Sustaining the Writing Spirit Susan A. Schiller, 2014-03-04 Sustaining the Writing Spirit Holistic Tools for School and Home second edition is aimed at all educators at school or home seeking non traditional ways to enliven the growth potential of the whole learner Schiller urges educators to accept a holistic orientation for learning one that combines the physical social emotional and spiritual with the intellect rather than primarily basing learning on the intellect Included are details on background historical development and philosophical explanations of holistic education including a timeline of key people and ideas This new edition also addresses sustainability and spirituality as the core of holistic learning and the teaching activities provide context and processes for writing that encourage activating multiple intelligences It also has a cross disciplinary quality and could be used in a number of educational settings The Spiritual Side of Writing Regina Paxton Foehr, Susan A. Schiller, 1997 The Spiritual Side of Writing helps teachers and students to achieve that level of understanding to discover ways to tap the inner power inherent to us all Yoga Minds, Writing Bodies Christy I. Wenger, 2015-05-01 This book argues for the inclusion of Eastern influenced contemplative education in writing studies as a means of exploring the active engagement writers maintain with their bodies throughout the composing process It explores how this engagement can be navigated by integrating voga and mediation into the instruction and practice of writing Korean Artists and Craftsmen Dae Joong Kang, 2015-04-17 This book brings out the need for lifelong learning theory and explores how it is possible from a postmodern perspective The book uses life history that has gained its popularity in social science research to overcome the dichotomy between individual and society or between agency and structure Life history also reflects the postmodern or late modern conditions of social life In this book the author uses a collection of published oral history narratives of famous Korean artists and craftsmen The author maps out life and learning of five such artists and craftsmen with figurations of escaping creating controlling and formalizing These figurations are images of Rhizoactivity that the author proposes as a new conceptual tool to navigate lifelong learning from a postmodern perspective This book signalises a new way of theory building in the field of adult and lifelong education The Life and Learning of Korean Artists and Craftsmen Rhizoactivity conceptualises Adult learning in terms of postmodern and lifelong learning conditions Life histories as a method of researching lifelong learning. The four facets of artistic journeys escaping creating controlling and formalizing This book will interest researchers focusing on lifelong and adult education Its use of social theories in its study of lifelong learning amongst Korean artists will also interest sociologists and educators concerned with the sociology of The Art of Noticing Deeply David Buley, Ian Buley, Rupert Clive Collister, 2016-12-14 The theme of deeply education noticing the world of teaching and learning around us unifies the collected commentaries celebrated in this book The contributing storytellers teachers researchers poets photographers writers mentors and guides are integral to sustaining the art of noticing deeply to foster wide awakeness as Maxine Greene termed it years ago and engagement in teaching and learning settings and beyond Such settings might be a forest a global village a virtual place or a classroom They may be places where skills of collaboration social justice problem solving critical thinking ethical practice and lifelong learning are highlighted and celebrated Together the authors here explore the spaces where we teach and learn spaces where we explore and interact and the spaces where we pause and wonder This book offers insight into ways in which the arts intersect teachers creative beings and nudges the reader to think about refreshing and renewing what they thought they knew about teaching and learning Understanding Suffering in Schools Joseph Polizzi, William C. Frick, 2022-08-19 2024 Recipient of The Society of Professors of Education Outstanding Book Award Drawing inspiration from Dr Willi Schohaus s classic text The Dark Places of Education this book contributes to the discussion by defining suffering in schools and providing a survey of the American school system's inadequacies in the early twenty first century Through testimonies from former students on the ways they experienced suffering in school this volume demonstrates how suffering can profoundly affect one s academic growth and development or worse By analyzing the findings within a multidisciplinary ethical and educational framework this volume presents a moral vision for understanding the role that suffering plays in school Drawing on research in medicine psychology social sciences religion and education this text weaves together many strands of thinking about suffering This book is essential reading for academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of educational leadership foundations of education and those interested in both the history of education and critical contemporary accounts of schooling Crossing Borders, Drawing Boundaries Barbara Couture, Patti Wojahn, 2016-03-01 With growing anxiety about American identity fueling debates about the nation's borders ethnicities and languages Crossing Borders Drawing Boundaries provides a timely and important rhetorical exploration of divisionary bounds that divide an Us from a Them The concept of border calls for attention and the authors in this collection respond by describing it challenging it confounding it and at times erasing it Motivating us to see anew the many lines that unite divide and define us the essays in this volume highlight how discourse at borders and boundaries can create or thwart conditions for establishing identity and admitting difference Each chapter analyzes how public discourse at the site of physical or metaphorical borders presents or confounds these conditions and consequently effective participation a key criterion for a modern democracy. The settings are various encompassing vast public spaces such as cities and areas within them the rhetorical spaces of history books museum displays activist events and media outlets and the intimate settings of community and classroom conversations Crossing Borders Drawing Boundaries shows how rich communication can be when diverse cultures intersect and create new opportunities for human connection even while different populations cultures age groups and political parties adopt irreconcilable positions It will be of interest to scholars in rhetoric and literacy studies and students in rhetorical analysis and public discourse Contributors include Andrea Alden Cori Brewster Robert Brooke Randolph Cauthen Jennifer Clifton Barbara Couture Vanessa Cozza Anita C Hern ndez Roberta J Herter Judy Holiday Elenore Long Jos A Montelongo Karen P Peirce Jonathan P Rossing

Faithful Education Amy Lynn Dee, Gary Tiffin, 2012-08-24 This book presents nine biblical themes in essays authored by veteran educators who surprise and affirm readers with personal accounts of how these themes shaped their practice in education Culture faith and praxis often inform one another and in an era of increased scrutiny and criticism of education educators hold tremendous power in shaping the education of students by incorporating these values into daily practice A cycle of improvement follows purposeful attention to biblical principles and provides educators with the means to reclaim and reshape our profession When teachers are willing to examine their practice in light of biblical themes and values learning becomes meaningful and lasting Often that learning goes beyond the formal educational process Educators serve as role models and the experiences we provide for our students shape who they become and how they view life A faithful educator encourages positive dispositions of the heart mind and spirit The charge and responsibility of developing the hearts minds and spirits of those who enter our classrooms and the magnitude of the call to teach these students requires faithful recognition of these biblical themes — Holistic Learning and Spirituality in Education John P. Miller, Selia Karsten, Diana Denton, Deborah Orr, Isabella Colalillo Kates, 2012-02-01 In Holistic Learning and Spirituality in Education scholars from around the globe address the theory practice and poetics of holistic education Some of the topics explored include educating the soul partnership education nourishing adolescents spirituality education and the modern assault on being human the
