Spit Nolan:

Spit Nolan Bill Naughton,1991 The Goalkeeper's Revenge Bill Naughton,2011-09-28 The Goalkeeper s Revenge is comprised of stories of a Lancashire childhood of football on the streets fishing fighting and school of growing up and looking for work and of characters such as Spit Nolan the champion trolley rider Sim Dalt the goalkeeper and Maggie Gregory the amazing reader Coping with Special Needs Geof Sewell,2018-09-03 First published in 1986 Following the Warnock report schools attempted to integrate the teaching of children with special needs into ordinary classrooms Many teachers had no experience of teaching children with special needs and the new developments were likely to pose a substantial challenge This book provides a guidance for inexperienced especially new teachers in how to teach children with special needs in ordinary classrooms An important feature of the book is realism the book grows out of the author s own experiences and research The author describes what really happens and bases his suggestions on practices which are likely to bring results Portraits from Paris Gavin Cologne-Brookes,2025-05 Written between 2019 and 2024 Portraits from Paris is a novelized memoir of a boarding school childhood in 1970s England interspersed with journalistic sketches of cities as diverse as Montevideo Kolkata and Moscow that draw from the travel studded years between school and the author s move to France Along the way Gavin Cologne Brookes reflects on historic events ranging from Brexit the COVID 19 pandemic and the Russian invasion of Ukraine to the death of the queen the restoration of Notre Dame and the Paris Olympics Binding the personal and political together is an oil painter s rendering of his creative evolution building with careful brushwork upon the tints of the craft s discovery in adolescence to arrive at the nuanced hues of artistic maturity The Castle We Called Home Simone Brenneman,2011-06-22 The Castle We Called Home will draw you in from the very first word until the last It is simply a captivating story By the age of three it was obvious that someone needed to be with Hayden almost constantly and with focus It wasnt only because of his aggression or his lacking sense of danger It was as much because he would otherwise wander aimlessly looking for trouble putting objects of any type in his mouth or destroying things Or even worse he would park himself in front of the TV and slip into Nowhereland It tormented me Why couldnt I get more deeply into his head It was like standing in a corridor a door ahead locked and bolted shut and me hopelessly and frantically fumbling with a mess of keys none of them fitting Was it that I genuinely didnt possess the right key Or was it that I wasnt able to give myself the presence of mind to recognize the right key and then guide it into the lock Or was the problem that there really just wasnt a key anywhere that would fit It truly tormented me because we were falling apart at the seams I had found the key with Genevieve Id only had to think her and feel her and reach down from within With her it was all about getting into her head and her body and her world and then letting her feel safe and accepted enough to let me enter From there it was a matter of using tools that fit for her like Fantasy But with Hayden I didnt feel that I had that edge I couldnt help feeling that I had let Hayden down Why couldnt I do the same for him that I had done for her For more information about this book and others by

Little Red Readings Angela E. Hubler,2014-04-29 A significant body of scholarship examines the production of children s literature by women and minorities as well as the representation of gender race and sexuality But few scholars have previously analyzed class in children s literature This definitive collection remedies that by defining and exemplifying historical materialist approaches to children s literature The introduction of Little Red Readings lucidly discusses characteristics of historical materialism the methodological approach to the study of literature and culture first outlined by Karl Marx defining key concepts and analyzing factors that have marginalized this tradition particularly in the United States The thirteen essays here analyze a wide range of texts from children s bibles to Mary Poppins to The Hunger Games using concepts in historical materialism from class struggle to the commodity Essayists apply the work of Marxist theorists such as Ernst Bloch and Fredric Jameson to children s literature and film Others examine the work of leftist writers in India Germany England and the United States The authors argue that historical materialist methodology is critical to the study of children s literature as children often suffer most from inequality Some of the critics in this collection reveal the ways that literature for children often functions to naturalize capitalist economic and social relations Other critics champion literature that reveals to readers the construction of social reality and point to texts that enable an understanding of the role ordinary people might play in creating a more just future The collection adds substantially to our understanding of the political and class character of children s literature worldwide and contributes to the development of a radical history of children s literature
