches Their life which meant their order structure actions statements convictions public presence and role was to be measured by their gospel which meant their message proclamation convictions claims They could no longer proclaim one truth yet live a different life It was this spirit which led to the well known Theological Declaration of Barmen in 1934 and to the formation of the Confessing Church in Nazi Germany. Many called this a moment of truth a status confessionis. It was this same spirit which later inspired the struggle in South Africa for the integrity and faithfulness of the church and for the credibility of its message proclamation and witness. The contributions in this volume 52 papers essays sermons studies were all produced in this spirit. Most of them have not been published before. They were all occasional pieces written over several decades in different contexts and for different purposes and audiences yet they all breathe this self critical spirit of the Reformation considering whether the real church the concrete every day actual living church that people know and experience and perhaps belong to truly strives to embody the gospel itself the message which it claims and proclaims. They all inquire under different circumstances and in diverse ways about different social forms of the real church from worship to congregation from denomination to ecumenical church from individual believers to movements and organisations whether and how they embody the truth of the church or not. Together these contributions tell a story the story of this spirit in South African circles over several decades but also in the ecumenical church in our globalizing world. They offer one small glimpse into different concrete moments in the story of this spirit in the life of this tradition and community of faith. Hopefully some of these accounts may resonate with others who also shared the same spirit and still share it today in new and ongoing ways. The Holy Spirit in the Life of the Church Paul D.

Opsahl, 2001-07-31 In the midst of today's change and reform Christians everywhere are rediscovering the tremendous vitality that results from the continuing activity of the Holy Spirit in individual lives and in church bodies. In The Holy Spirit in the Life of the Church experts in the area of biblical historical and doctrinal theology describe this expanding awareness of the Spirit's renewing work. The doctrine of the Holy Spirit is reexamined and a sound rationale is provided for the Spirit's continuing activity throughout and beyond the church. The Literary World, 1882 Mormon Classics William Alexander Linn, John Taylor, Joseph Fielding Smith, Wilford Woodruff, James E. Talmage, B. H. Roberts, Parley P. Pratt, George Q. Cannon, Joseph F. Smith, Eliza R. Snow, Brigham Young, Joseph Smith Jr., John A. Widtsoe, 2022-11-13 Mormon Classics is a compelling anthology that weaves together an array of transformative writings reflective of the spiritual and theological foundations of the Latter-day Saint movement. The Trinitarian Testimony of the Spirit Kyle Hughes, 2018-05-29 In The Trinitarian Testimony of the Spirit Kyle R Hughes offers a new approach to the development of early Christian pneumatology by focusing on how Justin Irenaeus and Tertullian linked the Holy Spirit with testimony to the deity and lordship of the Father and the Son Drawing extensively on recent studies of prosopological exegesis and divine testimony in the ancient world Hughes demonstrates how these three pre Nicene Christian writers utilized Scripture and the conventions of ancient rhetoric and exegesis to formulate a highly innovative approach to the Holy Spirit that would contribute to the identification of the Spirit as the third person of the Trinity
