time A tender laughing day might have laid a healing finger on old sores A clean frosty day might have braced the naturally sane old mind But Fate out of all the days in the year took upon itself to send just this The human soul Which seems so utterly out of reach is only shut away from every other soul In every other respect it is like a harp hung on a tree Even the actual day as it comes is itself a lever in many a fate Deeds are done on certain days which on others would be mere passing impulses easily dead before the night This blind Martinmas Day went all day long with its head among the clouds as if it thought that never again would there be any sun Indeed it was out of the lack of every sort of sight that the evil grew since otherwise Mothers couldn't have done those things as Geordie would have said About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
