The Seat of Consciousness in Ancient Literature Richard E. Lind, 2015-01-09 For early civilizations consciousness and the sense of self were experienced as located in the center of the body most often near to or within the physical heart Enlightenment was understood as the illumination of a transformed spiritual heart Thus the mind of the body as a whole was represented by the heart soul In contrast modern culture places consciousness within the brain resulting in a mind body dualism This separation of mind and body has recently been emphasized as characteristic of the psychopathologies of the modern self This volume explores the understanding and experience of consciousness in the earliest civilizations before about 500 BCE Beginning with a description of ancient Western and Eastern heart consciousness the psychological and spiritual manifestations of the ancient mature heart soul are summarized Ancestor worship lineage identity primitive consciousness and the ways in which the external world was mirrored by the inner world provide additional clues about the experience of heart consciousness Finally the work addresses the fundamental changes in the experience of consciousness that led to the mind body dualism of today

Eliezer serve as teaching texts and models for reflection on the teacher-student relationship in the Jewish tradition and in contemporary culture with special emphasis on the hevruta mode of Jewish learning a collaborative process that invites the reader into a dialogue with teachers past and present Susan Handelman considers how teacher-student relations sustain and renew the Jewish tradition especially during troubled times As a commentary on historical and contemporary educational practices she asks a range of questions about teaching and learning What is it that teachers do when they teach How do

With Intent to Maim; An Autobiographical Narrative Kalman Dubov,2020-10-06 This book describes my experiences being subjected to and living with abuse during my childhood and early adult years in the Lubavitch Chabad community in Brooklyn New York I discuss the effects this physical emotional and psychological abuse had on my development and life which resulted in my leaving this community and lifestyle When I grew up in this community the topic of abuse was either denied or spoken about in whispers Generally even if abuse of a child was known it was not reported to law enforcement and the child was not protected from further abuse The topic of reporting such crimes to the law enforcement authorities for eventual criminal prosecution is referred to as mosur a term of revilement Such a person regardless of the crime s committed is protected by the Jewish community and the victim is forced to face the abuse by himself herself without the benefit of communal embrace for resolution Moreover Jewish law excoriates a mosur informer by exclusion from normative communal membership These exclusions are embodied in codes of Jewish law which formalizes the process by vilifying the informer The victim thereby faces a double attack The first is by the predator and the second by the code of silence forced upon the victim The primary focus of this book regards the physical attack I endured at the hands of my mother She was angered by my non diligence in religious study motivating her to try to break my arm I was eight years old at the time And she was following the actions of another mother who broke the arm of her son for the same perverse reason this attack was a life changing event It forced to identify my mother and others as persons who represented a great danger to me necessitating measures that resulted in distance and eventual examination of the fundamentals of this religious life and identity I describe the other Jewish family that similarly abused a child Similar to my own circumstance no investigation or prosecution was ever conducted I remain convinced other families from these ultra Orthodox Charedi Jewish communities experienced similar or worse violence but such violence was muted and not reported My father was aware of the attack but did not intervene I discuss the details of the abuse as well as its aftermath and the larger concatenates these events caused in my life I conclude my narrative by stating that these acts and especially community refusal to acknowledge and respond is shameful and indefensible A few persons reviewed this material prior to publication While I remain grateful for their comments and recommendations the publication reflects my own insights and I remain responsible for any errors or oversights

Introduction Sacred Books; Secular Books Kalman Dubov, The ultra orthodox Jewish world divides the world into two distinct realities the sphere within and the sphere without The internal sphere which I refer to as the Sphere of Holiness is maintained in a sacrosanct manner so that the Sphere of Secularity does not intrude and contaminate the other sphere The range of figurative walls maintaining these two spheres affects the consciousness and reality of every ultra orthodox Jew so that this construct is continually brought to conscious awareness Every member of those who maintain this lifestyle is urged to continually be reminded and reinvigorated in this awareness Examples of such awareness begin with ultra orthodox schooling A child begins religious studies that are exclusive with secular studies either ignored or completed in a way that denies credence or importance In New York State the education law contains vague language regarding how a child is to be educated This vagueness allows those in charge of that school to largely circumvent traditional pedagogy As the child advances in religious studies the lack of external exposure coupled with the intensity of study requirements ensures the young man does not stray into forbidden areas that might endanger his sacred standing in the community and be enticed by the larger world Such study intensifies with each passing grade and year until he is fully conversant with ancient Jewish law and traditions after nearly twenty years of such study At the same time however he will be a functional illiterate in the lingua franca of his home country His female counterpart will not be exposed to such traditional studies because her role is to be the mother and home caretaker not the scholar The Jewish tradition not to teach girls and women similar to men derives from the Talmud and the legal determination of Maimonides This mindset has continued for hundreds of years and is unlikely to change Despite this limitation on women s education through Jewish history exceptional women achieved a high scholarship to the acclaim of their entire community including men In fact one woman a singular exception became a Chassidic Rebbe amidst fierce opposition A modern exception to such a study curriculum is Chabad Because it has a messianic outreach program the Chabad couple who establish a Chabad House in diverse cities and countries and are often the only ones running the program the woman must have the training to lead and know the deeper aspects of Judaism This book is not only about women s education but it represents the larger dynamics in how the ultra orthodox Jewish world bifurcates the reality of its members so that any intrusion from that external world remains in place An example of such limitation is the ultra orthodox public denunciations against the use of the internet use of computers as against the smartphone unless these devices are programmed so that surfing is not possible The future of these communities on a trajectory of high fertility ensures their future growth As they populate the United States and other countries replenishing the numbers lost in the Holocaust their exposure to and awareness of the world at large will remain extremely limited
